MEEK AND VICINITY

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. George Nelson Thursday afternoon. Quite a crowd attend and the ladies tied one comfort and finished one that had been begun before. Mrs. Nelson served a delicious lunch. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Charlie Linn.
 Bert Irwin of Hamill S. Dak., was calling on friends here last week, he was a former resident here.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Johnson and son called at the F. H. Griffith and R. D. Spindler homes on Tuesday.
 There will be a program and box social, December the 18th at the Deonia schoolhouse. Starts promptly at 3:70. Everyone is invited.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Linburg and daughters were Sunday guests at the Frank Nelson home.
 Mrs. Albert Kaczor returned Friday from an extended visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ben Freeburg of Valpariso.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Griffith were Sunday afternoon callers at the Roy Spindler home.
 Sunday dinner guests at the Howard Rouse home were Mr. and Mrs. Eric Borg and Marvel, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hubby and Mr. and Mrs. William Hubby.
 Clyde Thomson, of near Lynch, was an overnight visitor at Rouse Bros. on Saturday. He was returning from Kilgore where he has been picking corn the past few weeks.
 Little Bonnie Hubby was ill with a cold the first of the week.
 Will Harvey and Clyde Bowden sawed wood for Mrs. Elmer Rouse the first of the week.
 The sale at Herman Stein's on Tuesday was quite well attended, some things brought a good price, others not so good.
 Arthur Rouse called at the Frank Griffith here Tuesday evening.
 Mrs. Dan Hansen and children spent Tuesday with Mrs. Eric Borg.
 Raymond Johnson who has been working for an uncle near Lincoln returned here Sunday.
 Word was received here that Ed Hubby of Spearfish S. Dak. was injured quite badly while working on the section. Ed was born and grew to manhood in this community. Full particulars of the accident have not been learned at this writing.

Stuart Advocate: Nearly 1,900 "home grown" turkeys went to market in a carload shipment from Stuart before Thanksgiving by the Stuart Farmers' Cooperative Creamery. Present plans are to ship two more carloads before Christmas, says Mr. Augustine. . . . M. M. Stuart, local grocer, was assured by responsible authorities that he will receive the appointment as postmaster. Since the death of E. A. Walker, the late postmaster, R. E. Chittick has been acting postmaster

Chambers Sun: Paul Hardy accompanied Weaver Brotherton to Lincoln, Saturday of last week to truck the latter's household effects up to the Myron Brotherton ranch south of Amelia. They returned the next day, and now Weaver and family are again nicely located on the home place. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reninger Jr. and Norman, accompanied by Hubert and George Smith left this morning for Norfolk, where they will join Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reninger Sr. and drive to Florida where the Senior Reninger's will spend the winter. Our Chambers folks will return home in about three weeks.

Page Reporter: Monday a truck ran into a loaded hay rack just north of town, tearing off one side of the rack and causing the team to go against the trees on the west side of the highway. Harry Park, the driver of the team, was unhurt. The truck driver stopped and paid the damages done to the rack and harness. . . . Monday evening the fire hydrant located across the street from the schoolhouse was broken off when a car driven by Clayton Ulry ran into it. Water gushed forth like the eruption of a geyser and the water had to be shut off in that part of town for that evening and most of next day while repairs were made.
