Energy.

ATHLETES know the value of bread. Doctors and trainers advise them to make bread a basic part of their diet, which of course includes meats, veetables, fruits, eggs and dairy products.

In this day of athletic competition, bread is depended upon to furnish strength, heat and energy in one of the most pleasant and economical forms.

White bread is one of our most digestible foods. The protein and carbohydrates, in which it is rich, are virtually all assimilated by the human system. When it is considered that our present bread is, generally, made with milk, butter and other nutritious ingredients, supplying proteins and minerals and some of the necessary vitamins, it can be understood what a valuable food function bread performs in our daily

Miss Cassie Gallagher died at 8 Celotex as compared to sheeting, o'clock a. m., Thursday, September which was strongly in favor of the 26th, at Saint Catherine's hospital, Omaha, Nebraska, where she had been for almost eleven months.

> She was born at Gratiot, Wisconsin, sixty-eight years ago, where she grew to young womanhood, but for a great many years past had made her home at the residence of her sister. Mrs. T. F. Birmingham, in O'Neill Nebraska. Her remains were taken to her former home at Darlington, Wisconsin, and accompanied by her brother-in-law, T. F. Birmingham, and nephews, H. J. Birmingham, of O'Neill, Nebraska; Donald Gallagher of Lincoln; Bernard Boyle and wife, of Omaha and Hugh J. Boyle, of Norfolk, Nebraska. Her nephew, Rev. Father John Collins, of Fond-du-Lac, Wisconsin, celebrated the Requiem High Mass at her funeral, which took place from Saint Joseph's Catholic Church on Saturday, September 28th, the remains being laid to rest beside her father and mother, sisters and brothers who preceded her in death some years ago. The pall-bearers were her six nephews, who represented six different families. The large concourse of friends who followed her remains to the grave, was sincere evidence of the high appreciation in which she was held by her former friends and acquaintances.

SISTER MARY HUMILIATA

The Sisters of St. Francis, the pupils of St. Mary's Academy, and the many friends of Sr. Mary Humiliata are deeply grieved at her death which occurred last Monday, after a very short illness. The funeral took place this morning, from St. Patrick's Church. A Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated, with Right Rev. Monsignor Cassidy as celebrant, Rev. Father Alberts of Ewing as deacon, Rev. Pieper, of Atkinson as sub-deacon and Rev. Father Vanderlaan, of Amelia, as Master of Ceremonies. Rev. Father Leahy gave a very appropriate talk, taking as his text, "I am the Resurrection and the Life."
