TO MOTHERS whose children won't EAT

Nature knows best. Never coax a child to eat! Remove the cause of a youngster's poor appetite.

Specialists will tell you that a sluggish appetite almost always means the child has a sluggish colon. Correct this condition called stasis, and see how quickly a listless, drooping boy or girl begins to eat—and gain!

Nature never made a finer laxative for children; and they all love the wholesome, fruity flavor of the real California syrup of figs.

The promises made by the bottlers of California Syrup of Figs are true, and it will do the same for you, if it's genuine CALIFORNIA. Don't accept substitutes.

CLEANLINESS IN BEAUTY IMPLEMENTS

If your eagle eye spies a black-head or two on your chin, or around your nose, pause, before you do anything, to see what caused them.

Is your powder puff meticulously clean? Or is the little puff that fits into your compact more than slightly soiled? It is absolutely astounding how many women keep right on using a powder puff on their faces after it is positively dirty.

At least one more precaution. When you come in from the street and start to cleanse your face, do your hands first. Scrub them with a nail brush and warm water and good soap and make sure they are spotless as a surgeon's hands before you begin operations.

Hair brushes come next in line of neglect. Few women keep their brushes clean. You should have two, really, and wash one each day.

Keep your beauty jars clean and shining. Keep your powder air tight. Keep the puff that you use in your powder box very, very clean. These big ones, and particularly the ostrich ones, do wash readily and well.

Last, but important, don't keep around a lot of odds and ends of this or that cream, face lotion, muscle oil, skin tonic and so forth. Cull what isn't good for your skin, what you do not use or need, what you never did like. Keep just what you use and keep them in some order, so you build up a mechanical regime for yourself.

Proposed Bill May Abolish County Offices

Ann Arbor — (UP) — Under a proposed bill which Representative Philip P. Pack, of this city plans to introduce into the Michigan legislature, many county offices will be abolished and governmental expense reduced accordingly.

County clerk, county treasurer, register of deeds, and drain commissioner are offices which Pack would have abolished. A new division of records would be instituted to replace the three abolished at what Pack describes as "material savings in expenses."

The drain commissioner's duties would be spread upon those of the present county road commissions.

Firemen Repulsed

Jeffersonville, Ind. — (UP) — With the avowed intention of crashing the gate at a local marathon dance, a crowd of Louisville, Ky., youngsters celebrating a football victory, trooped over the toll bridge here without paying tolls.

Two Kinds of Capital

By M. E. Tracy in New York World-Telegram.

Debt is the fly in our ointment—debt which was contracted on the basis of high prices and high wages, but which we face the prospect of paying on the basis of low prices and low wages.

The public debt in the country amounts to about 35 billion dollars, while the private debt has been estimated at nearly 200 billion dollars. Interest alone represents an item of 10 or 12 billion dollars a year.

Today the national income is not more than 45 billion dollars, which means that the interest item has risen to a fourth of what the people earn, if not more. Add to this the 12 or 14 billion dollars necessary for taxation, and you have not more than 25 billion for the people to live on where they had at least 60 billion in 1928.

Such a situation makes it impossible to provide capital for the revival of business. The remedies by which we are trying to revive business fail to touch this aspect of the situation. Something must be done by debt work and service values to the level demanded or raised, or reduce debt to the level of work and service values.

The simplest way of accomplishing this would seem to be through a reasonable amount of inflation, and the safest kind of inflation would seem to be a revaluation of the dollar downward in relation to gold.

The American people cannot get a sufficient number of dollars in exchange for their toil and products; neither can outsiders. The money boom which was created by the depression is definitely reflected in a shrinkage of everything else.

Of these two, the latter kind of capital is by far the most important, and the real purpose of money is to facilitate the barter and exchange through which it functions. That purpose appears to have been lost sight of by many of our financiers and politicians.

School Closings

To Close Grade Schools

Mott, N. D. — (UP) — Action taken by the Mott school board has deemed it necessary that grade schools of the city shall be closed March 17, for the rest of the term, because of lack of funds.

The reasons given by the school board stipulate lack of funds, realization that the lower evaluation law, recently passed, shall reduce the income too drastically, and heavy running expenses. The high school will remain open, it was announced.

President R. E. Trousdale of the Mott school board issued a statement declaring that "it is with deepest regret we announce that these schools must close. However, the voters expressed their wishes at the polls. If it was their wish that children should be deprived of grade schooling, then here is fulfillment."

Doctor Advises End of Fast Living in 1933

Memphis — (UP) — Put on the brakes, stop this fast living and forget your worries if you want to be happy this year, is the ultimatum of Dr. Wallace P. Moore, head of the Shelby county health department.

"Live by your doctor's orders or die by your own," Dr. Moore said. "Everyone should forget his troubles and meet the new year with a clear mind."

"The depression like a disease, will leave many ill after effects. Just as excessive living in good times left many nervous and organic diseases, so the worry of hard times will tear down the health of people today," he warned.

Vanity's Fault. From Answers. "Have you any idea how your wife caught such a terrible cold?"

"I've a pretty good idea. I think it was her coat." "Too thin, I suppose?" "No, I don't think so, doctor. It was last winter's coat and she wouldn't wear it."

A piece of charcoal placed on the shelves of a refrigerator, acts as an absorbent for all odors.

WHY? No matter how I try, And in my ornament of content, They constitute the fly.

Why, when wheat goes up, they claim The price of bread must soar. Yet now it's worth round forty cents, The price of bread's no lower?

Why don't they bring Sam Insull back, Who robbed a million folks, Yet have no bit of trouble with The common run of blokes?

Why is it that the statement, which induces me to buy, So many times turns out to be A most outrageous lie?

Why is it that the price of hogs Depends not on supply, But just upon the tons of meat The packers have laid by?

Why don't some statesmen have the brains And own the guts to say, That all that's needed is to knock Our tariff walls away?

Why, if the technocrats are right—For I'm just full of volts—Have these last half a dozen years Been crammed so full of jolts? —Sam Page.

WHOLE WHEAT FOR DAY'S FIRST MEAL

If you have never tried whole wheat as a breakfast food, or in various other dishes, you have a treat in store. The flavor is rich and nutty, all the nutritive value of the grain is retained, and, best of all in these trying times, whole wheat is cheap.

The dweller in the city may not be able to buy whole wheat at a grocery store, but can generally get it at a feed store. Grocers do not like to carry whole wheat because it does not store well.

A pound of whole-ground wheat will make breakfast porridge for two days for a family of five, with generous servings. Even at three cents a pound, the cost of such servings would be less than a third of a cent each, or one and one-half cents for the family.

sure cooker if you have one, or a fireless cooker—or you can simply cook it in boiling water three or four hours, or over steam.

To cook the ground whole wheat, use six parts of boiling water to one pound of wheat, with three teaspoonsful of salt. Simmer for an hour to an hour and a half, stirring occasionally.

Besides breakfast porridge, once your wheat is cooked, you can have wheat chowder, scrapple, plan, muffins, pudding, or cookies. Or the wheat may be served at dinner as rice or hominy is served.
