

Mayflower, Yacht of Five Presidents, May Become Official New York Yacht

Mayor Walker soon may pace the decks of the Mayflower, where the feet of five Presidents have trod. The Mayor confirmed the report that wealthy friends are negotiating for the purchase of the Mayflower. If the deal goes through, the yacht will supplant the Macon as New York City's official welcoming yacht. (Upper) Ex-President Coolidge, President Hoover, Mayor James J. Walker, of New York. (Lower) The historic yacht which President Hoover has discarded too costly.

John D. 3d Goes to Work at No. 26

Acclaimed the Most Beautiful Mannequin In Movie Colony

Do you agree with the judges who picked Miss Dolly Jarvis as the most beautiful mannequin in Hollywood? It was no hollow honor, as hundreds of the world's best designers, working in Hollywood, bid to make the movie colony the fashion center of the world.

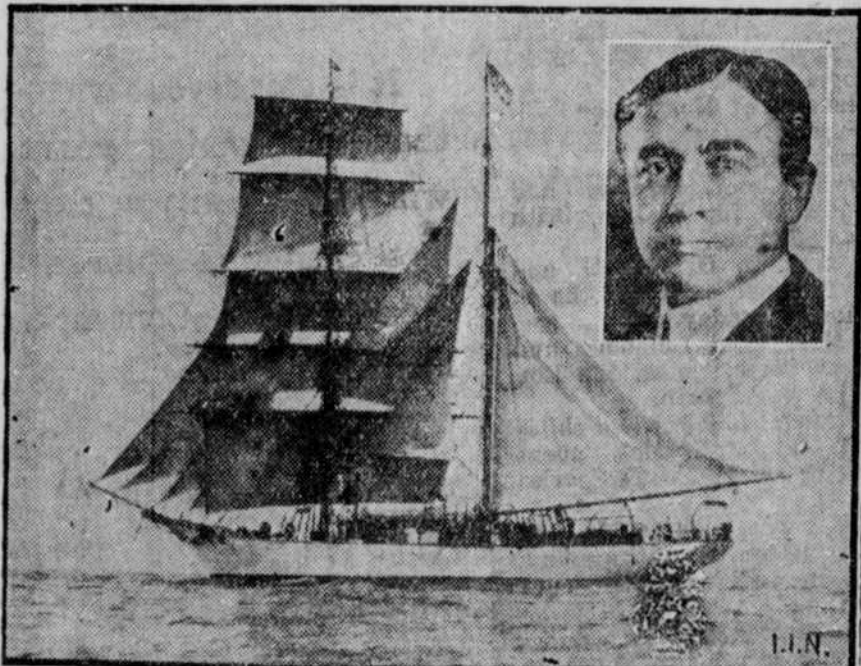

John D. Rockefeller, the third of that name, followed in his father's footsteps a few days ago. His college course completed, his grand tour over, the heir to the largest fortune in the world went to work at 26 Broadway, New York, the headquarters of the Standard Oil Company.

Gene and Mrs. Tunney Return Home After Year's Absence

Gene Tunney and his wife, the former Polly Lauder, as they arrived in New York aboard the liner Vulcania. Thus ends their sojourn of more than a year in Europe which began with their wedding in Rome last October—and ends with a breach of promise suit in Connecticut. The ex-king of the ring is sued by Katherine King Fogarty for $500,000 and her ex-husband's accompanying $500,000 suit for alienation of affections.

The Ill-Fated Yacht, Carnegie

The Yacht, Carnegie, owned by the Carnegie Institute of Washington, which blew up in the harbor of Apia, Samoa, resulting in the death of the master, Capt. J. P. Ault. The Carnegie was a wooden craft, built in 1909 for experimental voyages. It has made several trips around the world (Inset) Captain J. P. Ault.

McCormick's Doctor, Freudian Disciple, Gets $300 a Day

The controversy which has brought attorneys and medical experts from all parts of the world in connection with the fight for custodian of Stanley McCormick's $50,000,000 estate, hinges largely on the employment of Dr. Edward J. Kempf, New York neurologist (above) and ardent disciple of Sigmund Freud, Vienna psychologist and originator of psychoanalysis. In the thirty months since Dr. Kempf has been in charge of Stanley McCormick, he has received $10,000 a month.

Jumps from Bridge To Pay Wager; Now Unemployed

Payment of a wager caused Catherine Sherwood of Norwalk, Conn., to lose her job. She had made a football wager with James Hicks, floorwalker in the same establishment, whereby she, as the loser, was bound to dive from a thirty-foot bridge into the ice-filled harbor. The fulfillment of her wager caused her to report late after lunch hour.

Elected Head of International League

Charles H. Knapp, Baltimore lawyer, was unanimously elected president of the International League at the annual convention at Chattanooga, Tenn., of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues. Knapp succeeds Conway Toole, who died over a year ago.

Scores Inconsistency Of New Moderns

Ethel Mannin, popular English novelist, scored the "new moderns" who are constantly searching for the unconventional. After a time, she asserts, so many women do the unconventional that it becomes conventional.

Morgan Manor House to be Yacht Club

The forty-four room manor house of the old James Pierpont Morgan estate, Cragston-on-Hudson, New York, will be converted into the main clubhouse for the recently announced Cragston Yacht and Country Club.

The club acquired more than 400 acres of the main estate at a cost of $1,500,000. The estate is not only beautiful but it has a great historic value containing the graves of many Revolutionary War heroes. (Inset) John Pierpont Morgan.

Is This Napoleon's Necklace? Given to Queen Maria Louise in 1811

Noble Owner of Much Disputed Necklace

This necklace, which is in the custody of Mrs. C. F. Townsend, the Princess Baronte of Italy, and her husband, a British citizen, is represented by them as being the same necklace that was presented to Queen Maria Louisa by Napoleon, on the birth of their son in 1811. The present owner of the necklace is the Archduchess Marie Therese of Austria. Mrs. Townsend is asking the United States Customs Officials to investigate claims made by Mrs. Ernest Graham of Chicago that a string of diamonds in her possession are the genuine Napoleon ones, and discrediting the validity of the Townsend diamonds.

The Archduchess Maria Theresa of Austria wearing the diamond necklace that was presented to the Empress Maria by Napoleon in 1811. It is now in the custody of Mrs. C. F. Townsend of New York. A similar necklace is in the possession of Mrs. Ernest Graham of Chicago. Both claim their necklace is the one presented by Napoleon.

Largest British All-Metal Flying Boat

Britain's largest all-metal flying boat, Iris III, is ready for an initial test and trial flight. The huge ship has a wing span of one hundred feet and is supplied with three engines. The ship has been constructed for use of the ministry in coastal patrol work.

Germany's New Foreign Minister

Delegate Havemann, a well-known painter of Hildesheim, who succeeds the late Dr. Gustav Stresemann as Germany's Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Strong, Quarantine Head, Sworn In

Leo A. Strong, of California, was recently selected head of the Plant Quarantine and Control Administration of the United States Department of Commerce. Picture shows the new Quarantine Head being sworn into his new office by R. M. Reese, Chief Clerk of the Department.

Wyoming Man Is Appointed to Senate

Patrick J. Sullivan, Republican National Committeeman from Wyoming, has been appointed by Governor Frank C. Emerson to succeed the late Senator Francis E. Warren. Sullivan will serve until a successor is chosen at a special election early in January.

The Old and New Captain of Harvard

At a meeting of the Harvard A. A., Ben Ticknor (left) was elected captain of the 1930 football eleven. He is shown accepting the congratulations of his predecessor, Captain James Barrett.