MRS. MARY HANLEY.

Mrs. Mary Hanley passed away at her home four miles northeast of O'Neill on Wednesday, May 23rd, after an illness of three weeks of influenza and acute heart disease.

Mrs. Mary Hanley was one of the early pioneers of Holt county, having come here when the country was a new and unbroken prairie. She was a member of the Michigan colony of pioneers who came here about fifty years ago.

Mary Driscoll was born in Berea, County Cork, Ireland, on the 15th day of August, in the year 1849. At the age of eighteen she came to the United States and settled in the upper peninsula of Michigan. At Hancock, Michigan, she was married to James McCarthy in the year 1870. This union five children were born—two of whom are living, Dr. James McCarthy, of Butte, Montana, and Mrs. Mary E. Leary, of Los Angeles, California. Two others, John McCarthy and Eugene McCarthy passed away in early manhood. Another son, Dr. P. H. McCarthy, of Butte, Montana, passed away a few years ago.

After the death of her first husband, James McCarthy, she moved to Nebraska, where later she was married to Timothy Hanley. To this union there are five children, Jerry Hanley, William Hanley, and Abbie Hanley, all of O'Neill, Dr. Robert J. Hanley, of Billings, Montana, and Genevieve Hanley of Deer Lodge, Montana.

All of the children were present at their mother's bedside with the exception of Mrs. Mary E. Leary, who arrived shortly after.

Besides her children Mrs. Hanley leaves the following grand-children to mourn her loss: Dorothy Leary of Los Angeles; Mary Catherine McCarthy, of Seattle, Washington; Robert Jr., Mary Billy and Rita Ann Hanley, of Billings, and Edward and Bobby Hanley, of O'Neill, Nebraska.

Funeral services will be held from St. Patrick's church in this city, Saturday morning; burial will be in Calvary cemetery.

MRS. EMOLINE COPES.

Mrs. Emoline Copes passed away at the home of her son Richard Copes, northeast of Page, Wednesday, May 23rd, of paralysis. She had been in poor health for some time.

She was born January 6, 1844, at Owensville, Indiana. She was united in marriage to Ewing D. Copes, in Logan County, Illinois February 13, 1862. Five sons and three daughters were born to this union, they are Mrs. Clara Mootmove Omaha; Floyd and Frank Copes, Palmyra, Nebraska; Leonard Copes, Clinton, Iowa; Dora McCoy, Stamford, Nebraska; Ora Copes, Auburn, Nebraska; Edith Fisher, Cook, Nebraska; Richard Copes, Page, Nebraska.

Funeral services will be held from the Richard Copes home northeast of Page, this (Thursday) afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. The remains will be brought to O'Neill and will be shipped on the early morning train to her old home at Cook, Nebraska, for interment.

HARRY E. KELLOGG DROWNED.

Harry E. Kellogg, son of Webb Kellogg, a former resident of this city, was drowned at Dallas, Texas, on Wednesday of last week. His death was caused by an attack of heart trouble while swimming with some companions. The body was not recovered until Sunday morning.

SAMUEL HENRY TRUSSELL.

(Ewing Advocate.) Samuel Henry Trussell was born in Blakeburg, Wapello County, Iowa, on May 8, 1849. He was united in marriage to Rachel A. Davis on February 2, 1872. To this union was born two sons and two daughters, one son however, died when 12 years of age.

He moved with his family to Holt county in 1883 and homesteaded in the place known as the Trussell ranch 18 miles southwest of Ewing. Here, as an early settler, he endured the hardships of that day and fought the hard battles with the early pioneers of this country in the winning of the west.

As a veterinary he was a great help to his neighbors and through his contact with them he gained their friendship. He was a hard worker, very thorough and honest in all his dealings. After spending 27 years on his homestead, he moved to Ewing in 1909 and remained a citizen until the time of his death. During these past 18 years he has been very popular and "Doc," as he was familiarly known to his friends, will be greatly missed from the streets of Ewing.

He was in good health last Wednesday and went down town in the evening to get his mail and evening paper. After the rainstorm he was busy in his garden and went to bed as usual that evening. He arose at 6:00 a. m. on Thursday morning and was busy lighting the kitchen fire when he became ill. He was given all the help that could be given but passed peacefully away before the doctor arrived, at the ripe old age of 78 years, 11 months and 12 days.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his widow; one son, Walter, of Ewing; two daughters, Mrs. May Wilson of Kimberly, Idaho; Mrs. Bertha McClure of Wayne; two sisters, Mrs. Jane Derby, Blakesburg, Iowa, and Mrs. Herman Snow, Ottumwa, Iowa; two grandchildren and a very large number of friends.

Funeral services were held at the home on Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. William E. Wilson after which the remains were taken to the Trussell cemetery adjoining his homestead, where short services were held and the body laid to rest beside his son.

WALTER SAVIDGE AMUSEMENT CO.

The Walter Savidge Amusement company now playing its twenty-second season, comes to O'Neill for a week's engagement beginning Monday, June 4th. Plays in the large, new canvas theatre and many riding devices and features of entertainment have been provided for the midway.

No expense has been spared in providing the best and newest entertainment for the public. The new tent is one of the largest in the country and was built especially for this company. Its stage is the largest of any theatre traveling under canvas.

Chicago and New York players have been secured for the plays. "A Wise Old Owl," by Chas. Dazy, "What Movies Will Do," by Robert Sherman, "The Lure of the City," by Collins, "Patsy," by Chas. Morton, "The Gorilla," by Jewell Tull, and "Her Companionate Marriage," by Edmund Paul, will be presented. In case of cool evenings the theatre will be heated.

The concert band, directed by George B. Blocker, will give free concerts daily. Charles Cushman directs the orchestra. Madam Viola's tropical pets are the free act this season and will appear each evening at 6:45 and Saturday afternoon at 2.

A merry-go-round for kiddies is new this year in riding devices. The larger merry-go-round, ferris wheel seaplanes and merry-mix-up are among the riding devices. Viola's wonderland of curiosities, Freed & Freed variety circus, monkey speedway and Baby May among other features. Baby May is America's smallest, fattest girl. She weighs 480 pounds, is handsome and speaks seven languages.
