WILLIAM HULL

William Hull, one of the real early settlers of Holt county passed away in the Lynch hospital on Friday, July 19th, where he had gone to visit with a daughter, Mrs. Preston Jones and baby who were in the Lynch hospital. He had been enjoying his usual health during the day; death was due to heart failure.

William Hull was born in Boone county, Iowa, March 27, 1852, and passed away in the Lynch hospital last Friday morning at the age of seventy-five years, three months and twenty-one days. He was united in marriage to Sarah Ellen Ross, October 7, 1874; to this union were born thirteen children, eleven of whom are living; one died in infancy and one son, John W., passed away at the age of seventeen years.

The deceased leave to mourn his death his wife, six sons and five daughters, all of whom were present at the last sad rites. The children are Elmer and William, Meek, Nebraska; Clyde, of Paddock, Nebraska; Levi, O'Neill; Arch, Crookston, Nebraska; Edwin, Sioux City; Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mrs. Preston Jones, Meek, Nebraska; Mrs. Cecil Miller, Boone, Iowa; Mrs. Cecil Haynes, Parmelee, South Dakota; Mrs. Leon Mellor, Redbird, Nebraska; he also leaves twenty-seven grand children ten great-grand children, three brothers, Poke Hull, Sidney, Mont; Ab Hull, and John W. Hull, of Bellingham, Washington; one sister Mrs. Jane Miller, Bellingham, Washington.

Mr. Hull was one of the very early settlers of the county; he came here in a covered wagon and homesteaded the farm upon which he resided until the time of his death, over fifty years ago.

He was united in the Free Methodist faith many years ago and lived in that faith until his death.

The deceased leaves a host of close friends whose acquaintances he made during the early days when this country was wild and infested with Indians, and settlers far apart; friends made during those times remain true until the end; they deeply regret the passing.

The funeral services were held from Marquette chapel Monday afternoon conducted by Rev. George Bressler of O'Neill; burial was in Marquette cemetery near by. Because of the large crowd of over two hundred fifty relatives and the large audience of sympathizing friends the services were held on the church lawn.
