

Over the County

EASTERN HOLT

The threshing season is about over and farmers are well pleased with their crop.

The corn is doing fine and every-thing points to a fine crop. Fruit and vegetables are plentiful.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Miller and daughter, of New York, stopped over a few days for a visit at the D. Bowen on their way home from a trip through the west. They visited in California and at Yellowstone Park and the points of interest along the west coast. Mr. Miller is a son of Mrs. Miller, of this locality, and a brother of Mrs. D. Bowen. It was with interest we listened to him narrate his adventure on the trip. He told of the beautiful scenery and fishing and an encounter with the bears at Yellowstone park. He says that Nebraska has the worst highways on the route. We surely pay enough in taxes to have the best.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Bowen went on a trip, to visit a brother in Kansas, this week.

E. E. Summers and family stopped off for a few days with the home folks and neighbors. While here he helped thresh his same old route. He went to North Dakota to help his uncle run the ranch up there.

Willie Russell also went to the Dakotas.

A visitor from an eastern state was looking over The Frontier and made the remark, "Is that the way Holt county treats the poor? I guess I will stay, we have to work for our eats where I live."
