THE 4-H CLUB

The Ever Blooming 4-H Sewing club held their regular weekly meeting at the home of Miss Eila Holz, Wednesday, July 10, 1929, where two new members, Jane and Cecile Boelter were taken into our club. The roll call was answered by "how and why to keep the sewing machine clean." Twelve members were found to be present besides our two new members also two visitors were with us. "How to make bias binding and how to sew it on" was demonstrated by the chosen girls; the girls did very well; because of being bashful they were afraid to say very much, otherwise it was a very good demonstration.

The meeting was adjourned to meet at the Pospisil home, July 17, 1929.

Following the meeting an excellent luncheon was served.

WANTS EVERYBODY TO KNOW ABOUT SARGON

"I never see a sick, run down woman but what I feel like walking up to her and asking her to take the Sargon treatment.

"About a year ago my stomach commenced to give me trouble. At first I thought it was only a mild case of indigestion but the medicine I took didn't help me and I went from bad to worse. I knew my liver was out of order for I was constipated and bilious all the time. My nerves were upset, I couldn't half sleep and many a night I lay awake and counted the hours as the clock struck, just tossing from one side of the bed to the other.

"Sargon took right hold of my case and rid me of every sign of stomach trouble. I have a splendid appetite now and everything agrees with me. I go to sleep now almost as soon as the light is turned out and only the sun coming in my window the next morning wakes me up.

"Every one should know of these wonderful new medicines. I can't recommend them too highly."
