This Instant Light Preheater now on all models

Coleman Cookers Make their own Gas

This new Coleman Instant Light Preheater is one of the most remarkable inventions and improvements ever put on any type of liquid fuel stove. It does just what its name implies—lights instantly. All you have to do is touch a lighted match to it, open a valve and its going right now. In less than a minute from the scratch of the match, it generates the stove to full cooking heat—any amount or degree of heat you want for any kind of cooking.

You don't have to preheat this starter with a couple of matches or with a torch—no generating of any kind. It starts going the minute you scratch a match and turn a valve or turn a valve and scratch a match—either way you do it is right—you can't go wrong—you can't flood it.

There are starters and starters but there is none like the Coleman. It's different, new and original. It's on all models of Coleman Cooker Stoves—from the beautiful white porcelain enamel range, clear down to three-burner black enamel hot plate. Come in and see it work.

A real honest to goodness surprise party was pulled off on the non-suspecting Miss Alpha E. Johnson Friday evening, gotten up by her mother, Mrs. Johnson and in order to keep the secret she had Willard Greenstreet, who is quite successful with ladies, although young, coax Miss Alpha away to spend the day with his wife; everything worked perfect, even dad, the surprise was total and the crowd large, sixty-four present. Of course there was an early lunch, but just common grub, such as the Johnson's

O'NEILL DEFEATS LYNCH IN GOOD GAME SUNDAY—2 TO 0

O'Neill and Lynch crossed bats at Oakview Park last Sunday with the local team winning 2 to 0. It was a close game all the way, but Honeycutt held the Lynch hitters in the palm of his hand, allowing only 4 hits and striking out 12.
Schollmeyer led the hitting for the local team garnering three hits in 4 times at bat and Harrington followed with 2 hits with 4 times at bat.
Next Sunday O'Neill goes to Royal and the following two Sundays they are scheduled to meet the fast Creighton team, the places for the two games not decided as yet.

Struck out by Honeycutt 12, Roysovy 2, Hansen 1; walked Honeycutt 2, Roysovy 1. The hits were all singles, but a good many of the ball hits might have been good for a good many bases except that the wind kept them in the air. Lynch never threatened but once to score when Bartling went to first on a walk and E. Miconok singled advancing him to where he was left on base. This was the only man to reach third and only one man got to second.
Two double plays were made, one on each side. O'Neill made theirs in the sixth from H. Martin to Harrington to Troshynski. Lynch made theirs in the 2nd inning when T. Schissler caught a fly ball, and tagged Schollmeyer at first, making an unassisted double.

DOLLY MORSE
Baby your mother like she babied you—Bask in your baby days—

Protect Against Neglect of Mother Is Song Theme

New York City.—A confectionery store window filled with elaborate boxes of candy and the slogan, "Remember Mother's Day," was the inspiration for the new fox trot ballad, "Baby You Mother, Like She Babied You," by Dolly Morse, Andrew Donnelly and Joe Burke.
"But the song is a criticism of the sugary slogan I saw in the store window, rather than a tribute to the thoughtfulness of the candy manufacturer," says Donnelly.
"I was wrathful at the thought that Young America needed to be reminded of a 'Mother's Day.' Miss Morse agreed with me, and our indignation wrote itself into a song through which we tried to express the pathos of the mother who is forgotten on 'Mother's Day' and every other fox trot ballad, 'Baby You Mother, Like She Babied You.' Dolly Morse is known as the 'Baby lady,' because she has written many all-American grown-up lullabies, among them: 'Indiana Lullaby,' 'Sing Me Love's Lullaby,' and 'Hawaiian Lullaby.'"
