BRIEFLY STATED
 Members of the Lions Club were circulating petitions in the city the first of the week asking the city council to pass an ordinance prohibiting the opening of stores in the city on Sunday. It was being signed quite generally by business men of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Biglin, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Daily, of Emmet, drove over to Winner, S. D., last Monday and spent the day visiting relatives, returning home that evening. Br. Biglin says that they had a heavy rain in South Dakota Monday, that extended from Fairfax to Colome and that crop conditions in the southern part of South Dakota were fine.

 Anna Donohoe, State Treasurer of the Catholic Daughters of America, and Mrs. Bernard Matthews, State Secretary, will leave Friday morning to attend a meeting of the state officers at Omaha. Mrs. Matthews will stay with her cousin, Mrs. Charles Knowles while in Omaha. Mrs. Knowles will represent the Catholic Daughters at the Eucharistic Congress at Dublin, Ireland in June.

S. Evan Davies was one of the seniors to be graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan university at Lincoln, Neb. this year. The Commencement exercises were held on June 1. Mr. Davies received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. He was one of the 80 students who received degrees and diplomas from the school this year and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davies of O'Neill.

W. F. Grothe, one of the hustling farmers in the Emmet neighborhood, was an O'Neill visitor last Saturday and favored this office with a pleasant call. Mr. Grothe has been a reader of the Frontier for thirty-five years and says, that he and his family enjoy its weekly visits and eagerly look forward to its appearance in the mail box. He says that the paper improves with age and that it would be impossible to keep the house without it.

Another nice rain, amounting to seventy-eight hundredths of an inch, visited this section last night. This makes about three and one-half inches of moisture that has fallen here during the past nine days and has placed the ground in excellent condition and farmers assure us that this moisture will insure a fair hay crop as well as a good rye crop. The rain last night was accompanied by considerable wind, four miles north of this city. The outbuildings on the Hannah Donohoe farm and those on the farm of John Enright were considerably damaged by wind.

M. A. Summers, of Page, was treated to a surprise birthday party at his home north of Page last Sunday, the occasion being his eightieth birthday anniversary. The party was given by his children and grandchildren and other relatives, about forty being present. Mr. Summers was the recipient of many useful and dainty gifts as well as the felicitations of his relatives on having reached the ripe old age of four score years and still robust and happy. Mr. and Mrs. Summers have been residents of this county since 1893, living in the Page neighborhood since that time.

Hay McClure, of Wayne, was transacting business in this city Tuesday. Hay was a former resident of this city, having spent his boyhood here. His father, H. W. McClure, was one of the pioneer merchants of this city, as well as one of its first bankers, being at the head of the banking firm of McClure, Hagerty & Gardner. Mr. McClure left here a good many years ago but returned to Holt county some years ago and operated a ranch near Ewing. For several years now he has made his home at Wayne. It is good to meet these old timers and spin yarns of the days of long ago.

W. R. Johnson, one of the pioneer farmers and ranchman living northwest of this city, was an O'Neill visitor Tuesday and was a pleasant caller at this office. It is nearly fifty years since we first met Wallace (my how time flies) and not quite as corpulent as we are today. During all these years Mr. Johnson has been a resident of this county and, judging from his appearance today, he has been prosperous and happy during all that time. It was a pleasure to meet him and chat over the old times, days that are gone but not forgotten. Come again, Wallace.

State Journal: The Interstate Power company, which operates plants in more than forty towns in northeastern Nebraska from its headquarters at O'Neill, applied to the railway commission Tuesday for authority to issue $655,000 additional gold bonds at 5 percent, and twenty-five shares of no par stock to be sold for $150,000. Between June 1, 1929, and Dec. 31 last, it invested in additions and betterments a net sum of $875,000, and it desires to capitalize this and use the proceeds of sales to take up floating debts and accounts payable. The balance sheet submitted shows assets of $4,547,000, capital stock of $800,000, bonds of $1,951,000 and accounts payable of $1,044,000. Gross earnings last year were $461,000 and net $202,000. H. C. Orton is president.

Arthur Barrett and son-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Johnson, of Sioux City, Iowa, drove up from there last Saturday and visited relatives and friends in this city over the week end, returning home Monday afternoon. Mr. Barrett was one of the pioneer residents of this county, coming to the county with his parents when a young man and resided about five miles north of this city until 1915 when the family moved to Sioux City. He is now an employee of the city and looks hale, happy and prosperous. He says that he still has a warm spot in his heart for the Emerald Tinted city and that while there have been many changes in the inhabitants here during the last seventeen years, the period of his absence, he still loves to come back and visit with the old timers that are left.

Two young men from New York city, both about nineteen years of age, created quite a stir among the young ladies of this city and vicinity when they arrived here a couple of weeks ago driving a nifty, new sport model Buick car. They were around here for over a week and attended many dancing parties in the surrounding country. Last Friday Sheriff Duffy received a telegram from officers in New York city asking about the young men and asking for their apprehension, if they were in the locality. The car they were driving belonged to a Drive It Yourself company in New York city and they were anxious to get the car back. They had rented the car on May 17th and immediately started for the west, making the drive from New York city to O'Neill in a little over forty hours. They sure stepped on the gas. They and the car were taken into custody by Sheriff Duffy, and on Monday morning, accompanied by A. Marcellus they left for Toledo, Ohio, where they were to turn the car over to a representative of the owners and the young tourists were to be allowed to return home. It is understood that the young men belong to prominent and respected families in New York and that they had settled with the automobile company for all damages done to the car and that they would not be prosecuted criminally for their joy ride.

CARD OF THANKS
 We desire to extend our heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends for their expressions of condolence and the many beautiful offerings sent us in our recent bereavement, the death and burial of our beloved son and brother. We assure you that your thoughtfulness and kindness to us will ever be gratefully remembered.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Dumpert and family.

Report of Convention at Atkinson
 Mr. Editor: It was with great satisfaction that I attended the Holt County Council of Christian Education convention in the M. E. church and herein is a report of my observations therein on the 26th. The meeting was opened by F. A. Puckett with a few well chosen remarks at 9 a. m. followed by an address of welcome by Frank Murray, which was appreciated very much by the audience. 9:15 was devotional period and at 9:25, a duet by Roxie and Betty Jane Puckett was rendered with pleasing affect. 9:30 was a business session, and thereafter an address entitled "Increased Interest Through Projects," by Mrs. Luella A. Parker, an address by Rev. J. C. White on "Religion In the Home" was well received, after which there was music by Chambers. An address by Rev. F. I. Finch followed, entitled "The Vacation Church School, which was well received.

At noon a magnificent dinner was served in the church, to which everybody did full justice.
 At 1:30 in the afternoon a devotional service was held, followed by an address by Rev. J. C. White, entitled "Can an Adult be Educated?" followed by an address by Rev. F. I. Finch. He spoke on the task of the church in christian education.

At a business session the following officers were elected: F. A. Puckett, president; Maude Cole, vice-president, and Helen Murray, secretary and treasurer.

At 3:30 Rev. John Caldwell delivered an address on leadership and training, followed by a song at 3:50 by Vernie McDowell, Halla Houts and Marjorie Tooker. We had a round table discussion at 4 o'clock. During the afternoon an interesting talk was given by Miss Jane Adams, of Chambers, who is a returned missionary, from the Philippine Islands. The writer found it very interesting, and was worth going a good many miles to hear. It was decided to hold the next convention at Stuart, and have basket dinners instead, with coffee, cream and sugar furnished by the entertaining parties in Stuart. Attendance up to 6 p. m. 225.

A nice supper was provided by the ladies of the Atkinson M. E. church and the Green Valley Sunday School, and the writer joins in with all the others in giving them our most hearty thanks.
 R. J. Hatch.

CARD OF THANKS
 Our sincere and heartfelt thanks are publicly expressed to the kind friends and neighbors who rendered us every possible assistance at the time of the illness and death of our beloved mother and grandmother, the late Mrs. Elizabeth Johring. Your kindness to us in our hour of sorrow will ever be held in grateful remembrance.
