A STATEMENT RELATING TO THE FUTURE OF THE CHRYSLER CORPORATION and DODGE BROTHERS, INC.

The widespread public interest in recent events affecting the Chrysler Corporation and Dodge Brothers, Inc., deserves an authentic and official statement and an assurance regarding the future of these two corporations.

Subject to the approval of stockholders, Dodge Brothers, Inc., will be acquired by the Chrysler Corporation, the plan of amalgamation having been recommended by their respective boards of directors.

Each of these great institutions will retain its identity, and will continue, as heretofore, to produce and market its own product in accordance with the high and progressive standards from which motor car buyers the world over have previously benefited.

Each will benefit from the consummation of a plan which unites such tremendous resources in material, manufacturing facilities, financial power and manufacturing genius.

Dodge Brothers will continue to be Dodge Brothers, and Chrysler will be Chrysler. Their products will be separate and distinct and will be continued in production without interruption. Their sales organizations will be unrelated except as they shall mutually share in the advantages of the consolidation.

Both public and dealers may look forward to the greater benefits which the consolidation of such tremendous resources will produce—and the men identified with these businesses may be assured of a stable and definite future, inspired by the progressiveness which has been responsible for this uniting of two great companies.

CELIA ITEMS.

Charles Smith and Johnson marketed hogs Tuesday and Wednesday, hailed by the community truck.

Tuesday was the twelfth birthday anniversary of Margaret Aldridge and it was made very lively by a lot of youngsters who were invited for the afternoon, to say they had a good time and a lot of good things to eat, don't half express it.

Alpha E. Johnson arrived home from Oakland, Sunday a week ago, and is now a full fledged schoolma'am looking for a school with some scholars to teach. She is now engaged in the very useful activities of milking cows, tending garden and a lot of other homely tasks.

A fine shower fell here Monday night, and Tuesday the terrific wind almost turned the fields upside down.
In digging postholes indications are that it will take about 24 inches of rain to thoroughly saturate the ground. Cutworms have done a lot of damage and considerable corn has had to be replanted.

The east schoolma'am has gone home, but her mother, Mrs. Monson is still here and is doing her darndest with hokus pokus liniment, turpentine and hot water to dislocate the rheumatic jinx of her brother, Johnson's body is possessed, but so far she has had trouble to entirely jar him loose, but with continued efforts we look for either the jinx or the body to go.

creed to be a second lien on said mortgaged premises; and to satisfy counterclaimant, Frank H. Binder in the sum of $472.90, with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from April 27, 1928, which amount is decreed to be a third lien on said mortgaged premises; and to satisfy counterclaimant, Frank H. Binder in the sum of $71.25, costs shown on said order of sale, and the accru-ing costs and expenses of sale; the proceeds of sale to be applied upon confirmation of said sale as follows, to-wit: (1) To the unpaid costs of said suit that have accrued and may accrue, (2) To payment to plaintiff of the sum found due it, with interest thereon as provided in said decree and its costs expended, (3) To payment to counterclaimant, Frank H.
Binder, of the sum found to be due him upon note and mortgage set out in his first cause of action with interest as provided in said decree and his costs expended, (4) To payment to counterclaimant, Frank H. Binder, of the sum found to be due him upon note and mortgage set out in his second cause of action with interest
and his costs expended, (5) The surplus, if any, to be paid to such of defendants as may be shown at that time to be entitled to same.

All as provided by said order of sale and decree.

Said sale will be held open one hour at the time and place aforesaid.
