NORTH CENTRAL DEVELOPMENT AND DRILLING COMPANY WILL SPUD-IN WELL JULY 14

The North Central Development and Drilling Company of Sioux City, Iowa, will begin the drilling of a well Sunday, July 14th, in northern part of Rock county near the Mariaville postoffice. The event will be celebrated with a picnic in the grove nearby. Interested oil men from Oklahoma and Texas will be present and will look over the topography of the country both in Rock and Holt county during their stay in these parts.

Harry T. Osborne is interested in the promotion of the drilling and has a large block of leases in that vicinity. Mr. Osborne has purchased the rig and drilling equipment of the Bassett Oil and Gas company at Bassett; as part of the consideration of the purchase Mr. Osborne gives the Bassett company leases on 640 acres and agrees to drill a well to the depth of 1,800 feet; he has been in Oklahoma for the past two weeks loading a rig which is now in Bassett and will be hauled to the scene of the drilling and set up this week; the Bassett rig was such a condition that it could not be used.

Those who had stock in the Bassett Oil and Gas company project will be pleased to know that their stock is still alive; that they are entitled to a share of the 640 acre block turned over to the company by Mr. Osborne.

Mr. Osborne informs the Frontier that as soon as the well is finished at Mariaville, he will move the rig to the project northwest of O'Neill.

BLOOMFIELD DEFEATED O'NEILL LAST SUNDAY

What might have developed into a real ball game proved to be a flop Sunday when the O'Neill ball team went to Oakview and met the crack Bloomfield team on the park diamond. The cause of the disaster seemed to simply be the fault of the umpire who could not detect balls from strikes. He seemed to show but little partiality; both teams suffered because of his decisions but O'Neill seemed to get the bad breaks. Bloomfield won the game 13 to 0. The Bloomfield lineup included Schroeder, who is farmed out by Barney Burch of the Omaha Western League; the catcher is farmed out from the Denver club in the Western League, and the shortstop belongs to the St. Louis Cardinals.

AGED COUPLE IN ACCIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Maloney of Fullerton, Nebr., received severe injuries when the Ford coupe they were driving left the highway and turned over about noon on Tuesday. Mrs. Maloney suffered a broken arm while Mr. Maloney sustained a severe injury to his right hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Maloney were both well up in years.

NO one need find the word "Failure" in the Dictionary of Life. It isn't there. It is found only in the man himself.
