ADMITS THEFT MUCH JEWELRY

Paroled Nebraska Convict Held for Return to the Penitentiary

HASTINGS, NEB .- (UP) -A 65year-old man who confessed to police he violated a parole from the Nebraska penitentiary and robbed a jewelry firm in Denver, is being held here awaiting the arrival of state officers.

The man, James Billings, was arrested Tuesday after a chase of three blocks. A short time previously he had sold two wedding rings to a local jeweler and when captured, he had in his possession $350 worth of gold and platinum rings, which he said was part of the loot obtained in the Denver robbery.

Billings had been working on farms around Hastings for the last two weeks and was located the day after officers received word he was

Lincoln Parole Officer N. T. Harmon left for Hastings Wednesday to return James Billings, to the state penitentiary for violating a parole granted him in 1916.

Records of the board of pardons revealed Billings was sentenced March 1, 1916 from Gage county to a term of from 1 to 20 years for forgery. On December 16, 1916, he was paroled but December 24, 1916, he violated his parole by leaving this vicinity.

Nothing had been heard concerning Billings by the board of pardons until his arrest at Hastings in connection with a jewelry store robbery at Denver.

ON MALE PHEASANTS NORFOLK - (Special) - Senator John C. McGowan announced here that he is making an effort to secure an open season on male pheasants in Madison county next fall.

The senator held a conference with County Commissioner Fred Terry and after that conference the senator stated that Mr. Terry was willing to open the pheasant shooting sport if the sportsmen wanted it. The senator and a company of those favoring an open season will go to Madison next week to meet with the county board.

"The sportsmen might as well shoot some of these male pheasants as to have them kill themselves,' the senator said. He indicated that Webb Rice, of Norfolk, a member of the state commission will be conferred with in order to get a large delegation to go to Madison and induce the county board to prevail upon the state board to open the pheasant season.

THINK CONVICT GIVEN TOO MUCH LIBERTY

LINCOLN-(UP)-When the petition signed by Dunbar citizens protesting the alleged liberties accorded Burton Gorton in the penitentiary, reached Gov. Arthur Weaver Wednesday, he referred it to the state board of control for

The petition, signed by 41 Dunbar citizens, declared that Warden Fenton had allowed Gorton too much liberty in employing him as his chauffeur, taking him on a vacation trip to Minnesota and on one occasion allowing Gorton to spend a night in his home at Dunbar unguarded. Gorton is serving a sentence of from one to two years in the penitentiary on a charge of embezzlement.

Governor Weaver said that the statutes show the board of control has full power to manage, control and govern the penal institutions and for that reason, it should be under the board's jurisdiction. H. S. Thorpe, member of the board, said the petition had not officially reached the board and he had nothing to say as to what action would be taken. The petition alleges that Gorton had never served within the penitentiary proper but had lived in the garage of Warden Fenton. Fenton said Wednesday that Gorton had served three weeks in the cell house and at that time, Fenton's former chauffeur had served his time so Gorton was made chauf-

NEBRASKA CORN CROP IN NEED OF RAIN

LINCOLN - (UP) - Although rainfall during the past week was deficient, weather was favorable to farming and in some sections corn made good progress, the United States weather bureau said Thursday in its weekly weather report. Lack of rain enabled farmers to put up hay and alfalfa, and to start fall plowing in sections where the ground was not too hard.

The hot dry weather was detrimental to much of the corn, the report said, and in nav places, progress was poor. Throughout the state, the crop is generally fair except in the south central counties where there is a poor stand and it has suffered injury. Good rains are badly needed over the state, Thomas A. Blair, meteorologist said. Pastures are poor and are drying up in places. The harvest of potatoes has started, he said, with mostly good yields.

Report Shows Closed Clearwater, Neb., Bank Was Badly Managed

LINCOLN. NEB .- (UP) -Unpaid depositors of the closed state bank of Clearwater, Neb., will lose about $163,495.95 or about 79.5 per cent, a report made Friday on the bank to A. C. Shallenberger, in charge of the state banking investigation, Loans and discounts having a pa-per value of $23,790.59 probably will not realize more than $3,200, the report said; there is little likelihood of collecting anything on $28,165.49 worth of judgments, and real estate valued at $64,795.84 will not realize more than $13,125.

During a period of two years and eight months when the guarantee fund commission operated the bank, a loss of $63,964.13 was incurred, this including losses on realization of assets of $37,973.78.

"Frozen assets in the form of loans to irresponsible individuals without security," was given as one of the reasons for the failure of the bank June 24, 1925, with deposits of $329,668.04. "A large part of such loans have proved absolutely worth-

Lax supervision of the bureau of banking in permitting the bank to operate even though reports of bank examiners showed the bank was in poor condition was cited as another reason for failure.

During the time that the bank guarantee fund commission operated the bank, 463 depositors, or 62.8 per cent, were permitted to withdraw their deposits in full, amounting to $74,309.86. "It is evident that the depositors who were permitted to withdraw all of their deposits were favored at the expense of the remaining depositors," the report

NELIGH, NEB., MAN HAS ANCIENT $2 BILL

NELIGH-(UP)-Difficult as it is for most people to keep money for a short time, Morgan Calkins of Neligh has a $2 bill that has been in his family for 153 years.

The bill, issued in 1776, was given Calkins' great great great grandfather, Gideon Sibley, as part payment for his services in the Revolutionary war. Sibley was a member of Colonel Ebenezer Leonard's regiment and enlisted at Concord. Mass., April 10, 1775.

In spite of the extreme age of the bill, the following words are legible: "This bill entitles the bearer to receive two Spanish Milled dollars or the value thereof in gold or silver. acrording to a resolution of Congress, passed at Philadelphia, July 22, 1776."

THINK CONVICT GIVEN TOO MUCH LIBERTY

DUNBAR-(UP) - Because Burton Gorton, formerly of Dunbar but now in the state penitentiary, is allegedly allowed too much liberty as Warden William Fenton's chauffeur, citizens of Dunbar are signing petitions asking the governor to investigate the case.

Gorton was convicted of embezzlement September 21, 1927, and began serving his sentence of from one to two years, February 15, 1929. Gorton was manager of the defunct Dunbar Gra'n company and is a soninlaw of Thomas Murray, former president of the failed State Bank of Dunbar, now serving a term in the state penitentiary as a result of his bank's failure.

LINCOLN-(UP) - "Much ado about nothing" was the attitude Warden Fenton took in regard to petitions being circulated at Dunbar concerning the freedom allowed Burton Gorton in the penitentiary.

"We have to have trusties," the warden said, "or the state would pay out a tremendous amount for help. We have from 75 to 100 trusties and there is no reason why this man should not be a trusty if he is

The warden said Gorton drove his car to Minnesota on his vacation, from which he returned this week, and the plan is to continue Gorton as his chauffeur.

The visit of Gorton to Dunbar one night was confirmed by Fenton, who said he and Mrs. Fenton remained in Nebraska City one night while Gorton went to Dunbar to arrange for eye treatment for a daughter. This was about two months ago.

Hobby Lighthouse Proves To Be Necessary Service OSHKOSH, WIS .--William

H. Bray, former state senator, had a lighthouse complex. So fond was he of the mariner's friend that he built one on a point of his land in Lake Winnebago. It was a beautiful lighthouse, and on clear nights its twinkling rays were visible seven miles out in the lake. The government licensed the light. Eventually Bray sold his property and moved to Oregon. Subsequent owners, without the lighthouse complex, sought to be rid of it but to no avail. The government insisted it be operated. Mrs. John Thompson. wife of the present owner, now is the keeper. A group of lake craft owners pay for the lighthouse's upkeep. Mr. Bray is said to have found bigger and Stock Inflation. From Commerce and Finance. "What do two and two make?" asked a proud father of his little boy. "Twenty two," answered the lad. "Why, son, don't you know that two and two make four?" queried the father. "Well, dad, that depends upon the way you look at it," answered the youngster.

better lighthouses in Oregon.

This old story is appropriate to he present situation in the United States. In almost every line of busi-ness it is assumed that two and two make 22, and that by putting properties together their value can be multiplied many times over. Hence a further advance in the stock market has occurred, based upon rumors of consolidations and mergers that are almost fantastic.

One example is a proposal to form a huge trust that shall include all the power plants in the United States. It has been seriously discussed in high quarters. Another is a plan that contemplates as-sembling all the railways of the United States into five great corporations, and a third is a huge merger that will include most of the chain store organizations already

Although it seems unlikely that any of these proposals will be realized in the near future they have served to fire the speculative imagination, and have encouraged the buying of stocks. The result is that all the published "averages" have ascended to new highs, and the demand for credit to carry these pur-chases has pushed the total of brokers' loans through the previous peak reached last March. Bank cans upon collateral also have retraced their previous decline, and if there was reason last winter for the concern which most bankers expressed over the dangers of the speculative absorption of credit there would seem to be equal cause for apprehension now.

This was $64,673.56 woht and the bank's capital was only $12,000. Seventy five per cent of a bank's capital may be held in real estate the investigators declare. They blame this as one of the main causes of the bank's fail-

LINCOLN, NEB .- (UP)-The cost of Nebraska's investigation of state banking agencies will come well under the $150,000 appropriated for it by the last legislature, it was indicated Monday in the report of A. C. Shallenberger, in charge of the in-

During the month of July he paid to his accountants, $6,062.50 and office expenses, including his salary of $600 a month, were $1,100, making a total of $7,162.50 expenses for July. If the investigation is conducted for six months, this would bring the total expense under $50,000.

From June 13 to 30, the 12 accountants were paid $1,725. The office expenses for June were again approximately $1,100, making the investigation cost to the end of July approximately $8,987.50.

The certified accountants are paid $20 a day while the assistant accountants are paid $12.50. The accountants are paid by the hour with an 8-hour basis.

RESIST BOOSTS IN ASSESSMENT

Telegraph and Telephone Companies Attack Work of Nebraska Board

LINCOLN, NEB. - (UP)-A fifth suit attacking the increased assessments of the state board of assessments and equalization is on file in the supreme court with the action of the American Telephone and Telegraph company filing late Monday a petition in error and assignments of errors.

The suit is in the same form as the petition filed earlier in the day by the Northwestern Bell Telephone company, which attacked the 20 per cent increased assessments levied against it by the board. The American Telephone and Telegraph company owns only about $200,000 worth of property in the state but is interested as a stockholder in the $11,000,000 worth of property of the Northwestern Bell Telephone company in Nebraska. The $50,000 franchise of the A. T. and T. is not involved in the suit. Although the Postal Telegraph company filed notice Monday that it would resist a 30 per cent inproperty, no suit was filed. Attorneys for public service corporations contend, however, that the law merely requires them to give 10 days notice to the board of intention to appeal but that the appeal need not be filed in court within 10 days of the making of the assessment. This would give public service companies until November 2 to file an appeal. The A. T. and T. petition alleges the state board did not equalize the properties of telephone companies as between counties but that its order purports to effect a uniform increase in the assessed valuation of all property of all telephone companies in all counties, thus usurping the powers of the assessing and equalizing bodies of the counties.
