

Dear Patrons of the Royal Theatre:

Before buying my sound equipment I asked for a quotation on price. It was so great it staggered me and I was months in making up my mind. Many times I decided I couldn't take the risk with no lease on the building after November 1st. But the more I thought about it the stronger grew my convictions that the people of O'Neill and vicinity were just as appreciative as those in other cities and that you would give me your moral support and stand by me in bringing to you the greatest achievement of all times, the Talking Pictures. I await your judgment and hope I may be given the support of O'Neill and community by your regular attendance at the Royal.

P. S. Just received a wire that the engineer would be here Tuesday to start installation. If all goes well we will open Sunday, June 16th with the Vitaphone production Richard Barthelmess in "Weary River." Watch paper for further announcement.

Sincerely,
GEORGIA O. RASLEY

ST. MARY'S COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

This year for the first time a St. Mary's graduating class held its commencement exercises in St. Patrick's Church. These exercises were unusually beautiful and solemn.

The Right Reverend Bishop Rummel of Omaha gave an address to the graduates in which he stressed the importance of character training and development in education and urged the class of 1929 to be loyal to its principles and to try to live up to its motto, "To Thine Own Self Be True."

The Right Reverend Monsignor Cassidy, Rev. Father Leahy and several visiting priests assisted the Bishop in the evening's ceremonies. A scholarship to St. Theresa's College at Winona, Minnesota, also a four year scholarship to any State Teachers' College in Nebraska were awarded to Earlean Dedlow; one to St. Catherine's College at St. Paul, Minnesota was won by Anna Langer, and John McCarthy was the fortunate winner of the scholarship to Creighton University, presented by the Right Reverend Monsignor Cassidy. Diplomas of graduation were conferred on the following seniors:

Harlan Agnes, O'Neill, Nebraska
William Beha, O'Neill, Nebraska

THE ROYAL THEATRE WILL OPEN WITH TALKIES SUNDAY, JUNE THE 16TH

The Royal Theatre will open their theatre to "talkie" pictures on Sunday, June 16th if the present plans are continued. Mrs. Rasley has an advertisement in another column that more fully explains the situation.

Mrs. Rasley is to be commended for her zeal to furnish O'Neill with the latest in pictures. She has endeavored to give her patrons the latest productions as quickly as possible following their release, and those who know say that she is the most progressive theatre proprietress in this part of the state.

Miss Gladys Williams and Miss Phoebe Abdouch expect to attend Hastings business college this summer.

ERNEST DUANE HENRY

Ernest D. Henry passed away at his home in O'Neill at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning following an injury to his upper lip on Friday, May 24th, from which erysipelas developed; the kidneys became congested and all hopes for his recovery were abandoned several days before his death. Dr. R. N. Larimer, an internal medical specialist of Sioux City and a special nurse arrived Monday; the specialist advised the family that there was no hope for recovery for Mr. Henry but that Dr. Carter who had charge of the case, and Dr. Gilligan who was called in consultation last Saturday, were doing and had done everything that could be done for him. The nurse remained at his bedside until he passed away, as did also Mrs. Dean Selah who also is a nurse. He was given every care possible but nothing could be done to stay the hand of death.

The injury to his lip occurred some time Friday, May 24th, while working around the linotype machine in the Frontier office. Little attention was given to it at the time. The following morning he was too ill to come to the office; his condition gradually grew more serious until the end.

He and his family moved from near what used to be the Disney post-office, to O'Neill in 1911. He began working at once for the McGinnis Creamery as engineer which position he held for about three years.

Mr. Henry began working in the Frontier office in February 1914 and has been a constant employee since that time. He was a faithful workman, always on the job and did his work well; the editor will miss him. Our association with him since coming on the Frontier seven years ago, has been most pleasant; he was a man who had little to say about anyone—and that little was always good.

Mr. Henry took an active interest in the promotion of the O'Neill Band and was almost wholly responsible for its existence; many times, during the past fifteen years he assisted it over periods of suppression. He was a man who took an active part in the promotion of church, lodge and band activities, looking toward the betterment and social side of the community.

Ernest Duane Henry was born at Vinton, Iowa, Oct. 13th, 1870, and passed away at his home in O'Neill Wednesday morning, June 5th. He moved with his parents to Mineola in Holt County in 1884. There they homesteaded. On December 31, 1897 he was united in marriage to Miss Salina Elizabeth Smith at her home in Ewing, Nebr. To this union three children were born, Paul L. of Geneva, Nebr. and Mary Elizabeth of O'Neill. Their son Eugene preceded his father in death about eight years.

At the age of eighteen he joined the Baptist Church and has been active in church work all these years; he was a very active worker in the Sunday School and Church and was an Elder of the Presbyterian Church for many years. He joined the Presbyterian in O'Neill in 1914.

He was a member and Master of the Masonic Lodge in O'Neill, also a member of the Odd Fellows, The Encampment and The Samaritan, and the Woodmen of the World.

He leaves to mourn his death, his wife, two children, two brothers, Archie L. of Omaha and George M. of Hanover, Mont., one sister, Mrs. George Tomlinson of Star, Nebr. and one grandchild, Patricia Jane of Geneva, Nebr.

The near relatives were all present at the last sad rites.

The funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. H. Beers, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Burial was in Prospect Hill cemetery. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.

The pallbearers were Harold Zimmerman, Walter Warner, A. L. Cowperthwaite, L. G. Gillespie, C. J. Malone, C. P. Hancock.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown us during the illness and following the death of our dear husband and father, Ernest D. Henry; also for the many floral tributes.

Mrs. Ernest D. Henry and children

ST. MARY'S CLASS DAY PROGRAM

Before a crowded auditorium on June 2 at 8:15 P. M. St. Mary's Senior Class presented a very clever and interesting class day program.

The first number was a playlet in which the modern girl graduate was compared with the old fashioned girl. This dramatization proved that in many respects the girl of 1929 has the decided advantage. "Miss 80's" was charmingly portrayed by Nellie Whiting, and Mildred Agnes, Mabel Hendrick and Bernadette Galligan were lovely frail old-fashioned ladies. Then came the class of 1929 to present the following program, Prologue The Alumnae

The bride was dressed in a white satin and lace gown fashioned with an uneven hemline and she carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley, while her only attendant, Miss Mary Jacobs, of Sioux City, wore a pale pink chiffon dress and carried pink roses.

The groom was attended by Ferris Skaff of Sioux City.

During the electric storm shortly before noon Sunday a sharp flash of lightning struck the roof of the barn on the Fred Krutz farm nine miles south of Inman. The roof immediately broke into flames and the barn and most of its contents were destroyed including a truck, harness, several tons of baled hay and some loose hay. Mrs. Krutz had nineteen hens setting on turkey and duck eggs, just ready to hatch, and these were burned in the barn. Some insurance was carried on the barn but none on the contents which are a total loss.
