LOCAL NEWS.

Chas. Pool and Chas. Bryan stopped for lunch in O'Neill Friday evening enroute west.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Henry and daughter, Elizabeth, went to Geneva, Nebraska, last Friday where they visited with their son and brother, Paul and family until Tuesday.

A light frost is reported from many places in Holt county. Down at Inman frost heavy enough to freeze ice is reported for last Thursday night.

Harry H. Haffner and Harry T. Osborn returned home Tuesday night from Tulsa, Oklahoma, where they have arranged for a rig which will be brought here to drill for oil northwest of O'Neill.

A son was born last Friday to Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hancock.

Fred Richter was on the Sioux City markets last Friday with a car of hogs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Starlin have leased the Beha hotel and will take possession on September 1st. They are making a number of changes and are remodeling the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson returned home Tuesday evening from a two weeks' visit with their son, Ed, and family at Casper, Wyoming. They made the trip in a car.

Marriage licenses were issued to John Wenner, of Atkinson, and Miss Mary Olinger, Atkinson, on August 25; to Jud Bond, Omaha, and Gertrude Seger, Atkinson, on August 27.

Mr. and Mrs. John Greer and son, John Jr., of Wayne, Nebraska, and Mrs. Carl Iverson, of Vermillion, South Dakota, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson last Friday and Saturday.

As we go to press we learn that a Mr. Sandoe residing southeast of the Parshall bridge south of Butte, Nebraska, was killed Wednesday when the team hitched to a corn binder ran away with him.

Supervisor Hugh L. James, of Atkinson, is receiving the congratulations of his many friends over the fact that he is "grandpa." A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Judge, of Walthill, Nebraska, on Sunday, August 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bowen drove to Swan Lake on a fishing trip last Sunday. They also met a sister of Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. O. J. Evans, of Westerville, Nebraska, at the lake. They enjoyed a picnic dinner together.

Lizzie E. Kraft filed a complaint in county court today charging Margaret Sands with assault. The case came from near Stuart. We understand that similar cases have been filed in county court by the same party against the same defendants.

Miss Mary Joan Finley, assisted by Miss Helen and Miss Rita Reardon, entertained twelve little girls at a "treasure hunt" last Tuesday evening as a farewell party. The treasure was won by Miss Elsie Lockard. Following the treasure hunt refreshments were served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Reardon.

Dr. L. A. Burgess returned home last Saturday from the American Dental Association convention recently held in Minneapolis. Accompanied by Mrs. Burgess he drove to Sioux City the previous week, where Mrs. Burgess spent the week with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Fowler. Dr. Burgess says that 10,000 dentists were at the convention from all over the world.

Attorney W. J. Hammond accompanied by Tom Quilty, P. C. Donohoe and H. J. Hammond returned home Tuesday from an auto trip to Perryton, Texas, where he was looking after legal matters. They report that the corn crop is badly damaged throughout western Kansas and Nebraska; however, there are some fields that were not so badly damaged and will make fair crops.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Knapp and family, of Grand Island, Nebraska, stopped for a short visit, Friday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Uhl, on their way to Canastota, South Dakota, where they were called by the death of an uncle. Mr. Knapp is at the head of the educational department of the Grand Island college. Mr. Knapp taught school in the community where Mrs. Uhl was raised and is an old friend of the family.

E. J. Velder has a new sign on his 'bus, which is not only a beauty, but a real help to the traveling public; it is worded so that at a glance one will know the many connections. "The Rosebud Bus Line" makes with the buses in larger cities and other lines. O'Neill now has 'bus lines extending in every direction, the last one added hooked us up with Sioux City. The 'bus leaves there at 7:00 A. M. and arrives at O'Neill 12:45 P. M. and returning to Sioux City at 1:45 P. M. arriving there at 7:45 P. M. The 'bus business is here to stay and we hope everyone will recognize the value of their support and cooperation to our bus depot and the lines that makes us a part of the rest of the world.

A pre-school meeting of the rural teachers of the county was held in the O'Neill Public school building Wednesday, under the direction of County Superintendent, Mrs. Luella Parker. About 185 of the 200 rural teachers of the county were present. A program was given during the afternoon which included talks by Miss Justeson, the county nurse of Antelope county, who spoke on "Health and Sanitation in the School Room;" Mrs. Ida McClintock, county superintendent of Antelope county whose subject was "Required Reports;" Guy C. Miller, the superintendent of the O'Neill Schools gave a talk on "Professional Spirit." The county superintendent gave out the supplies for the coming year. The teachers seemed to take a great interest in the work and a successful school year is promised.

U. S. Marshal D. H. Cronin was in O'Neill last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Weekes and Attorney and Mrs. J. A. Donohoe returned home Sunday evening from a months outing at Pequot, Minnesota.

The J. B. Ryan building and the Henry Cook building adjoining it on the south have just received a coat of stucco which adds greatly to their appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mellor, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mellor spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Hastings, Nebraska. They returned home via Lincoln and Omaha. They brought home a new three ton Ford truck which they are showing this week at the Ford garage.

The old center lights have been removed from the streets and the new white way system alone furnishes the lights down town. The new system is making the streets look considerably better at night. However, if the lights could be extended one block further south a great improvement would be noticed.

The Catholic Daughters held their annual picnic at the Country Club last Thursday afternoon beginning at four o'clock when a picnic dinner was enjoyed. For entertainment a treasure hunt was given, at which Mrs. J. H. McPharlin and Miss Mildred Timlin each won first prizes; Mrs. Ira Moss and Miss Margaret Steckmeyer each won a second prize.

Chicken stealing seems to be on the increase in the southeastern part of the county. On August 24th ninety-five to one hundred fowls were taken from the farm of Mr. Norwood, near Ewing; again on Sunday night the thieves stole a quantity of those that were left from the first raid. Sheriff Duffy has been following clues but has not yet located the thieves.
