AMELIA ANN SAVIDGE.

Amelia Ann Savidge, wife of George J. Savidge, at one time a resident of Holt county, died at her home 710 Court Street, Sioux City, Iowa, Wednesday, June 6, 1928.

The deceased was born in Boscobell, Wisconsin, February 14, 1854, and was seventyfour years, three months and twenty-three days old at the time of her death.

She leaves a husband and three children. The children are Arthur Savidge (Elwin Strong), Fremont, Nebraska; Walter Savidge, Wayne; Mrs. J. Atz, Sioux City, Iowa. Mrs. Savidge with her family resided near Deloit, in the southeastern part of the county where one son, Walter, was born in 1882; the family moved to Wayne and about twenty years ago moved to Sioux City where they continued to make their home until the death of Mrs. Savidge.

Funeral services were held from the Anderson funeral parlors in Sioux City, Friday morning at ten o'clock; burial was made in Graceland Cemetery.

The floral offerings were many and very beautiful.

Walter Savidge was managing his Amusement Company and showing in O'Neill at the time of his mother's death. He and Mrs. Savidge and their son drove to Sioux City Thursday to attend the funeral services.

AGED PIONEER MOTHER PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY

(Atkinson Graphic)
 Mrs. Matilda E. Moss passed away suddenly at her home in Atkinson at 7 o'clock p. m. Tuesday, June the 5th, aged 77 years.

The going of this esteemed pioneer woman came as a shock to her family, her friends and the community in which she had lived for many years. Her death came at the close of a busy day; the close of a busy life, with no foreshadowing illness. Preceding her just six months, and similarly stricken her aged husband, Charles W. Moss, was taken. They were Holt County pioneers.

Mr. and Mrs. Moss had a good home in Illinois; and when they came here they soon created the conditions of home life about them. A school district was organized and a school house built; and here they had Sunday school and preaching.

Mrs. Moss was a loyal Christian, and as active in church work (as in other things) until age and rheumatism prevented her. Her home was always the stopping place of the ministers who preached in their school house. She made them welcome. She loved flowers, was energetic, conscientious, always the same. She was everything good that a mother could be. Many friends and neighbors testify that she was a noble Christian woman.

During the past few weeks she was often in church and was active at home. On her last day she was very busy, ate supper, washed the dishes, sat down and passed away.

Matilda E. Womack was born February 2, 1851, in Carlinville, Macoupin county, Illinois. On September 25, 1873 she was married to Charles W. Moss. They lived in Illinois for fourteen years and then, with their eight children came to Holt County, Nebraska, and settled near Amelia 41 years ago.

Nine children survive her. They are John and Harry now living in the state of Washington; Mrs. Etta Booth, Detroit, Michigan; Theodore at Chambers, Nebraska; Audrey Edith is the wife of Mr. Henry White and lives at Amelia; Charles Clarence at Oakdale, Nebraska; Nellie Myrtle, the wife of Charles Smith, lives twelve miles north of Atkinson, Cheever and his wife and son have been living with Mrs. Moss recently; Ira H. is Clerk of the District Court and lives at O'Neill; Earl C. is in Westfield, New Jersey; Thomas Moss, deceased.

The funeral is held this afternoon, Friday, June 8, at 2:30 in the Presbyterian church. Rev. Forest A. Heizer preached the sermon. Interment will be in Woodlawn cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our gratitude for the assistance and sympathy extended following the death of our dear mother, and for the many beautiful floral offerings.

FURNISH-SIEGFRIED.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized by Rev. H. H. Beers at the Presbyterian Manse at high noon, Thursday, June 7th. The bride was Miss Irene Siegfried of Frankfort, Indiana, and Mr. Kenneth C. Furnish, of O'Neill, the groom. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brown, of O'Neill. Miss Marie Bruegman was the honored guest. The bride was attired in a very pretty pink georgette crepe, trimmed with lace, wearing a pink hat to match. The Matron of Honor Mrs. Brown wore a lavender crepe dress with hat to match. The impressive ceremony began with the wedding march played by the pastor's wife; the couples forming a semi-circle. The bride and groom kneeling on beautiful silk pillows during the ceremony. Close by stood the flower girl, Miss Carolyn Beers, with a basket of roses.

The best man, Mr. Brown, assisted with the ring ceremony. Amid congratulations and best wishes the young folks left the manse, to find
