RECORD VOTE CAST IN HOLT COUNTY AT TUESDAY ELECTION

More Than Seven Thousand and Vote In A Democratic Landslide.

MALONE RE-ELECTED

Skidmore is Defeated; Steinhauser is Re-elected, and John Carson Elected From 2nd Supervisor District.

Polling the largest vote in its history, 7178 with 89 mail votes to be counted, Holt county joined the National democratic landslide last Tuesday by giving a majority to the democratic standard bearers, Roosevelt and Garner of 2317, with Swan, which cast 57 votes four years ago, missing. This is a stupendous reversal of the vote of four years ago when Herbert Hoover carried the county with a majority of 639.

Governor Bryan carried the county with a majority of 986, with one precinct missing. Bryan ran 670 behind the head of the ticket in this county. The balance of the democratic state ticket carried the county with majorities ranging from 2119, given to Crist Anderson for state senator to 214 given to Slaymaker for state representative. Congressman Edgar Howard carried the county with a majority of 1842. Attorney General Sorenson received the largest republican vote in the county, polling 3060 to 3351 for Good, the democratic candidate, or a majority of 291.

In the race for Chief Justice of the state supreme court, Chas. A. Goss has a lead in the county of 49 over Harry O. Palmer, with four precincts missing. Reports from over the state are to the effect that Goss has been re-elected Chief Justice with a majority of around 12,000.

Judge Dickson apparently has carried every county in the district with the exception of Brown county and will have a majority of over 3,000 in the district. His majority in Holt county, with four precincts missing is 1,525.

County Judge Malone had an easy victory. With four precincts missing he has a majority in the county of 916. When the final count is made he will have over 1,000 majority in the county.

The only victory gained by the republicans in this county in the last election is that they retained control of the county board. Three republicans were candidates for membership on the county board at the election last Tuesday, two of them being candidates for reelection, John Steinhauser and L. E. Skidmore of Ewing. Steinhauser was elected, having a majority in the district of about 50, with the mail vote not counted. Skidmore was sniped under with an avalanche of opposition votes. Reimers, the democratic candidate carried every precinct in the district and had a majority of 653. John Carson, republican candidate in the Second district won out over Herb Jansen and Will Harvey with a majority of 30 over Jansen, the runner up. The political complexion of the board after the first of the year, will be four republicans and three democrats.

Holt county voters voted overwhelmingly against the employment of a county agent in this county. The vote was: For the employment of a county agent 1938, with a few precincts missing, against the employment of a county agent 4426, a majority against of 2,488.

The proposed constitutional amendment, proposed by initiative petition, providing for the creation of a Public Safety Commission for the patrol of the highways was likewise defeated in the county. With a few precincts missing the vote on this was: For 2,689, against 3,867, or a majority against of 1,178.

Hood are the owners as tenants in common of the south half of section 26, township 35, north of range 13 and that each of them own a one-fourth right, title and interest therein. Plaintiff prays that the right, title and interest of all the parties to this action and to the said described real estate be ascertained and determined by said court. The plaintiff alleges that he has a one-fourth interest and that in addition thereto that he be adjudged to have a first lien on said property for $182.33 taxes paid by him on the above described property.

Plaintiff alleges that there is now due the sum of $489.67 with interest from November 16, 1932, and they ask judgment for that amount and that the land be sold to satisfy the amount found due.

The Omaha National Bank has filed suit in the district court to foreclose a mortgage given by Edmond C. Reitor, et al., for $35,000.00 on the following described Holt county real estate: The north half of the northeast quarter; west half of section 15; west half of the northwest quarter; south half of section 22; north half of section 27; all of sections 21 and 28; south half of northwest quarter; south half of section 20; northeast quarter, northeast quarter of northwest quarter of section 29; east half; southwest quarter of section 32; north half of southeast quarter; southeast quarter of southeast quarter of section 19, all in township 30, north of range 9 west.

Carry Every State in the Country but Six. Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Delaware, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine Only Republican States

ROOSEVELT 474 ELECTORIAL VOTES, HOOVER 59

Nebraska Goes Democratic, Reelecting Bryan; Entire Ticket Elected With Him. All Five Congressmen are Democrats

The democratic revolution at the polls which elevated Franklin D. Roosevelt to the presidency and cut down republican office holders was emphasized by late election tabulations. The figures told the story of an electorate so determined upon a change that it braved almost every variety of weather to register the greatest popular vote ever known, millions higher than the outpouring drawn by the intensity of the 1928 campaign.

President Hoover saw every state west of the Alleghanies turn against him. Only Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Delaware, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine kept the faith. Roosevelt's electoral vote reached a new high figure of 474. Mr. Hoover had 59. For election 266 were necessary. Hoover received 444 four years ago. Michigan went democratic. So did Iowa, birthplace of Herbert Hoover California, where he lives; Kansas, home of Vice President Curtis, and among others, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota.

That was only part of a country-wide political upheaval. The result was substantially the same whether one looked at the senate, the house, gubernatorial races or even returns affecting prohibition.

Political old timers blinked as they tried to envision a senate without such captains of the republican old guard as Jim Watson of Indiana, Reed Smoot of Utah, George Moses of New Hampshire and Hiram Bingham of Connecticut. They were all beaten by democrats. Add to them another veteran Wesley Jones of Washington.

The eloquence of Senator Borah in Idaho failed to save his republican colleague, Senator John Thomas.

There were thirty-four senate seats at issue. The democrats captured twenty-five of these to give them fifty-six seats in the seventy-third congress. The republicans took five. The others are still doubtful.

On the house side, already democratic, the tale of republican disaster was repeated. The winners have 218 seats there now. They are certain of about 280 after March 4 and 78 house races are still in doubt.

NEBRASKA JOINS THE PARADE. Nebraska democracy Wednesday took stock of its greatest victory in history and began to lay plans for taking over almost the entire governmental machinery of the state, says the Lincoln Journal.

"Governor Roosevelt had carried the state with more than 150,000 plurality, with 95 per cent of the vote tabulated unofficially. It was the first time any candidate had reached that plurality in Nebraska and he was believed to have recorded the highest total vote in state history.

"It was the first time since 1916 all democratic nominees for state office had been elected. It was the first time since the days of the farmers' alliance and populism in the 1890's that Nebraska republicans failed to elect a congressman. And it was by far the largest control democrats have ever exercised over the legislature. Ninety per cent of the senate will be democratic and more than 75 per cent of the house.

"The only remaining doubt of the democrats vanished as Terry Carpenter, continued to increase his lead over Congressman Robert G. Simmons. A margin of 3,405 in 414 of 525 precincts assured his election.

"With 90 per cent of the senate democratic, the party already is assured of more than 75 per cent control of the house of representatives. In 100 districts, the democrats have elected seventy-seven and the republicans eighteen, with five still in doubt.

"Two races probably will take a mail vote to determine as the final unofficial count showed differences of less than fifteen votes between the two candidates. These races are between Joe Gunnarson, (r) and Carl Bremer (d) in Hamilton county and between C. B. Putnam, (r) and W. D. Bradstreet (d) in Boyd county.

"The other undetermined representative contests are in the Twenty-fifth, Sixty-fourth and Eighty-seventh districts. In the latter, Dan L. Ough of Benkelman, republican incumbent, was trailing with two precincts out.

"Along with the smashing democratic state victory, voters defeated the Sorenson state police plan which had undergone a severe campaign buffeting by Governor Bryan and Paul F. Good, who defeated Sorenson for the attorney generalship.

"There was little to interfere with the democrats taking charge of the statehouse after the first of the year. Only two elected republicans will remain in the entire building, the hold-over members of the railway commission, C. A. Randall and Hugh Drake.

The only other elected officials not democrats will be State Superintendent Taylor, non-political, who did not have to run for office this year, and the seven non-political judges of the supreme court. One of these, Chief Justice Goss, won a close race for reelection over Harry Palmer.

"Governor Bryan's two chief complaints this term, that he had antagonistic legislature and an unfriendly attorney general to work with, were removed by the Tuesday landslide.

"State democratic headquarters were as enthusiastic over the clean sweep of the congressional races as over the complete victory in the state contests.

"The five democratic candidates furnished an interesting contrast, including two former governors, a distinguished lawyer, the long haired Columbus newspaper publisher, Edgar Howard, and the bespectacled twenty-seven year old gas and coal merchant, Terry Carpenter.

"It was the sixth successive congressional victory of John H. Morehead of Falls City while the other ex-governor, A. C. Shallenberger of Alma, won another leg on the frequent congressional race between Shallenberger and former Congressman Fred Johnson of Hastings. Shallenberger went to congress after his governorship years ago, was out and then returned in 1930 to defeat Congressman Johnson. He had a substantial lead over Johnson this year.

"Omaha's stately democratic lawyer, Edward Burke, defeated the same man who last year took him into camp, Malcolm Baldrige, once captain of the Yale college wrestling team. Congressman Edgar Howard more than doubled the vote of his opponent, H. Halderson of Newman Grove, who also lost to Howard in 1930.

"The victory of Terry Carpenter in the 'big Fifth' was the big event to democratic chieftains. Simmons has held the old 'big Sixth' in hand with ease but the overwhelming democratic landslide coupled with the aggressive campaign of the young Carpenter was too much for him.

Final Tabulation
Final returns Nebraska 1,995 precincts out of 2,038; Roosevelt 348,512; Hoover 196,352.
