SCHOOL NOTES.

O'Neill High School: On Tuesday afternoon the baseball game to decide on the Holt County Championship was played at Holt County Fair Grounds, between Stuart High School and O'Neill High School. The game ended with O. H. S. at the short end of a 7 to 4 score. The game ran for just seven innings. Lorenz, pitcher for O'Neill did a very creditable piece of work striking out fourteen men in the seven innings. It was due to several very costly errors behind him in the field that the game was lost. Farnor, the Stuart pitcher, had eight strike-outs to his credit. He allowed more earned hits than did Lorenz, but seemed to be better able to keep them from bunching.

On May 3rd Amolia Merrell represented O'Neill High School in the state music contest. Amolia was entered in the vocal group. In this group there were over thirty contestants, and although Amolia did not place in the first three, those who heard her were very well pleased with her singing. We feel that even though a student does not place in a contest of this kind, the experience gained was well worth the time and money spent in competing.

On Saturday, May 5, those students who won places in the district contest at Ainsworth participated in the state contest held at Lincoln. None of the contestants placed in the state meet, in so far as we have had reports. The reports on the scholastic pentathlon in which James Robertson was entered have not been given out. The group was taken to Lincoln by Mr. E. H. Suhr, James Parker, and Mr. R. V. Jones.

"The Whole Town's Talking," the Senior Class play was presented to a very appreciative audience Monday, May 7, at the K. C. Hall. And the Whole Town was talking, too, about the antics of the once retiring Chester Binney, Hugh O'Donnell. In spite of all the obstacles in his way, however, he finally wins the girl of his choice, Ethel Simmons—Ruth Scott, and in all respects the conquering hero. These two were excellently supported by the rest of the cast, and special mention should be made of the work of Marjorie Carter as Hattie Simmons, mother of Ethel, and of Elmer Lorenz as Henry Simmons, father of Ethel. Amelia Saunto as Letty Lythe, Edmund Hancock as Donald Swift, and Ralph Oppen as Roger Shields of Chicago, and did some very creditable work.

Miss Coolidge, the coach and also Sponsor of the class is to be highly complimented upon the type of play selected, and also upon the results achieved in the short time devoted to rehearsing. We are sorry that we shall not have another play from this group next year. The cast was as follows:

Henry Simmons — Elmer Lorenz
Harriet Simmons — Marjorie Carter
Ethel Simmons — Ruth Scott
Chester Binney — Hugh O'Donnell
Letty Lythe — Amelia Saunto
Roger Shields — Ralph Oppen
Donald Swift — Edmund Hancock
Lila Wilson — Harriet McConnell

Sally Otis — Edna Cassell
Taxi Driver — Mathew Morton
Sadie Bloom — Ruth Bailey

Grade Four: We have new reading books, "Studies in Conduct," which provide for work in Character Education. Today in language we wrote short explanations, explaining to our classmates how to do something we could do particularly well. Cecil Delbert Warner and Edward Kilpatrick have been neither absent nor tardy.

Grade Seven: The following were visitors this week: Mrs. Joe Wise, Mrs. Charles Pettijohn, Mrs. L. Fuller, Mrs. Jesse Scofield, Mrs. Hancock, Mrs. Burge, Mrs. Sargent and Mrs. Merrell. We have finished our required Geography and Arithmetic work and are now reviewing, using our extra time for exhibit work.
