and then everyone took part in the leap year games.

Carl Lorenze was voted the best looking young man on the matrimonial exhibit and was awarded a prize, a picture of a young man wiping dishes. Rhyming the following leap year verse was lots of fun. Stop, look, and languish, a charmer! Isn't he precious the sweet? What's the best method to land him? Some of the last lines were: Drag him out by his fee. Give him corn beef and cabbage to eat. I would give him a smack on the cheek.

Land him deep for me to keep. Its too deep for me to tweet tweet. The refreshment committee served buns, cinnamon rolls and hot coffee.
