must understand that these conditions are made a part of the contract between publisher and subscriber.

At any rate, there has been a letup on Muscles Shoals.

Alimony is a shorter name for matrimonial reparations.

The Chinese treasury is empty, but we can't be patronizing on that account.

A luckless chap gets two years in the penitentiary for a measly 4-cent robbery.

The Isle of Man, we read has no public debt. But think of the wars she's missed.

Speaking of parental authority have you noticed how Japan minds the League of Nations?

Will the seven former football stars now in Congress go into a huddle and start a little bloc of their own?

The Japanese idea seems to be that if the Chinese will get out of China they will cease their butchery.

Write 1931 down as the year in which a great many sinking funds went down for the third and last time.

The dollar hoarders of 1932 might profit by the remembrance of what happened to the sugar hoarders of 1918.

Remember the good old days when the appearance of green onions on market was a sign that spring was approaching?

Kidnaping is becoming a prominent profession. That which pulls at the heart-strings of parents also pulls at the purse strings.

The least a community can do for the men who give their time and take the risk in case of fire is to give them equipment to do with.

It is said another movement has set in from town to country. The bright lights are attractive and all that but they don't grow the pumpkins.

With millions invested in Manchuria, Japan is probably doing the same as the nations which are barking at her would do under similar conditions.

Al Smith says he will run again if nominated. Well he got sixteen million votes in 1928 and probably figures it that 16,000,000 Democrats can't be wrong.

One of the troubles with modern youth is said to be that they don't pay any attention to their parents, and maybe in some cases it's just as well that they don't.

Federal liquor indictments have caught a few big guns in Omaha, among them being Tom Denison, a familiar character in shady affairs for forty years.

A good many politicians are now engaged in an intensive study of the perplexing problem of how a man may carry water on one shoulder and beer on the other.

If the members of the present Detroit city government do their duty they will know that they have been tackling a job by the time they get things set to rights.

We had some respect for John Garner when he was elected to the speakership, but it has all been wiped away by his recent willingness to throw the well known political mud.

The movement for lower taxes is in no sense a partisan affair. The efforts of party candidates to feature themselves before groups of taxpayers meeting to formulate same methods of lowering taxes if permitted will do any such movement.

Now trouble has broken out in Memel, and the League of Nations, has been called on to settle it. Do you know where Memel is? It's a cinch you would soon know if Uncle Sam were a member of the League and had to help settle the quarrel.

The democratic congress is preparing a sales tax which includes everything but the bare necessities of life, and some of them. Clothing will be a necessity for some time to come.
Farm products are exempt under the plea that it is to be a manufacturers' tax. No matter what it is called it will be a consumers tax.

The complaint that the Hawley-Smoot tariff has driven American factories into Canada may be true, but if the interests outside of the United States are so attractive to the owners of these factories that they must do the majority of their business outside of the United States they are not true American citizens. They hold citizenship by law but if they are dependent upon another country for their living and can do better there than here, it is time for them to leave.

Prospects for the Renter America has been drifting many years into a nation of renters. Forty years ago in places such as Holt county there were no renters on the land and 90 per cent of the town dwellers owned their homes. The first plans of a couple starting out in life in those days included ownership of a home. Frequently this was a one-room unfinished affair, but it was theirs and they were not contributing to a landlord from month to month.

Many of the best farm and ranch properties in Holt county today started with a sod house.

In our own time we are not content nor is one able to start life on a primitive basis. We have become "modernized." Cars, radios, modern homes are in the picture. The demands of the day are for more conveniences and less effort. Few if any of the very numerous body known as the middle class are able to start life on a basis of ownership. They must become renters. And not many starting as a renter seem willing or able to acquire ownership.

THE COUNTY PRESS

Ewing Advocate: Mrs. Ernest Henry of O'Neill has been here the past week visiting and helping her father, Bart Smith. Mr. Smith moved some of his household goods to O'Neill this week.

Chambers Sun: Val Pitchler suffered both a dislocation and break of the elbow last Saturday. . . . It is reported to us that Roy Shull has purchased the John Hebert estate at Dumas, and that Mrs. Warren is returning to the east. Lloyd Pitchler, the Dumas-Chambers mail carrier will move onto the old Cato place vacated by Mr. Shull.

Atkinson Graphic: Patrick Barrett, sr., one of Atkinson's oldest residents and one of the earliest settlers in this community, died Wednesday at the Atkinson hospital after an illness of about three weeks. Mr. Barrett, had he live two weeks longer, would have been 91 years of age. He had suffered an attack of the flu, which with other ailments attendant with old age caused his death.

Page Reporter: Uncle Matt Stevens celebrated his 92nd birthday February 17th. Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Snell, Mrs.
Stingley of Highmore, South Dakota, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Hayne helped him partake of a bounteous one o'clock dinner. Owing to the condition of the roads other friends that were to have been there failed to be present. Mr.
Dillard and Willard Gray, as a representative of the Page Legion have their shanks for installing a radio for Uncle Matt's use that day. He enjoyed it greatly and had several dedications from different stations. He is the last G. A. R. veteran in this community.

rence Jones, the coach and Dorlin Lockman, together with the basketball team went to Butte Friday where they participated in the tournament. The boys were successful in winning their first game but were defeated at the second game.

A Washington Day program was given at the I. O. F. Hall Friday evening by the grade pupils of the school. The program was splendidly put over. The way each child played his part showed much careful training on the part of the teachers. Every one greatly enjoyed the program.

A meeting of the Civic Alliance was held at the M. E. church here Monday evening. Rev. Elrod, Presbyterian minister of Atkinson was the speaker.
At the close of his lecture, Mrs. H. M.
Uttley, county president of the W. C.
T. U. gave a talk. A local organization was formulated. G. E. Moor being elected chairman. Mrs. F. H. and Georgie Sunday.

One of Joe Winklers best horses was quite badly injured Sunday morning when it lay down to roll too near a barbed wire fence. When it rolled over it became entangled in the wires and the sharp barbs cut it badly. Mr.
Winkler and sons succeeded in untangling the animal before it was too late.
For a while they feared it would bleed to death but they applied some first aid treatment to the wounds and by Sunday evening they felt sure it would recover.
