

STRIKERS STRONG ARM METHODS NEAR FAILURE

of DesMoines, president of the National Farmers' Holiday association, which called the strike, declared his belief that a conference of middle western governors would not be successful.

BRIEFLY STATED

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gallagher will leave Saturday morning for Omaha, where they will be present when the students at the Citizens' Military Training Camp are discharged from service, as they have two sons who have been attending the training camp this summer. They expect to return with the boys Wednesday next.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Butts and son, Rex, and Mrs. Russell Benson, of Omaha, came up last Friday evening for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Cronin. Mrs. Butts being a sister of Mrs. Cronin. Miss Marjorie Cronin, who had been visiting at the Butts home in Omaha the past week, returned home with them. Mr. Butts returned to Omaha Sunday afternoon while the others will remain for a couple of weeks visit.

Rev. George and Mrs. Longstaff, of Hansen, Nebr., were in the city yesterday visiting friends. They are returning home from a vacation trip during which they visited relatives and friends in Colorado and at the Tom Crowe home near Dorsey. They left for home yesterday afternoon, being accompanied by Mrs. Henry Zimmerman, who accompanied them as far as Hastings where she will visit for a few weeks at the home of her son.

Ross Amspoker, of Springview, former state senator from this district and republican candidate for the place at the coming election, was an O'Neill visitor last Friday and favored this office with a pleasant call. Mr. Amspoker had just returned from an extended eastern trip and he said that business conditions were much worse in the eastern states than they are in Nebraska. Like people in other sections though, the people in that section are looking for a business revival this fall.

Garrett Janzing, one of the pioneer farmers and stockmen of this county, living about ten miles northwest of this city, was a pleasant caller at this office last Saturday. Mr. Janzing said that winter wheat raised on his farm averaged 28 bushels to the acre and that the oats thereon averaged by measure 55 bushels per acre and weighed out 67 bushels to the acre. He says that there are any number of corn fields in the county that he is positive will yield better than 40 bushels per acre.

William D. Hammond, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hammond of this city, is in attendance at the Citizens' Military Training Camp at Omaha. In a letter to this office, from the adjutant in charge, the following is said of Mr. Hammond: "We are pleased to inform you that the above named cadet has attained the rank of First Lieutenant. This is an honor as all cadet officers are selected solely on their leadership and ability." The Frontier congratulates Mr. Hammond on his success.

Nebraska's payments of internal revenue receipts decreased thirty-four per cent in the fiscal year, 1932, which ended June 30, 1932, from the total for the fiscal year of 1931. Nebraska's internal revenue payments equaled $3,158,879.48 in 1932 as against $4,778,868.61 in 1931, the census bureau reports. The per cent of decrease for the country as a whole is thirty-six per cent. Nebraska's income tax payments have been steadily decreasing since 1930, going from $5,308,927.51 in 1930 to $4,572,597.92 in 1931, and then on down to the little over three million total for 1932.

All records for 1932 cattle shipments were broken at the Omaha stock yards last Monday, according to the Omaha Live Stock Exchange. A total of 14,500 calves had been counted by 9 a.m. Monday, compared to 2,700 up to 3 p.m. a week ago. The receipts Monday were the largest since November 6th last year when the cattle total was 14,649. The hog run was 9,800 compared to 6,900 a week ago.

Postal savings deposits have increased nearly a half billion dollars in the past twelve months, a report issued by the postoffice and treasury showed. Deposits on July 31, 1932, aggregated $825,026,983 compared with $370,826,563 on July 31, 1931. During July deposits increased $49,697,282.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to those that assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved daughter and sister, Annie Marie, and for the many beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Musil and family.

SERVICES AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Sunday School 10:00—Mr. Geo. C. Robertson, superintendent.

Morning Worship 11:00—"Being Alive To God."

Evening Service 8:00—"Work, Faith and Complete Satisfaction."

Do not wait for the weeks of special effort to become a regular in the work of the Lord. Our people testify to a spiritual experience in our services of worship. This helps to fortify in these days.

H. D. Johnson, Pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Benj Kuhler, Pastor

Next Sunday morning Rev. O. E. Richardson will preach at 11:00, the present pastor at Butte. It will be an exchange. In the evening the W. F. M. S. will give a program in connection with their Mite Box opening. The ladies invite your presence.

The last business session for the Conference year was held Tuesday evening with Dr. Gomon present. A large representation of the church was present. Reports showed that the activities of the church suffered no back-set. The past two years show a net gain in membership of over fifteen per cent. The Sunday School has not depleted. The Aid and Missionary societies have not failed to show progress. The Prayer meeting with an average of about 20 is a new thing in O'Neill. The Epworth League has accomplished more with best attendance for a number of years, so they report.

And, best of all a number of officials seem to have recovered from the depression when they proposed an increase of $400.00 for the Pastor's support the coming year. This has been done not by any one, but by co-operation of many, with various moods and tenses.

Annual Conference is less than three weeks away, September 13th. The lay delegate elected last year, C. P. Hancock, will this year be a member of the annual conference, the same as pastors.

REPORT OF CAMPMEETING

It was my good fortune to spend last Saturday and Sunday at the campmeeting on Pine creek in Brown county, and thinking that the readers of your paper would like to read of what took place, I am sending in a brief review of the meeting.

I must say to begin with that I found the place used for the meeting to be one of nature's wonders, and an excellent place for that purpose. I dare say that everyone who went there was very much delighted with the scenery and the way it was laid out.

The management was in the hands of Rev. Marts and he did his duties in a very acceptable manner. The writer got to the grounds in time to hear a sermon by Rev. Roy Hollenbeck, of Lowell, Mass., on the subject, "Wisdom, Righteousness, Sanctification and Redemption." Dinner followed the sermon.

At 1:30 P. M., a people's meeting was held in the tabernacle, which was followed by a sermon from Rev. Paul Berg, of Norfolk. The subject was, "The Seven Phases of the Deluge."

In the evening at 7 p. m. a young people's prayer meeting was held in the tabernacle, while the older folks held a similar meeting around the tables. The service in the evening at 8 o'clock was conducted by Rev. Roy Hollenbeck, and his text was the thirty-first verse of the sixth chapter of Isaiah.

Sunday morning started with a prayer meeting of thirty-one young people on the hill at 9 o'clock. The old folks' prayer meeting was held at 10 o'clock. At 10:30 o'clock Rev. Richardson, of Butte, gave a talk on the Sunday school lesson for the day. Preaching services were conducted on this day, the same as Saturday, with Rev. Hollenbeck and Rev. Berg attending their services as on the previous day.

Miss Clara Christensen, singing evangelist of Moorhead, Minn., performed her duties well. Miss Christensen, Mrs. Bloedorn and Mrs. Hubby sang a special song on each of the two days. Other specials by men, were also sung, among them being a few songs by two college students from Iowa.

The number of converts for the nine days was ninety-three. There were fourteen visitors from Center Union present. Paddock Sunday school was also well represented. We did not get the latest report from the other Sunday schools.

The writer believes that many were spiritually refreshed who went there.

A deep interest was taken in the meeting by all who attended.

IN DISTRICT COURT

The Fremont Joint Stock Land Bank has filed suit in the district court to foreclose a mortgage given by George F. Sellers on the northwest quarter of section 26, and the northeast quarter of section 27, township 28 north of range 11. This mortgage was given to secure the payment of a note for $820.18. They allege that the defendant failed to pay the installment of $195.48 due on November 1, 1931, the mortgage being given on January 31, 1931. This mortgage was made expressly subject to the first mortgage of $7,000.00 which the plaintiff owns. They ask that the court determine the amount due and that the premises may be sold to satisfy said claim.

The Travelers Insurance Company has filed suit in the district court against Albert Kirschmer, et al., to foreclose a mortgage given by James A. Wells and Anna Wells to the plaintiff for $8,000.00 on the following described real estate: The east half of section 26, township 30, north of range 12. The note, for which the mortgage was given as security, was due on February 1, 1932, and is now due and payable. They allege that subsequent to the execution and delivery of the mortgage that Wells and his wife sold and consigned the above premises to Charles Kirschmer. They allege that there is now due on said note and mortgage the sum of $8,179.60 and they ask that the land may be sold to satisfy the amount found due.

The same plaintiff filed another suit against the same defendant for the foreclosure of a mortgage of $8,000.00, given by the same parties and later this sold by them. The land involved in this second suit is: The west half of section 36, township 30, north of range 12 west of the sixth p. m. They allege that there is now due on this second mortgage the sum of $8,079.90 and they ask that the land may be sold to satisfy the amount found due.

DON'T BLAME HIM

"Hello, where have you been?"

"To the station to see my wife off for a month's holiday."

"But how black your hands are!"

"Yes, I patted the engine."—Poultry Facts.
