

The Coffee Shop...

Under New Management

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT

TRY OUR LUNCHES AND COFFEE

THE COFFEE SHOP

Wesley Sanford Proprietor

"The Orange Front"

ROYAL THEATRE

O'Neill, Nebraska

HOME OF GOOD PICTURES

Royal Theatre, O'Neill

Friday and Saturday, July 25-26
George Bancroft, Mary Astor and Frederic March, in

"LADIES LOVE BRUTES"

Bancroft as a roughneck sky-scraper king. It's all the same to Bancroft. And the women love it. A Bancroft thriller that's mightier than "The Mighty." A sensation. Comedy and News. 10-50c; matinee Sat 2:30; admission 10-35c.

Sunday, Mon., Tues., July 27-28-29
"FOX FOLLIES OF 1930"

All new edition of the record-breaking Movietone Follies. A real story, a funfest, a song and dance treat all rolled into one; company of 200. Prolific interludes of bright comedy and romance; fun and fast stepping action against the background of a Broadway show.

Adm. 10-50c. Matinee Sunday 2:30; 10 and 35c.

Wednesday and Thursday, July 30-31
H. B. Warner and Lois Wilson in
"THE FURIES"

See and hear a mother's great fight to hold the love of her son—a boy who thought her a murderer; as tense as any drama you've ever seen, with two of the screen's greatest speaking stars in the leading roles. Adm. 10-40c. Wed. is Family Night

EMMET ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jennings and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckwith visited at the Vern Beckwith home Saturday evening.

Mervin Kee visited Darwin Seger at his home, Sunday. They spent the afternoon eating ice cream and swimming.

Mrs. Frank Webber, of Long Pine, visited a week at the home of her brother, Joe Winkler, and family. She returned to her home last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beckwith recently received a letter from Charley Bailey, formerly of Emmet, and now in Battle Mountain Sanitarium, Hot Springs, South Dakota. Mr. Bailey served in the World War; he would like to hear from some of his old friends and neighbors.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Young accompanied their daughter, Blanche, to O'Neill where she wrote on a couple of subjects in the teacher's examinations. Mr. and Mrs. Young drove to the Spencer dam, where they spent the day fishing and sight-seeing; on their return trip they stopped in O'Neill and took Blanche home with them.

Joe Winkler started his threshing machine Monday morning; he threshed a few loads of his own grain and then ground it for feed for use during the threshing season; he also ground feed for Clausen and Klap-

Lyric Theatre

ATKINSON

"Cool As An Ocean Breeze"

PROGRAM

Tonight Only—Gloria Swanson, in

"THE TRESPASSER"

Tomorrow—Saturday, July 26th

Ken Maynard in

"THE WAGON MASTER"

Sunday, Mon., Tues., July 27-28-29

Louis Mann, — Robert Montgomery,

Elliott Nugent, Leila Hyams, in

THE RICHEST MAN IN THE WORLD

The most human and lovable picture that has come to the talking screen! You'll be thrilled, you'll laugh, you'll shed your tears at the heart-warming story of the man who gave everything for his children; this is a brand new picture—first showing in Nebr.

Wednesday, July 30—Bargain Night

William Boyd—Dorothy Sebastian in

"HIS FIRST COMMAND"

A thrilling and colorful military love romance; filmed at Fort Riley, Kansas, with the co-operation of the United States Cavalry.

Thursday and Fri., July 31-August 1

Victor McLaglen, Fifi Dorsey and

El Brendel, in

"HOT FOR PARIS"

This one is 30 degrees warmer than "The Cock-Eyed World." A story of two sailors in hot water with their hot mamas in Gay Paree. Just plenty of laughs in this one.

The most talked of picture of the day coming to the Lyric for three days, August 3-4-5—Marie Dressler

Polly Moran in "CAUGHT SHORT,"

Baseball, Niobrara vs. Atkinson, Sunday at Atkinson.

Matinee Every Sunday at 2:30

WATCH THIS COLUMN

penburg. As they were grinding the last half bushel, the machine broke. Mr. Winkler has three or four days' threshing; Mrs. Kloppenburg is assisting Mrs. Winkler with the cooking.

WOMAN, 72, IS FOUND AFTER A SEARCH

(Norfolk Daily News)

Distracted over the death of her son and husband within a period of two months, Mrs. Andrew Falk, age 72, disappeared from the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Welch, 18th Street and Philip avenue, about 9 o'clock Thursday morning and was found about seven blocks away from home more than two hours later.

It is believed that her mind had been upset by the sadnesses which had entered her life lately.

Mrs. Falk together with her husband Andrew G. Falk, both of whom lived on a farm three miles north of Page, were on their way home from Rochester, Minn., when Mr. Falk became seriously ill with a disease from which he had been suffering for some time that it was necessary to stop at the home of Mrs. Welch.

Here the Page old settler died at 9 o'clock Wednesday evening. A son, Charles Falk, died in a Norfolk hospital on May 7th. Mr. Falk is survived by his wife and seven children, four daughters and three sons.

Burial will be made at Page, although funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. T. M. Harrington was a passenger to Norfolk the first of the week.

Ollie Rummel was called to Lincoln last Saturday night by the illness of his mother.

Jack Allinger, C. J. Gatz and Charles Wyant made a nice catch of pickerel and bass in the southwestern part of the county today.

Mrs. Harry Eagan returned to Omaha, Monday, following a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rohde of this city.

Mrs. E. F. Porter and Mrs. C. W. Porter drove to Exeter, Nebraska, last Friday and visited until Monday at the home of the former's niece.

Mrs. J. H. McPharlin entertained twelve of the little friends of her granddaughter, Betty Marie Gladson, of Omaha, in her honor, Saturday afternoon.

J. R. Magirl, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Birmingham, of Sioux City and Mrs. R. F. Magirl, of Jackson, motored to O'Neill last Tuesday to visit at the R. E. Magirl home.

Mrs. James Coventry, accompanied by Mrs. James McMahn and Miss Jessie Coventry, all of Inman, were visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tomlinson the first of the week.

Miss Betty and Miss Doris McNally accompanied Miss Imogene Webster to her home south of Albion, last Saturday. Miss Webster has been visiting at the Fred McNally home for the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Richardson and family have moved from Watertown, South Dakota, to Kansas City, Missouri, where they will be located at 811 Troost Avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Burgess left for Denver, Colorado, last Saturday morning where Dr. Burgess will attend the National Dental Convention. The children are visiting with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, at Page.

Dr. R. F. Magirl of Jackson, Neb., and Dr. J. P. Dougherty of Sioux City, Iowa, came to O'Neill again last Saturday to see the former's father, R. E. Magirl, who has been quite ill for some time; they report his condition as somewhat improved.

Scott Hough returned home from a couple of week's spent at Valentine, Nebraska, where he had a gang of men move the large engine that was at one time located in O'Neill, from Valentine to its new location on the Minichaduzza creek at the new dam.

The management of Sunset Lodge have finished remodeling and painting the buildings and grounds. The ten cottages are newly painted and furnished; the new hotel building and cottages are filled every night and many tourists have been turned away.

The Dry Creek ball team will cross bats with the Emmet team this coming Sunday. Battery for Emmet is, Francis Clark and S. Troshynski; for Dry Creek, Harold Shoemaker and Harold Wier. This promises to be an interesting game as Dry Creek has won every game so far this year.

John C. Coffey, wife and daughter of Wichita Falls, Texas stopped here Wednesday afternoon and visited with his aunt, Mrs. P. J. Biglin and family until this morning; they were enroute home from a visit to Salt Lake City, Yellowstone Park, Wind Cave, Winner, South Dakota, and other points.

The W. C. T. U. picnic which was to have been held on Tuesday, July 22nd was postponed for one week because of the death and burial of Miss Pearl Clewish. All members of the L. T. L. and their parents are invited to attend this picnic on Tuesday, July 29th. Meet at Mrs. Bressler's home at three o'clock.

Inman Leader: Peter, 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Hanson, residing east of Inman, was thrown from a horse last Sunday afternoon while horseback riding near the Elkhorn river. Gene Clark and Tom Hutton who were fishing, found the boy lying in the road and after notifying the parents; the boy was taken to Page where Dr. French on examination of his injuries, hurried him to the hospital in Norfolk where he has remained in an unconscious condition since. It is the doctor's opinion that he suffered a concussion of the brain. He has been unconscious ninety-six hours up to three o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon. Reports from the hospital this morning reveals his condition to be very grave.

HAVE YOU Washed Those Flower Pots Yet?

For ideas in color combinations come in and see the painted Flower Pots on play
MONDAY, JULY 30th
McDONOUGH'S PAINT STORE

J. E. Smith of Page was in O'Neill Monday. The Red Bird ball team shut out Orchard 13 to 0 on Sunday of last week.

Miss Lulu Hatch returned to her home in Lincoln last Sunday following a visit with Miss Mildred Malone. Pius Ackerman, of Stuart, and Miss Florence Davis, of Atkinson, were granted a license to wed, on July 15th.

W. J. McDonough was awarded the contract for the painting in the new schoolhouse at Crookston, Nebraska, and has been on the job for the past three weeks.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday School at 10 a. m.; C. E. Yantzi, Superintendent.

Morning Worship at 11 a. m.; subject, "The Full Measure." Evening service at 8 p. m.; theme "Christ at the Door."

We invite you to our services.
Mr. H. D. Johnson, Minister.

REV. H. D. JOHNSON INSTALLED

Last Tuesday night the Rev. H. D. Johnson was installed as pastor of the local church; the service was well attended and the spirit was most encouraging. With the present opportunities and with such a spirit the church should make definite progress.

C. E. TENBORG Candidate for Sheriff of Holt County On the Republican Ticket

As a resident of Holt County for 47 years, I take the privilege of asking the voters of Holt County to support me at the Primaries, Aug. 12th. Thanking you for your support, I am

Yours,
C. E. TENBORG,
Emmet, Neb.

NOTICE

I take this method of announcing myself as a candidate on the Republican ticket for nomination to the office of County Clerk, at the Primary election, August 12, 1930. The duties of the office do not permit time to make a canvass.

E. F. PORTER.

SURROUNDING AND PLEASANTVIEW ITEMS

Charley Richards was in Emmet, Monday.

Ed Early made a business trip to Atkinson, Tuesday.

Mrs. Ferdinand Siebert visited Mrs. Prange, Sunday.

Wm. and Clarence Murphy delivered hogs in Emmet last Tuesday.

John Steskal and son called on home folks Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Sam Barnes and children called on Mrs. A. J. Klingler, Monday.

Mrs. Albert Klingler called on Mrs. Bert Freed, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. E. Hershberger has lightened her work with a Maytag washing machine.

Mr. and Mrs. Hies Bougue called on Mrs. Emma Rans and family, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Miller visited Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones in Atkinson, Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steskal and son John met their son Will, from Iowa, in O'Neill, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goeke and family called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Banks, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller and son Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Miller; returning home the Andersons found Mr. and Mrs. Brown and daughter Mollie as their callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Klingler and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones were Sunday guests at the John Delosch home near Stuart; Mr. and Mrs. Delosch and Klingler's took a drive in the Delosch car south of Newport in the afternoon and called at the Miller home.

Henry Murray started up his new threshing machine at the Frank Heeb farm Friday; Lawrence Bruder made his start at the John Schunk Sr. farm, Monday, and a machine finished up the A. W. Morrell job Monday. Mr. Morrell shipped a carload of grain Saturday. Rye seems to be turning out in good condition and plentiful; corn and pastures are suffering for need of rain.

Miss Francis Moore, of Pierce, has been a guest at the Floyd Barnes and Lloyd Quinn homes the past week. Mrs. Barnes entertained Mrs.

O'Neill Celebrates Watermelon Day

Hitch up old Dobbin, crank the Ford, pile in the kiddies and let's all GO!

Wednes., July 30

Interstate Power Co. Merchandise Department

Bessey, Mrs. Quinn and daughter Elaine and Miss Moore to dinner at her home, Friday. This party autoed to O'Neill in the afternoon to meet the bus; Miss Moore left for her home near Pierce, being called home to help entertain company; friends of Francis are hoping for her return again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Barnes, with children and grand-children, gathered at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Albert Sterns and family, for a family dinner, Sunday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Perry Barnes and family of near Stuart; Mr.

and Mrs. Fred Barnes and family; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barnes and children; in the afternoon they took the children to a bathing place in the Elkhorn river west of Emmet; this was little Donald Barnes' first experience of this kind and he thinks it is lots of fun.

Plan To Attend Watermelon Day In O'Neill Next Wednesday

Come to our store let us show you our Hardware and Machinery

MAKING THE FARM PAY - - By Old Man Economy

At this Store You Get QUALITY AND SERVICE

Warner & Sons