Miss Eileen Enright returned to Omaha, Sunday morning; on Tuesday evening she took part in the pageant, "Return of the Play Spirit To America," given at the Coliseum of the Ak-Sar-Ben, and sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy.

EMMET NEWS

Miss Dona Scott and Miss Remana Bauman were O'Neill visitors, Saturday.

Marie Young is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Hazel Beckwith.

Miss Anna Nelson and Miss Margaret Delidge were shopping in O'Neill, Saturday.

Archie Findley spent Saturday at the home of his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jennings.

School closes in District 59, Saturday, May 3, with a school picnic.

Miss Remana Bauman is the teacher.

Miss Helen McCaffrey had the misfortune to cut her finger with the banana knife, while clerking in the McGinnis store, Sunday morning.

Sewell Johnson took his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson, to Atkinson and O'Neill, Monday morning, where they attended to business matters.

Miss Nellie Cleary has been hired as a teacher in the Gonderinger district, south of Atkinson, for the next school term. Her cousin, Mrs. Edward Dumpert, formerly Bessie Cleary, taught there the past three terms.

Mrs. T. Galligan arrived here from Mineral Springs, Texas, Monday, to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary Gaffney. She has been caring for a sick brother and sister in Texas and she plans to return soon with her brother John.

Viola Roseler had a tooth pulled by a dentist in Atkinson, last week; her jaw was very sore and she was unable to open her mouth until the dentist opened it for her. Monday morning she said it felt better and would soon be well.

The recent rains have made the roads off the highway almost impassable; the mile of road north of Andre Johnson's is so bad that Mr. and Mrs. Johnson decided to let their son Lowell, spend the week-end in Atkinson, where he attends school. Lowell decided to go home Sunday if he had to wade, so he walked out, arriving there about one o'clock.

Mrs. Lenore Roseler, of O'Neill, closed a very successful term of school in the Benson district, near Middle Branch, last Friday. The picnic was topped off with plenty of ice cream and cake and everyone enjoyed the occasion. Viola Roseler wanted very much to attend the picnic, but being unable to open her mouth, thought she had better remain at home. Her sister brought some ice cream home for her, so she didn't feel entirely left out of the fun.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tipton returned home Monday morning after a two week's absence. They drove to Oakland, where Mrs. Tipton and Calvin stayed with Mrs. Tipton's sister while Mr. Tipton went to Minneapolis, Minnesota to attend a trial. On their return trip they went to Peru and brought home a little niece of Mr. Tipton's, whose mother died a few weeks ago. The little one is 9 years of age and Mr. and Mrs. Tipton are going to care for her. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nelson, of Atkinson, stayed at the Tipton farm during the Tiptons' absence.

The Senior class of the Atkinson high school, of which Harold Seger of Emmet, is a member, took their sneak day last Thursday. They went to Yankton, South Dakota. Leaving Atkinson early in the morning, they arrived at Yankton about nine a. m. They visited the broadcasting station WNAK, the airport, and many other interesting places; they stopped at Plainview on their return trip and attended the "talkies." Besides having a very enjoyable time, the class seems to have derived many beneficial things from the trip. They were chaperoned by Miss Pearl Carlson.
