THE PRIMARY ELECTION WAS HELD TUESDAY

Another primary election has passed into history.

The election in Holt county was quite interesting and filled with many contests that caused the candidates to get up on their toes. The Supervisor contests in the various districts brought out a fairly good vote; the sheriff contest also warmed up at the latter end of the allotted time. The friends of Senator George W. Norris gave him a majority of 509 over Stebbins. Governor Arthur J. Weaver piled up a majority of 1065 over Harry O. Palmer of Omaha in the gubernatorial contest.

The contest for representative in the sixty-fourth district developed into a real contest between Ezra Cooke and C. E. Havens; when the votes were all in with the exception of the vote by mail ballots, it was found that Cooke was in the lead one vote. Havens has a majority of 3 mail votes, which gives Havens the nomination by two votes.

Another contest that was real close was between Harry Cooper and Harry Miller for the office of county treasurer; Miller has a lead of 15 with the mail votes to be counted; there are not enough democratic mail votes to change the result.

The contest between L. G. Gillespie and W. E. Conklin closed with Mr. Conklin 205 in the lead.

The big fight of the campaign was between the candidates for sheriff. There were four contestants on the republican side, all of whom waged a hard and sincere fight to win.

County Attorney Julius D. Cronin was successful in his effort to again secure the nomination for the office; his plurality was 560 over H. M. Uttley and H. E. Murphy.

The race for supervisor in the various districts resulted as follows:

First district, republican—J. C. Stein received a plurality of 65 over Henry Vequist and Henry Werner; democrat—Henry Mullen received a plurality of 3 over his opponents, August Wabs and D. P. Hynes. Third district, republican—W. H. Shaughnessy received a majority of 132 over Andy Clark; democrat: John Sullivan defeated T. J. Coyne 54 votes.

Fifth district, republican—Rodell Root received 100 majority over M. J. Zalud. Democrat—Elmer Gibson defeated B. B. Gribble 73 votes.

Seventh district, republican—E. O. Hammerburg defeated his opponents J. V. Johnson and Gib McCreath 20 votes. Democrat—Hugh L. James received a majority of 22 over Thomas Hanrahan.

The official count is being made by County Clerk E. F. Porter, Harry Bowen and M. H. McCarthy.

Following is the unofficial totals of the vote cast in Holt county for the different candidates:

GEORGE W. NORRIS WINS BY 30,000 MAJORITY

Late returns indicate that Senator George W. Norris will have a majority of 30,000 over his opponent, W. M. Stebbins, of Gothenburg, in the race for United States Senator when the votes are all counted. Norris had a lead of 24,507 and 459 out-state precincts to hear from; a conservative estimate on these precincts will give the Senator a lead of more than 30,000.

Norris will oppose Hitchcock in the fall election. The latter defeated Dr. Jennie Callfas, dry leader and Hoover bolter, more than 4 to 1.

The Republican voters gave their biggest endorsements to Governor Arthur Weaver who had a 3-to-1 lead over Harry Palmer of Omaha; Attorney General C. A. Sorenson who had a two to one lead over Bert M. Hardenbrook of Ord, and Theodore W. Metcalfe of Omaha, who had a five to one lead over his nearest opponent in the field for lieutenant-governor.

One of the closest races on the state ticket was that of Republican candidates for state auditor, with L. B. Johnson of Omaha, incumbent, defeated by George Marsh, former state auditor.

In the family name contests on the Republican ticket for secretary of state and auditor, the Marsh family was 100 per cent victorious over the Johnson boys.

Frank Marsh easily defeated his Johnson in the race for secretary of state and George Marsh took down two Johnsons in the race for auditor. The other Johnson was Fred G., former secretary to Governor Weaver.

The expedition of the Ericsons for the office of state treasurer probably was not successful. Dr. T. W. Bass, of Broken Bow was maintaining a slender margin over the Ericson who spells his name without a "k" with the Erickson with a "k" in third place.

Here are the latest returns as tabulated by the Associated Press:

For the Republican gubernatorial nomination, 1,613 precincts: Weaver 115,698; Palmer 38,614.

For the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, 1,629 precincts: Bryan 58,072; Jensen 12,258.

Republican for lieutenant governor 1,604 precincts: Gardner 20,120; Coulter 20,498; Simon 23,881; Metcalfe 52,915; Gallagher 16,897.

Republican for secretary of state, 1,556 precincts: Marsh 78,320; Webster 14,214; Johnson 28,949.

Republican for auditor, 1,622 precincts: L. B. Johnson 35,990; Fred H. Johnson, 30,512; Babeock, 15,355; Coolidge 12,689; Marsh 39,593.

Democratic for auditor, 1,329 precincts: Matthews 28,507; Moeller, 19,608.

Republican for commissioner of public lands and buildings, 1,579 precincts: Swanson 85,546; Whitney, 37,417.

Republican for state treasurer, 1,577 precincts: Fred E. Ericson 25,082; Gunnerson 13,379; Linch 20,308; Paine 118,730; Charles E. Erickson 18,161; Bass 27,327.

Republican for railway commissioner, 1,539 precincts: Drake 24,514; Wilkins 7,341; Sanford 15,480; Glatfelter 5,899; Callahan 6,890; Harrison 6,602; Spillman 20,804; Wood, 14,174.

Democratic for railway commissioner, 1,536 precincts: Tolen 23,804;

Walrath 27,493. Republican for attorney general, 1,631 precincts: Hardenbrook 39,959; Sorenson 82,310; Morearty 24,556. Democratic for attorney general, 1,583 precincts: Radke 21,060; Long, 33,454. Republican for state superintendent, 1,293 precincts: Taylor 65,304; Matzen 60,758; Jackson 24,110. One hundred seventy-eight precincts in the First district for judge of the Supreme court give Rose 18,426; Stough 4,613.

ROSS AMSPOKER DEFEATS BRADY FOR SENATOR

Ross Ampoker, of Springview, won the nomination for state senator in the twenty-second district over Frank J. Brady, of Atkinson, by a majority of 182 in the district. Following is the vote by counties:

	Boyd	Rock	Brown	Keya Paha	Holt	Total
Ampoker	481	447	647	355	882	2812
Brady	452	303	673	180	1022	2630

SIX GRAIN STACKS BURN ON SIMON SIMONSON PLACE

Six stacks of oats on the Simonson place, rented by Fred Eppenbaugh, about thirteen miles northeast of O'Neill, burned about ten o'clock this (Thursday) evening. The opinion of those who were at the fire is that the stacks were set on fire; no rain has fallen in that vicinity since the oats were stacked, three weeks ago. The stacks were twenty or more rods from the fence.

CHRIS C. JENSEN

Chris C. Jensen passed away last Friday at the Clark Hough home in this city, at the age of 63 years, 10 months and 12 days. He was born in Denmark on September 26, 1866. He leaves a sister, Miss Carrie Jensen of this vicinity. Rev. O. A. Fortune held short services over the remains; burial was in Prospect Hill cemetery last Saturday.
