

Champion Instructing a New Mermaid

Dorothy Poynton, Olympic high board champion, is pictured as she launched a new feminine aspirant to aquatic honors from the board of a beautiful outdoor pool at Los Angeles. The novice is Patsy Bauer, who, although but nine years old, shows remarkable form. Anyway she couldn't have a better teacher.

Congrats to Conqueror

Jack Wright of Canada's Davis Cup team (left) is pictured as he was congratulated by Ricardo Morales, of the Cuban team, after Wright had defeated him in the Canada-Cuba playoffs for the Davis Cup. They played at Hot Springs, Va.

Revival of Peg

Looking as though she were more than equal to the situation, little "Peg O' My Heart" returns to American audiences in the person of Marion Davies, screen star, who is taking the role in the screen version of the famous play. Peg is here shown with her wistful pal, Michael.

As Buck Reenacted McMath Kidnaping

Here is the scene at Harwichport, Mass., as Kenneth Buck, confessed kidnaper of 10-year-old Peggy McMath, re-enacted the abduction for the benefit of investigating detectives. He is here shown with State Detectives Brouillard and Sherlock at the shack where Peggy was first held captive. A grass fire in the vicinity almost foiled his ransom plot. Inset is General Daniel Needham (right) with the $80,000 recovered ransom found in Buck's home in a tin box. Cyril Buck, Kenneth's brother, is also held.

McMath Kidnaper

An excellent closeup of Kenneth Buck, of Harwichport, Mass., confessed kidnaper of 10-year-old Peggy McMath, shown after he had re-enacted details of the abduction for investigating detectives. Buck is lodged in Barnstable County Jail, where also is his brother, Cyril, who acted as intermediary in the ransom negotiations.

As F. D. R. Reported Progress

Accounting for his two-months' stewardship of the nation, President Roosevelt is pictured as he delivered a nation-wide radio broadcast from the White House on the economic situation—what has been done and what is to be done. The President explained his recovery program and promised to use the powers granted him by Congress if, and when, it becomes necessary.

John. D. Saw Red

Diego Rivera, famous Mexican mural painter, who has become the storm center of a new controversy following his dismissal from Rockefeller Center, New York, where he had been engaged to paint a series of frescos. Rivera was ousted, it is said, because the scene of Communist activities he painted were not acceptable to the Rockefeller family.

Checks for Spring

Now that the outdoor season is here, checks are coming into their own as a feature of milady's styles. Here is Jean Harlow, screen star, in a cute outfit of red and white pin-check. The skirt boasts box pleats in front, and is topped off by a tailored vest-jacket of white silk pique. The jacket sleeves are puffed at the shoulders.

Stars A-Wheeling

They may be dressed for swimming, but Eleanor Holm, Olympic mermaid, and Dorothy Lee are covering the miles with smiles and a bicycle. Both Eleanor and Dorothy are among the movie celebrities who have taken up the cycling fad in a big way.

Madame Secretary Honored

Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins is pictured as she was presented with a wood carving, "symbolical of woman's emergence into the new day," by Max Meyer at the recent luncheon in New York to honor the woman Cabinet member. The gift was a tribute from the Industrial Council of the State of New York, with which Miss Perkins was formerly associated.

Smiles at Threats

Although he has received many kidnap threats, Jockey Silvio Coucci, whose sensational riding has won him national fame, doesn't seem to be worrying much as he is pictured here at the Jamaica, L. I., track. The pony pilot has hired armed guards to protect him even while mounting and dismounting at the paddock.

New Navy Chief

Vice-Admiral William H. Standley, who has been appointed new Chief of Naval Operations, the Navy's highest command, to succeed Admiral William Pratt, who reached the retirement age on March 1. However, Secretary of the Navy Swanson announced, Admiral Pratt will be retained pending definite action by the Geneva Disarmament Conference.

Billie and Coeey Honeymoon

Innocent—Freed

Robert E. Coleman, young Atlanta, Ga., salesman, is shown as he left the Stonewall Prison Camp after his release recently. Coleman has served four years of a life term on conviction of the murder of his wife in 1929, when James Starks, a negro, confessed the crime. On proof of the negro's guilt being produced, Governor Eugene Tal- wadge of Georgia immediately or- dered Coleman's release.

Enigmatic Beauty

A picture of Marie Luize, beautiful daughter of Captain Franz von Rintelen, German spy during the World War, who was mentioned during the "betrayal" trial of Lieutenant Baillie Stewart in London as the siren who induced him to sell his country's secrets. Although Capt. von Rintelen denies his daughter is the woman in the case, he admitted there were "start- ling coincidences."
