

Where Twins Were Buried Alive

Anonymous information from suspicious neighbors caused police to dig up bodies of twin baby daughters from yard of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hlatsky, of Monessen, Pa., home of whom is shown above. Right, Patrolman Ernest L. Hopton, who opened the tiny grave; below, surviving Hlatsky children, Milton, 8; Agnes, 11, and Elizabeth, 15,

Mazda Lane's Healthiest

Elsie Connor, petite Cleveland miss, who was chosen as Broadway's healthiest showgirl, is here pictured riding the stationary bicycle on which she takes much of her exercise. In addition to this she boxes, wrestles and swims daily.

Chicago's Prize Baby

Charlotte Petry, 15-months-old winner of the "Snookums" Baby Contest held at White City, Chicago. She will represent the city in a moving picture now being planned as propaganda for healthier children. Charlotte is shown above with the cup awarded to her.

"Greater Love Hath No Man"

"Don't worry, Fred," Will Rogers, famous humorist (inset), wired, upon learning that Fred Stone, famous comedian (shown above with his talented daughter, Dorothy), who was injured in an airplane crash, was deeply concerned over his failure to open with a new show, "I'll go on and help Dorothy until you're able to dance again." The cowboy stage favorite thereupon canceled engagements which would have netted him a cool half million dollars so that he might help out his friend.

Invents Sun Machine

Eugene Vinogradov, Russian immigrant and self-taught engineer, who has invented an ultra-violet ray machine designed to bring sunshine into dark and dingy places. Mirrors catch the precious rays and flash them a quarter of a mile to illuminate the darkest room. A special quartz filter covers the face of the machine to diffuse the rays.

(International Newsreel)

Wins Movie Contract

Pretty Elsie Herman of Philadelphia, photographed after arrival in New York to begin work in pictures. She won beauty contest in Quaker City and her dimples immediately caused film magnates to bid for her services. You'll see her soon in the galloping tintypes.

(International Newsreel)

Sought in Death Plot

Leonora Rubio (left) and Margarita Pacheco, pretty Mexico City girls, who are being sought in the United States in connection with the assassination of President-elect Alvaro Obregon. Chicago, New York and other cities have been asked to operate in the search.

(International Newsreel)

May Supplant Dolores

Consuelo Pani, daughter of Alberto J. Pani, Mexican ambassador to France, who, it is reported in dispatches, may become the bride of Jamie Martinez del Rio, handsome young Latin whom Dolores del Rio divorced in the interest of her career.

(International Newsreel)

They'll Return Historic Flag

Mr. and Mrs. George Stratford Barnes of Washington, D. C., with a tattered remnant of the Confederate flag which floated over Richmond, Va., at the time of its occupation by Union soldiers. They have indicated a willingness to return it to a Richmond Museum for safe keeping.

(Harris and Ewing)

Her Fiance Faces Death

Mrs. Florence Brown Sullivan, of Brooklyn, photographed with her son. She is the alleged sweetheart of Everett Rhein, indicted with two other men for the shooting of Patrolman Joseph Dursee in New York holdup. Rhein is said to have confessed.

(International Newsreel)

"Lady Lindy" Tries New Plane

Photo shows Miss Amelia Earhart, trans-Atlantic girl fier, on the wing of sports plane she purchased from Lady Heath in England. Her literary labors over for the present, Miss Earhart is enjoying a vacation by flying two or three hours daily.

(International Newsreel)