"DON'T TELL MY WIFE!"

The Simonson Post No. 93 American Legion will present "Don't Tell My Wife"—the big musical comedy, Thursday and Friday, December 13 and 14, at the K. of C. Hall. The production is under the direction of the Mid-West Producing Co., of Omaha, and all who remember "A Bachelor's Excursion," so successfully presented by the American Legion last season, need no further recommendation of Mid-West shows.

Mr. Jones and Mrs. Gatz again have leading roles with Mrs. Streeter, Mr. Clauson and Mr. Sauer sharing the comedy. Mildred Tomlinson has the part of the little domestic.

Delightful song numbers are introduced by members of the cast who are supported by a chorus of thirty girls.

Among the song numbers are The Magazine Cover Revue in which six specialty numbers are introduced; "Come and Have a Swing With Me" A specialty offered by six girls; "Please Don't Tell My Wife," "Lonesome in the Moonlight" and many others.

Reserved seats go on sale Monday, December 10th, at Reardon's, admission 50c.

A special 25c matinee for school children will be held on Thursday, December 13, at 3:30 p. m.

"Don't Tell My Wife" K. of C. Hall, December 13-14.

HOLT-BOYD COUNTY WOMEN'S CLUB CONVENTION

A meeting of the Holt-Boyd County Women's Club was held in O'Neill last Tuesday at the club rooms of the O'Neill Women's Club, beginning at 10:30 o'clock.

There was large delegations from Page and Atkinson, but owing to an accident to the car that was to bring the Spencer ladies, they were unable to attend. The first on the morning program was a report of the State convention held in Omaha in October, by Mrs. Edgar Stauffer, the President of the Page club and Mrs. L. A. Carter, president of the O'Neill Women's club. Mrs. Ackerman, State President of the Nebraska Federation, then explained the reasons for changing the by-laws for the election of officers at the conventions.

A cafeteria luncheon was served in the club room at noon.

At the opening of the afternoon session a nominating committee which had been appointed submitted the following names: Mrs. S. J. Berry, O'Neill, president; Mrs. Wm. Shultz, Atkinson, Vice-President; Mrs. H. E. Coyne, O'Neill, secretary; Mrs. Edgar Stauffer, Page, Treasurer, and were accepted by the convention. Mrs. Ackerman, the state president, gave a talk upon the work being done by the Women's clubs and plans of work to be done, which made one feel that they were glad to be one of such a group.

Mrs. McClain, of Norfolk, who gave a lecture at the county convention in the spring, upon her travel abroad, was prevailed upon to come again to O'Neill. Owing to the season of the year Mrs. McClain chose as her subject "The Holy Land," which she graphically described. She seemed to carry her listeners with her to the places of interest by the carefully worded description of the places of most importance in the old world.

During the afternoon music was furnished by Mrs. L. E. McDowell and Miss Verne McDowell, of Atkinson.

PARENT-TEACHERS.

There was a special meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association held in the high school auditorium, Wednesday morning from 10 to 12. The high school was invited to attend. We were honored by having Mrs. Golden of North Dakota speak to us. She gave a special talk to the student body on "Aim of Life" besides the musical program, which was rendered by the faculty and parents.

Holt County Agricultural Society Meeting.

An adjourned annual meeting of the Holt County Agricultural Society will be held at the office of F. J. Dishner on Monday, December 17, 1928, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon for the purpose of amending a part of the by-laws to conform with the state agricultural society.

Peter W. Duffy, Secy.
F. J. Dishner, President.

CHARLES BAUSCH INJURED BY FORD WEDNESDAY

Charles Bausch was run down and quite badly injured on the crossing near the Forest Smith home in the northwest part of town Wednesday evening about six o'clock. The car was driven by Gus Werner a carpenter from Atkinson who is working on the E. T. Campbell residence.

Mr. Bausch sustained three broken ribs and received a number of bruises. He was taken to his rooms at the R. H. Mills residence in the southwest part of town.

Card of Thanks

We desire to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation for the many kindnesses shown to our daughter and sister, Helen, during her recent illness and for the assistance and sympathy given us following her death.

BRUHN-TOMLINSON.

Mr. Henry Bruhn, of West Point, Nebraska, and Miss Isabelle C. Tomlinson of this city were united in marriage at the Presbyterian manse last Tuesday at eleven o'clock in the morning, by the pastor, Rev. H. H. Beers.

They were attended by Miss Mildred Tomlinson and Mr. Rodney Tomlinson, sister and brother of the bride.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tomlinson of this city and has a wide circle of friends throughout the county. The bridegroom is a young farmer from West Point; he is a stranger to people of this community, but those who know him speak highly of him.

A wedding dinner was served Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents in the northeast part of the city.

The newly weds departed by auto for West Point where they will reside this winter; in the spring they expect to move to his father's ranch which they will operate.

The Frontier extends congratulations.

TWO FIRE ALARMS.

The fire department were called to the Chet Calkins home in the southeastern part of the city last Saturday evening about eight o'clock to extinguish a blaze in a pile of baled hay near the barn. Not much damage was done.

Wednesday morning the department were again called to the residence occupied by the Barrett family in the western part of town where a hay matress in the upper part of the residence had caught fire from a stove pipe. No particular damage was done.

A NEW AND THREATENING MENACE

Liquor, dope, white slavery,—all these bugaboos of a past generation have given way to a new menace that threatens the very life of the nation,—the menace of Juvenile Delinquency.

Liquor affects comparatively few families, dope still fewer, while white slavery as symbolized by red lights and segregated districts, has practically ceased to exist. But Juvenile Delinquency as expressed in the amazing and unexplainable moral decay of modern youth is a problem that reaches into every community and threatens every home. It is difficult for many parents to understand the freedom of modern thought and conduct, and it is hard for them to believe that their child could be in danger.

All such should see "THE ROAD TO RUIN" which comes to the Royal theatre December 10 and 11, and which is described as "A Flaming Warning to the Parents of America." "The Road to Ruin," which is based on an actual case, is an amazingly frank story of the temptations confronting the children of today and contains a tremendous lesson, while at the same time, because of the extremely able handling of a delicate subject, it is first rate entertainment.

WILLIAM W. WEST.

William W. West, a prominent farmer and stock raiser residing almost straight east of O'Neill near the county line, died very suddenly Monday evening. He was about sixty-five years of age.

JOHN CARTON.

John Carton, an old resident and highly respected citizen of this community for many years, passed away Tuesday in the old people's home at West Point where he has been making his home for several years. The remains were brought to O'Neill and funeral services were held from St. Patrick's church Thursday morning.

The deceased was about eighty-three years of age. He was among the early settlers of the county.

At the time of going to press we are unable to obtain complete report but will endeavor to do so in time for next week.

MRS. LAVONA GALLAGHER.

Lavona Baughn was born near Lincoln, Illinois, on December 29, 1849, and departed this life at her home in Page, Nebraska, November 29, 1928, being aged, at her death, seventy-eight years and eleven months. Surviving her are five children, eighteen grand-children and fifteen great grandchildren. In 1865 she was united in marriage to Wm. Warren to which union were born three children, Eleanor J. Nancy Elizabeth and Willminnie. Nancy Elizabeth Richards, now residing in New Raymer, Colorado, being the only surviving member of this family. Wm. Warren preceded her in death in 1869; in 1872 she was married to Robert Gallagher at Lincoln, Illinois, to which union five children were born. They were R. H. Gallagher, Page, Nebraska; Mrs. Carrie Townsend, Page, Nebraska; Robert E. Gallagher, O'Neill; Mrs. Kate Price, Theford, Nebraska; a daughter Nevada H., having died in infancy.

In 1878 she came with her family to York County, Nebraska, where they resided until March 1882, when they settled on a homestead in this county four and one-half miles southeast of Page, Nebraska, where they resided until October 1900 when they moved to Page where she lived to the time of her death. Her husband, Robert Gallagher, having preceded her in death on December 14, 1908.

She was a devoted wife and a kind and loving mother and will be greatly missed by those who are left to mourn her loss. She had hosts of loving friends and neighbors at Page and vicinity and also in this community where she often visited with her son, R. E. Gallagher.

CARD OF THANKS.

To all the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted during the recent illness and death of our beloved mother, we hereby extend our heartfelt thanks.

R. H. Gallagher.
Mrs. C. A. Townsend.
R. F. Gallagher.
Mrs. R. B. Price.

CLYDE RICHARDSON.

Clyde Richardson died very suddenly while at work on the highway about eleven miles south of Bassett, Nebraska, last Thursday shortly after he had eaten his dinner. He in company with George Van Every, were preparing to return to work on the road; Clyde had stepped behind the tractor when he fell to the ground dead. He had not complained of being ill and his death came as a complete surprise.

Clyde Richardson was born November 4, 1885, at Eagle, Cass County, Nebraska. He grew to manhood in Lincoln, Nebraska. In 1904 he was united in marriage to Miss May Phillips, of Bancroft, South Dakota. To this union was born three children, Charlie Richardson of O'Neill; Edith Harrol of Omaha and Joseph Richardson of Lincoln. All are living.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Clark, of Manville, Wyoming; two sisters, Mrs. Herman Sotham of Plainview, Nebraska, and Cora Young of Los Angeles, California. There are five brothers: Allen Richardson of Manville, Wyoming; Charlie of O'Neill; Fred of O'Neill; Dan of Los Angeles, California, and Ted of Neligh, Nebraska. There is also one grandchild, Clyde Harrol, Omaha, and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Mr. Richardson was a man with a sunny disposition, loved his friends, honest with them and faithful to every task.

He was employed with the State Highway Department out of O'Neill for the past two years.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our appreciation to the many friends for their assistance following the death of our father and brother, Clyde Richardson.

The Children, Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

MRS. AGNES CASSIDY SCOTT.

Mrs. Agnes Cassidy passed away in St. Bernard's hospital in Chicago, on Tuesday afternoon, November 25th, at five o'clock, following an illness caused by heart trouble and diabetes.

The remains were brought to O'Neill and the funeral services were held from St. Patrick's church at ten o'clock Friday morning conducted by Father B. J. Leahy, interment was in Calvary cemetery.

Mrs. Cassidy came to Holt county from Chicago thirty-five years ago and resided for many years on a farm southeast of O'Neill. She also resided in O'Neill prior to her late marriage to Mr. Scott.

She was united to Patrick Cassidy in Chicago; to this union seven children, were born three of whom survive; they are Mrs. S. M. Davis, South Minneapolis Ave, Sioux Falls, S. D., M. K. Fagan, 1628 South Francisco Ave,
