

Where New York's Jobless Sleep

Some of 1,500 men who get their sleep in the Municipal Lodging House Annex, New York City, formerly a pier warehouse on the East River, can be seen resting in this photo. It is said to be the world's largest sleeping floor.

Formal Evening Gown in Latest Fashion Mode

A stunning formal evening frock of white chiffon elaborately trimmed in rhinestones and tassels of heavy white silk cord that fall to the floor. With a gown as elaborately beaded as this fashion says should not be precious stones, so the charming deb above wears a rhinestone necklace and bracelet to complete the costume.

Again Disappointed

Why? Why?—Men . . . They stand outside a New York City employment agency . . . carefully studying the tiny white slips pasted on a board . . . "Dishwashers wanted, $15 a week . . . Short order cooks, $20 . . . Experienced chauffeurs, $10 per week and meals" . . . Can't take any of those . . . gotta wife home, and kiddies, too . . . Why should this be? Why? . . .

Dresses—And She Gets a Suit

It seems that Gertie Williams (above), former show girl, had plenty of parties to go to and not enough variety in clothes to wear to them. So it is charged she went here and there, ordering dresses and refusing to pay for them. But Gertie is sued for $450 for clothes.

Real Home Run—With His Cup of Welcome

After hanging up a sizable number of home runs during the past baseball season, Lewis R. (Hack) Wilson, Chicago Cubs' star, made this home run to his home town of Martinsburg, W. Va. He is shown with the beautiful 20-inch trophy which was presented to him by his proud townsmen.

Bordoni Loses Suit Against Social Leaders Gives $500,000 to Aid Jobless

Irene Bordoni's $10,000 damage suit against Mrs. Anson Clark and other society leaders of Miami Beach was dismissed. The stage and screen star claimed she had not been paid for a personal appearance at a society circus staged at the famous resort.

The name of Edward S. Harkness, who has given so many millions for education, like that of Abu Bea Adhem, "led all the rest" in contributions to the $6,000,000 relief fund being raised in New York City. He contributed $500,000.

Aviatrix Safe, Tells of Perils

After floating for two days on her wrecked plane, Mrs. Keith-Miller (above, with aviation prize she received last year) was picked up by a fishing schooner.

Conducts Soviet Probe Of Alleged Espionage

Behind closed doors, Comrade N. B. Krylenko (above), chief prosecuting attorney of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, is conducting what is reported as a dramatic probe of alleged espionage activities in Russia, to which foreign governments, including Great Britain and France, have been linked.

The Pole or Equator?

Mary Milliken seated beside marker located 8 miles from Eastport, Me., and which designate a middle distance between the North Pole and the Equator. The stone, dated 1896, was set up by a Government official during visit to Eastport.

First Native Governor-General of Australia

A portrait of the Right Hon. Sir Isaac Alfred Isaacs, K. C. M. G., Chief Justice of Australia, a native Australian, who has been appointed, for the first time in history, Governor-General of his native land. The belief is growing in London political circles that Isaacs' appointment was literally forced on King George V.

Officers of D.A.R. Meet in Hub

Hotel Statler, Boston, was the meeting place of the national officers of the Daughters of the American Revolution and State officers of the New England Chapters. Mrs. Kowell Fletcher Hobart, left, President General of the national society, is shown with the Massachusetts Regent, Mrs. Stephen F. Hurd.

Found Unconscious on Mother's Houseboat

Virginia Anne Clark, of Washington, D. C., was found wounded from gun bullets in the houseboat owned by her mother. James K. Turvey, 78, a Government watchman, is being questioned by police.

As Japanese Statesman Fell

First and exclusive picture of Premier Hamaguchi of Japan, being supported by colleagues just after a would-be assassin's bullet had pierced his stomach and left him seriously injured. The unusual photo was made possible through the presence of mind of a cameraman who was on hand for the purpose of getting a picture of the premier as he passed through the street.