

Courtney's Own Photo of Mishap

This snapshot, taken by the intrepid British flyer while helplessly drifting in mid-Atlantic, shows a view of the rear engine of the seaplane "Whale," damaged by fire, which was the cause of this crew being forced down in a gallant attempt to span the ocean by air.

(International Illustrated News)

Leopard Pet a "400" Fad

Pretty Mrs. John L. Tyson of Philadelphia photographed with her eight-month-old leopard cub. The animal was purchased by her husband from the Quaker City zoo and presented to him on his birthday. Mrs. Tyson is the former Natalie Hutchison of New York and Philadelphia.

Receives Award Ten Years After

Brigadier-General Frank T. Hines, chief of the United States Veterans Bureau, acting under the emergency officers' retirement act, confers the first award on Captain Frank J. Jarvey of Washington, D. C., holder of the Distinguished Service Cross and the Indian War Cross.

"Never Again Blues"

Pretty Marion Harris, famous "blues" singer, who put her foot down on reports that she would re-wed Rush Bissel Hughes, adopted son of Rupert Hughes, the novelist. "Never again for me," said Marion.

Victim of Wreck

Mrs. Bud Snyder, vaudeville actress, of West Orange, N. J., who was among those killed in the Mounds, Ill., passenger train wreck. She was 33 years old.

Phi Delta Delta Head

Miss Grace Knoeller, Washington, D. C., attorney who was elected president of Phi Delta Delta at the sorority's recent convention in Seattle, Wash. She is a native of Pennsylvania.

Britain's Leviathan of the Sky

The biggest heavier-than-air craft, the "Inflexible," was one of the surprises at the British Air Pageant at Croyden. The plane is an all-metal, tri-motored monoplane with a wingspread of 150 feet. It weighs 14 tons, but experts claim that it will remain aloft with only one of its Rolls-Royce engines in commission. The huge size of the plane is illustrated graphically by the six-footer who is standing against one of the landing wheels.

(International Illustrated News)

Dictator's Son Here

Miguel Primo de Rivera, son of the Spanish dictator, as he arrived in New York for a tour of North and South America. He will establish Spanish tourist agencies in a large number of "key" cities.

As Doom Encircled Four Flyers

This remarkable photo was taken by Captain Frank T. Courtney when he and his crew were forced down in the Atlantic while flying from the Azores to Newfoundland, and at a time when there seemed no chance for their rescue. Seated on prow of seaplane, left to right: Fred Pierce, mechanic; and Elmer Hosmer, baker. Lying full length: Hugh Gilmore. Note radio antennae which ultimately brought the steamship Minnawaska to their relief.

(International Illustrated News)

In $100,000 Forgery

New Dollar Bills Hot Off Press

Don't get 'em mixed up with cigar coupons! Remember, those new dollar bills are somewhat smaller than the kind you have now. Here's Director Allyn W. Hall of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving at Washington, D. C., holding the first sheet of bills off the press, and congratulating Benjamin R. Haggis, veteran printer, who had the honor of furnishing off the "first edition."

(International News)

John J. Donohue is held in New York as one of three men hooked up with a $100,000 forgery plot, in which the bank which employed him was victimized by a gang.

(International News)