Rolling Off "The Line"

garding the qualifications and salaries of the substitute teachers. The Nebraska school law requires that a substitute teacher must hold a valid certificate of at least the same quality required of the regular teacher in each individual school. Teachers without valid certificates or with certificates from other states are not allowed to substitute in Nebraska.

Schools disregarding this law and employing teachers not qualified are in danger of losing their appropriation for that year.

Regarding the salaries, the general rule in rural schools is that the substitute should receive the same wages as the regular teacher. Each city school system should set a certain salary for their substitutes before hiring them so that there would be no misunderstanding on either the part of the substitute or the school.

Since last writing we have again come into our own. Several cars of hay and feed have been fairly well distributed, which we are all very thankful for. That last storm surely made stock look bad, and several heavy losses are reported.

Two men from Burt county were in the vicinity and when they saw empty cribs and no hay they realized what we were up against. A remark that was rather humorous was, the lady had her chickens fastened up and when busy the chicken door came open. Why says one man, the cow ate the latch off of the door. Is she that hungry?

They had quite an experience traveling the muddy roads. One man had just returned from California. It was so late that they stopped over night. I noticed they took their overshoes inside. Guess they were afraid that afore mentioned cow would be around. In the night the master of the house got gay in his sleep and treated them to a clear full sized song from one of ye old hymn books.

So me thinks they won't forget their visit to Holt county.

Roads are bad yet but we are in hopes the worst is over. If they keep sending us some feed thru this month we have a good chance to get thru. If it is like it was in 1895 we will have a bumper crop. Hope so. As an old resident, will say there are worse places than Holt county. Anyway I don't hear of anyone going back east to their wife's folks like in 1894. We were most lord of all we surveyed. Empty house after empty house, all gone, but they came back after a while. We didn't, for we stayed.

Tilden Citizen: When father, mother and school teacher become slaves to the cigarette habit nothing can save the boys and girls of tender age from acquiring the habit. The tobacco barons are spending many millions of dollars every year to accomplish this end. Through the newspapers, magazines and billboards they misrepresent the facts by picturing sweet, innocent and beautiful young women as cigarette smokers. They never show the lewd, immoral women of the dives who are practically all cigarette fiends and always have been. Respectable women in acquiring the habit are, to that extent, following in the footsteps of the women of the under world. I suppose I miss a good many entertaining programs over the air because it makes me sick at heart to listen to the beguiling propaganda of the cigarette companies. Of all high powered salesmanship I know of none to compare with the cigarette advertising.

Tramp—Yus, but I 'ardly expected to find the same cook 'ere today.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb.—More than 160 taxpayers representing every section of the state of Nebraska met at Grand Island on February 15th, organized a Taxpayers' League and adopted what they believe to be one of the most practical programs for actual and substantial tax reduction ever considered in the state. The call was sent out by Bernard McNeny of Red Cloud and E. G. Kroger of Grand Island.

The meeting also set in motion a movement to form taxpayers' leagues throughout the state to carry out the aims of the organization. The League proposed the following proposals:

1. A reduction of 20 per cent of that portion of the salaries and compensation of all public officials in excess of $2000.00 per year; and a reduction of ten (10) per cent of that portion of such salaries and compensation amounting to $2000.00 or less.
2. Reduction of the interest and penalties for failure to pay taxes when delinquent to six (6) per cent per annum; and the interest on certificates of sales of property for taxes to ten (10) per cent per annum; and provision for paying taxes in two semi-annual payments if the taxpayer so desires.
3. Immediate reduction by the State Board of Equalization of the assessed value of real estate to its present value.
4. Equal valuation of all property for tax purposes.
5. To reduce the maximum general tax which may be levied for general purposes twenty-five (25) per cent, unless two-thirds of the electors at the annual school meetings or special elections otherwise determine.
6. To repeal the so-called Code Law, restore the duties of constitutional officers, and abolish all unnecessary bureaus and offices.
7. The placing upon the tax rolls of all property omitted by the local assessors.
8. Restoration of unrestricted local self-government of the School districts to the governing boards within the State, making them absolutely free from the influence or domination of organizations outside the state.
9. The emancipation of the teachers of Nebraska from all subjection to rules and regulations formulated by organizations outside of the state.
10. A survey of the condition of the State University with a view to eliminating waste, duplication and extravagance.
11. Assessment of tax upon gas, oil and gasoline in pipe lines within the state and the proper valuation of all pipe line properties.
