HELEN'S NOVELTY NOOK

Mrs. A. L. Smith and son Ernest drove up from Arcadia, Nebraska, the latter part of last week, for a visit with the former's sister, Mrs. Eliza Tarpenning, who has been quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chet Calkins.

Mrs. Edward O'Donnell was taken seriously ill early last Saturday morning and on Tuesday morning was taken to the hospital at Norfolk, where she submitted to an operation for the removal of the appendix, which was ruptured. Her condition has been very grave; the latest word as we go to press is that she is much better.

MR. AND MRS. McDERMOTT SURPRISED TUESDAY EVENING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McDermott, who reside just south of O'Neill, was the scene of a very pleasant surprise party last Tuesday evening when a number of old time friends gathered at their home to assist in celebrating a birthday anniversary of Mr. McDermott.

The following account of the event was handed to us Wednesday morning and tells the story:

"A very pleasant surprise was pulled on Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McDermott at their home on the banks of the Elkhorn river, Tuesday evening, December 3rd, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of James. About this time every year James has a birthday anniversary; we all know when the anniversary comes because it is always in the December snow. Jim looks just like he did when we first commenced helping celebrate. If James knows how old he is, he says nothing about it; we know he is over eight and under eighty, but where he stops is hard to tell because Jim looks the same as he always did. Those taking part were Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Hickey; Mr. and Mrs. John Hickey; Mr. and Mrs. Walt McNichols; Mr. and Mrs. Joe McNichols; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohoe and boys; Mr. and Mrs. John L. Quig. The evening was passed at cards, dancing and eating—mostly eating. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Griffin were absent; too bad some folks grow old so fast; don't quit, Tom, we miss the accordion very much. Everyone went home happy. Here's to Mr. and Mrs. McDermott for another year of health, wealth and plenty of eats."

PRINCIPAL R. V. JONES TO GET MASTER'S DEGREE

R. V. Jones, principal of the public school, has been granted a leave of absence which will begin January 1, 1930, which will run through the present school year. Mr. Jones will go to Nashville, Tennessee, where he will complete his Master's degree in the Peabody Institute. The course will be completed by the latter part of August in time for him to again take up school work at the beginning of the next school year.

FRED CLARK, OF PAGE, SUFFERS MANGLED HAND

Fred Clark, of Page, Nebraska, suffered a serious injury to his right hand this afternoon which may cause him to lose the entire hand. Fred was assisting Roy Parker, residing north of Page, to operate a corn husking machine; Fred put his hand into the machine to remove a corn stalk, his hand came in contact with the working parts of the husker and the injury followed. He was rushed to Norfolk at once in company with his wife, his father, William Clark and Dr. French, of Page.

ELIZA ELLEN TARPENNING

Mrs. Eliza Ellen Tarpenning was born November 15, 1859, in Iowa and died December 6, 1929, age 70 years and 21 days, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chester Calkins, in O'Neill.

She was married to Harrison Tarpenning, November 23, 1876. To this union seven children were born, two having preceded her in death. Those living are: Mrs. Harley Sanford, Erickson; Mrs. N. G. White, Primrose; Mrs. Fred Woods, Fremont; Mrs. Chester Calkins, O'Neill; Ralph Tarpenning, Columbus. She came to this county in May, 1922.

The body will be shipped Saturday morning to Ashland, Nebr., where services will be held at the Christian church at 11:30 p. m., after which the remains will be laid to rest in the Carr cemetery at Ashland.
