TRICKS of MAGIC EXPLAINED by Will Lindhorst

HOW TO BREAK PENCIL WITH DOLLAR BILL

Have somebody hold an octagonal pencil between both hands, placing each hand near the tips of the pencil and extend the arms slightly forward. Then fold a dollar bill lengthwise, grasp it with one hand near the end, and announce that you will break the pencil with the dollar bill. Raise your arm, holding the bill, and as you swing it downward extend the middle finger of the hand so that the finger hits the pencil, breaking it. If this is done quickly the audience will not see the extended finger, and to avoid suspicion after the pencil is broken the finger should immediately be brought back to its original position.

Death in Corn stalks
Johnstown Enterprise: Mrs. Henry Voss and daughter Bessie were in from the ranch Friday. Mrs. Voss reported while in town that they had recently lost four head of cattle as a result of cornstalk disease, two of the animals being thoroughbreds. From this it is indicated that there may be danger lurking in the stalk fields this fall as often before and that stockmen will do well to use what few precautions may be taken to avoid loss from that source.
