

Chaos in Wake of Porto Rican Flood

A wall of water from the Yaguez River, which has been swelled to torrential proportions by heavy rains, swept 300 houses to sea at Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, and left this scene of wreckage and death in its wake. Over twenty persons lost their lives, many were injured and $1,000,000 worth of damage was done.

New Aircraft Carrier Launched

This impressive scene at the Newport News, Va., shipyards shows the huge hull of the new U.S.S. Ranger, largest and most formidable unit of naval-aerial armament ever built, as it slid down the ways after being officially christened by Mrs. Herbert Hoover, wife of the President. The ceremony was witnessed by Secretary of the Navy Charles Francis Adams and other high naval dignitaries. Inset shows Mrs. Hoover as she did the honors with the traditional bottle.

Sherlock Bow

A new picture of Clara Bow, famous "It" girl of the films, who, it has just been revealed aided Scotland Yard, Britain's great man-hunting organization, in capturing a clever criminal. Miss Bow while in London was approached by the man who attempted to sell her a gold-making machine. The "It" girl "strung him along" until the time was ripe and then turned him over to police.

As "First Family" Attended Church

Beginning his first full day as Chief Executive of the United States President Franklin D. Roosevelt is pictured as he attended service at St. Thomas' Episcopal Church with other members of his family. At extreme left is James Roosevelt, son of the President; and in the automobile are President Roosevelt, Mrs. Roosevelt, wife, and Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt, the President's mother.

They Don't Need Any Bait

Virginia Rice, of Boston, who captured the tennis championship of Bermuda by eliminating Virginia Hillery in the finals at Hamilton to the tune of 10-8, 6-3, 6-3. Miss Rice is one of the foremost net stars in the United States.

One could not call the finnies of Georgie "poor fish"—not with two beauties like the Misses Cornelia Wilson (left) and Margaret Wood paying them so much attention. The bare-foot beauties were photographed as they officially opened the Georgia fishing season at Augusta recently.

"Okey America!"

This "Happy-Days-Are-Here-Again" smile was worn by James H. Perkins, chairman of the board of the National City Bank, as he left the White House after discussing the banking situation with President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The smile is an omen in support of the belief of industrial leaders that we have touched bottom and soon we'll be on the way up to prosperity.

Champ at Fifteen

Although only fifteen years old, Miss Dorothy Lyford, high school girl of Spencer, Mass., is the women's broad jump champion of the world. During the indoor meet at Madison Square Garden, New York, recently she set a new world's record of 8 feet, 6 3/4 inches.

"Miss Italy 1933"

Miss Juliana Anere, New York girl of Italian extraction, who was recently awarded the title of "Miss Italy 1933" after she had been selected as the most beautiful Italian girl in America. Miss Anere was crowned by Cavalier Uff Rosario Romeo, Italian nobleman, who is visiting here.

Youth Sold Bobcats

He Captured as Cubs

White Salmon, Wash. — (UP) — David Moore, a youth still in his teens, discovered a trio of baby bobcats in a tree 20 miles north of here. Stripping off his trousers the lad tied the legs and made an improvised sack.

He climbed the tree, placed the squawling kittens in the "sack" and climbed down. One kitten, however, was killed in descending the tree. The other two became very tame.

Recently, the two kittens brother and sister, were sold to a lion farm. David netted $350 for the sale.

"Georgia Peach" in London

It's just an old English custom to ask a "Bobby" when in doubt, and William "Young" Stribling, Georgie heavyweight fistic merchant, is here shown as he conformed to the rules and sought some information from a London policeman during his tour of the English capital. With Stribling are his two children who accompanied him on the long trip that took him to South Africa, where he defeated Dan McCorkindale, champion of the Dark Continent.

A Couple of Champions

Miss Mary Gwyn Fiers, of Oklahoma City, is pictured on her champion saddle mare, Roxie Highland, as she took part in the recent horse show at Coral Gables, Fla. Roxie Highland has made the business of winning blue ribbons a rather monotonous procedure, having remained unbeaten for four years.

Leading Social Whirl

The airy grace that has given Anne Vanderhoef the reputation of being New York's most talented debutante is intimated above, as she rehearses her role of premiere danseuse in the annual Pasadena, Cal., revel. Miss Vanderhoef is one of Gotham's most popular members of the younger set.