EDUCATIONAL NOTES

Due to the fact that the third of April falls on Good Friday, the Holt County Spelling Contest has been postponed until Friday evening, April 10th. Because of inclement weather and bad roads last Friday, many of the preliminary spelling contests were postponed until some day this week. Reports of winners have not yet come in. They will be published next week.

The date of the Eighth Grade examinations is April 9th and 10th.

Since Valley Center, No. 107 is so close to the Chambers school we have decided that it would be best not to have the eighth grade examinations in that school. The examinations will be given at both Chambers and Amelia and this should not make it inconvenient for surrounding schools.

The Normal Training Seniors of Ewing High School are doing their practice teaching in rural schools this week.

Miss Hazel, Red Cross Nurse, visited and examined the children in the Emporia school on Wednesday.

The next teacher's examinations will be held in Atkinson, Ewing and O'Neill on April 18th.

(Too late for last week)

The eighth Grade examinations will be held on Thursday and Friday, April 9th and 10th at Stuart, Atkinson, Emmet, O'Neill, Inman, Page, Ewing, Chambers, Valley Center No. 134, Amelia, D. cloit No. 18 1/2, Valley Center No. 107, Kola No. 226, Meek No. 27, Emporia No. 88, Dustin No. 22, Scottville No. 38, Phoenix No. 51 and Dorsey No. 4.

County Superintendent Luella A. Parker is out visiting in the rural schools this week.

The Senior Normal Trainers of St. Mary's Academy are out in the rural schools this week doing their practice teaching.

The American Creed, by William Tyler Page should be explained to the boys and girls throughout Nebraska on April 3rd. This Creed was patterned after the Apostle's Creed and won the $1,000 prize offered in the American's Creed Contest. Later it was approved by President Wilson.

We recommend that the teachers

"THE AMERICAN'S CREED"

"I believe in the United States of America as a Government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which the American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I, therefore, believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

FAMED ARTISTS SEEN IN "EAST LYNNE"

All the world's great arts have been mobilized for service in Frank Lloyd's Fox Movietone production, "East Lynne," featuring an all-star cast headed by Ann Harding, Clive Brook, Conrad Nagel, Cecelia Loftus, Beryl Mercer, O. P. Heggie and David Torrence. This romantic screen drama suggested by Mrs. Henry Wood's internationally celebrated novel, will have its local premiere at the Royal Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

History shares honors with the heart interest in "East Lynne." One of the outstanding scenes in this emotional romance is a living reproduction of the historically famous scene of Emperor William of Germany at Versailles with his entire staff at the close of the Franco-Prussian War. Bismarck is seen reading the famous proclamation stating that the Emperor takes possession of Paris.

Earlier in the production a brief sequence showing the bombardment of Paris by the Prussian forces is enacted. It is during this sweeping scene that Isabel, played by Ann Harding, is snowed under by an avalanche of debris from bombarded and falling buildings.

Music, too, plays an important role in "East Lynne." Richard Fall, famous Viennese composer of "The Dollar Princess" and other operettas and compositions, has written an original French martial air, a Viennese schottische and two waltzes. In addition he supervised the playing of famous classic compositions and the singing of "Then You'll Remember Me," by Miss Harding.

Mrs. Hilda Grenier, former personal attendant for many years to Queen Mary of England, the former Princess Sofia of Germany and other European royal personages, was expert consultant to Director Lloyd during the making of "East Lynne."

New Date for Bee-Keepers Meeting

Due to the inclement weather of the past week it was necessary to postpone the bee-keepers meetings. Mr. Bare will be here on Thursday, April 9th. The morning meeting at 10 a. m. will be at Harry Snyder's, one-half mile north of Page. The afternoon meeting will be at the Coats & Son hardware store at Stuart. The meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m.

4-H Leaders Meeting

A meeting of all 4-H Home Economics club leaders will be held in O'Neill on Friday, April 10th. This meeting will begin at 10 a. m. and will be held at the District Court room. Miss Allegra Wilkens, clothing specialist, will be in charge of the meeting. Each problem will be discussed in detail by Miss Wilkens. The leaders will be given aid with any parts of the problems which may prove difficult. Every leader who is able to attend the meeting will find that her duties will be lessened by doing so.

Wool Producers Meeting

A meeting which should prove of interest to wool growers will be held at the district court room in O'Neill on Wednesday, April 8th. The meeting will start at 1:30 p. m. Mr. H. W. Smalley, of the Midwest Wool Marketing Association, will talk on wool marketing. Mr. Smalley is closely in touch with the marketing situation and should be able to give us some idea as to wool prices for 1931. A number of men have been in the office inquiring as to the shearing price for this year. If the group of wool men is large enough and is representative of the county, a going price might be decided on. Wool growers of some counties have determined the shearing price at meetings of this nature.

The Wide Awake Clothing Club of Amelia have reorganized for their third and last year of the clothing project. Mrs. H. O. Russ was chosen leader by the ten girls who enrolled in the club.

Seven boys of the Amelia community reorganized the Thrifty Pig club. Clyde Widman will lead the club.

The Lucky Clover Clothiers will have Miss Enid Andersen and Mrs. C. E. Kiltz as their leaders. The nine girls who belong to this club live northeast of Chambers.

Potato Seed Treatment

Potato growers who are troubled with scab should treat their seed this spring. One pint of formalin (40 per cent formaldehyde) to 30 gallons of water may be used; the tubers should be treated whole. Soak the seed for two hours in the solution and then spread out on a clean surface to dry. This solution may be used five times before it becomes ineffective. The other treatment recommended by the potato men of the Agricultural college is called the corrosive sublimate treatment. Four ounces of corrosive sublimate is used to 30 gallons of water. Seed should be soaked for 24 hours in water and then dried. This uncut seed should then be soaked in the corrosive sublimate solution for one and one-half hours. This solution can be used four times but an ounce of corrosive sublimate should be added to the solution after each batch is soaked to keep the treating solution at proper strength. The solution must not be used in metal containers.

Smut Control in Oats and Barley

The use of formaldehyde for the treatment of covered smuts of oats and barley is recommended by crop experts at the Nebraska College of Agriculture. Ceresan has also proved of value in treating oats for smut. Bulletins describing methods of smut control can be secured by writing this office.

One railroad crossing accident killed 6 people and injured 4 others. One driver had his fourth serious accident in less than 12 months and, he still has a driver's license.

While this is so frequent as to be hardly worthy of comment, we noted another case of where a man who caused an accident and was arrested for driving while intoxicated, was a second offender. One wonders how he still happens to have a driver's license when the law demanding revocation of a driver's license on conviction of driving while intoxicated is mandatory.

It is especially interesting, in following up the eleven cases where reckless driving and driving while intoxicated were charged, to note that a few drivers' licenses actually were revoked.

It is interesting to note that the causes showing increases are the ones where law violations are most apparent. 29 speeders are credited with having caused 2 deaths and 53 injuries, often escaping injury themselves. Twenty-two cars injured 23 pedestrians. Twenty-two collisions injured 39 people.
