this man that his home town, North Platte, will honor in the Round-Up to be staged on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of his first great show. The spectacle will be staged on the Cody Ranch and the entire four days will be given over to the spirit of the occasion, with townfolks and visitors in the picturesque garb of the prairies. Senator Robert B. Howell, of Nebraska, himself a pioneer who has watched the growth of Omaha from a small settlement on the Missouri River to its present prosperous state and who organized and managed, until his election to the United States Senate, the Municipal Utilities District, serving that city with water, gas and ice, is now urging the Postmaster General to issue a special stamp for this occasion. Great interest, indeed, is being manifested in all quarters, and especially the West and preparations are being made to furnish a stirring memory for those who attend.

From far and wide cowboys and cowgirls will flock for entry in the various exhibitions of skill and daring. There will be throwing of steers, the breaking of bronchos, horse and pony racing, wagon races, calf-roping contests, the riding of "unrideable steers," races, steer riding, Pony Express races, fancy riding contests, bareback riding contests, wild horse races, three horse relays, "steer bulldoggin'" contests and a myriad other engagements that make up the life today on western prairie lands.

SIX

An entire camp of Sioux Indians will be one of the features, while Indian tribal races, ceremonial dances, Indian uprisings, and rampages will supply the thrills. Prizes will be given to the cowboys or cowgirls adjudged winners, varying from small sums to $200, $500 and $720. From two until five o'clock each day of the celebration spectators will be supplied with one exciting event after another. Each night the mounted spectacle of "The Oregon Trail," an action drama depicting pioneer life and its early hazards and hardships, written by T. J. Kerr of North Platte, will be staged.

Mr. John A. Stryker, secretary of the Round-Up, and his faithful workers are bending every effort to make this celebration noteworthy and of historic value, while North Platte is extending a cordial invitation to every red-blooded American to spend the four days designated in their midst.

We're going to preserve the memory of the fast-vanishing red man, of our pioneer forefathers, of the cowboys of the plains, and our own special hero, Buffalo Bill," Mr. Stryker declares, "and we're going to have a great time doing it! In the words of an enthusiastic booster, I may tell you—

"So this summer let us see you, with a new ten-gallon hat
Makin' whoopee with the cowboys at the Round-Up in North Platte!"

ADD A LUXURIOUS TOUCH TO YOUR FOOD ECONOMIES

To count our pennies, to keep food budgets down, and yet to provide tempting fare—that is real kitchen art.

That is why chocolate's popularity never wanes. For chocolate gives the simplest, most economical dessert a touch of luxury.

Let chocolate work its magic with such old standbys as rice or bread pudding, and your family will give three cheers for your most economical dishes.

Chocolate Bread Pudding
1 1/2 squares unsweetened chocolate, cut in pieces
1 cup milk
1 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 eggs, slightly beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups stale bread cubes
Add chocolate to milk in double boiler; heat. When chocolate is melted, beat with rotary egg beater until blended. Combine sugar, salt, eggs. Add chocolate mixture gradually, stirring vigorously. Add vanilla. Place bread in greased baking dish. Pour mixture over it. Bake dish in pan of hot water. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 50 to 60 minutes, or until pudding is firm. Serve hot with hard sauce, or cold with cream. Serves 6.

Berkshire Pudding
3 squares unsweetened chocolate, cut in pieces
1 cup milk
1/2 cup sugar
6 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

3 squares unsweetened chocolate, cut in pieces
2 cups milk
1 1/2 tablespoons granulated gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
1 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt

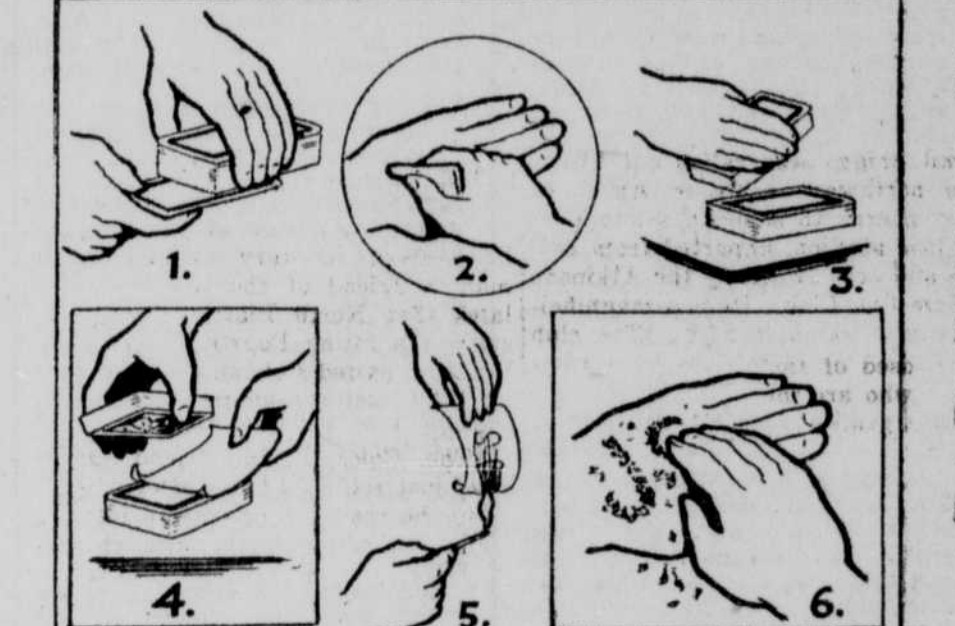

3 squares unsweetened chocolate, cut in pieces
1 cup dates, seeded and finely cut
1/2 cup walnut meats, broken
1 teaspoon vanilla

Add chocolate to milk; heat in double boiler. When chocolate is melted, beat with rotary egg beater until blended. Soak gelatin in cold water, add sugar and salt; mix well. Add to chocolate mixture; stir until gelatin is thoroughly dissolved. Strain. Chill until slightly thickened, stirring occasionally. Add fruit, nuts, vanilla. Beat well; turn into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with sweetened whipped cream. Serves 8.

Serve this dessert. The next time you have company—they will compliment from your guests.

TRICKS of MAGIC EXPLAINED by Will Lindhorst

HOW TO TELL CARD TAKEN FROM PACK BY TRICK "SPIRIT WRITING"

1. Secretly select playing card from deck and place it on bottom.
2. Letter the initials of the card on back of left hand with sharp pointed piece of soap. For instance, the initials of the Jack of spades would be J. S.
3. Appear before audience, and ask some one to divide the deck of cards in two parts. Place a blank piece of paper on top of half which does not contain the selected card, and place other half of deck on top of paper. The selected card will then be above the paper.
4. With your back turned, ask some person to write the initials of the card on the piece of paper, and burn it.
5. Take ashes from burned paper and rub them on back of hand containing invisible soap initials. The ashes will stick to the soap and the initials will mysteriously appear in trick "spirit writing."

HOW A MAGIC PENCIL MARK HALTS FLAMES

SOAK UP TO PENCIL LINE IN WASHING SODA AND BOILING WATER —

PAPER WILL BURN UP TO PENCIL LINE.

In order to perform this magical trick a sheet of paper must be prepared in this manner: Pour some washing soda in a pan of water and boil until the soda has dissolved. Draw a pencil line across the center of a sheet of paper, dip the paper into the soda solution up to the line, and after the paper has soaked remove and thoroughly dry it. Then erase the pencil line, leaving just a faint trace, so that you will be able to see it later. When the opportunity comes to perform the trick announce to your audience that you will mark the paper, set fire to it and the flames will not spread beyond your magic mark. Draw a line across the paper directly over the line that has been erased and ask somebody to apply a match to the paper, being sure that the match is applied to the side that has not been soaked in the soda. The flames will spread, burning one side of the paper, and stop abruptly at the pencil line.

ADD FIVE MATCHES TO SIX AND MAKE NINE

Take eleven matches and place six in a row about two inches apart. Then tell the audience you will add five matches to six and make nine. The secret is in spelling the word N-I-N-E, as shown in the drawing, by forming the letters with the matches.

HAND IN WATER TAKEN OUT DRY

Here is one that Ripley has missed in his Believe It or Not cartoons. It is possible to dip a hand into a bowl of water and take it out dry. The secret is that the hand is rubbed thoroughly with stearate of zinc powder, which prevents water from clinging to the hand.
