

Wings of Speed for Uncle Sam's Mail

Here is a remarkable action photo of a plane being catapulted from the deck of the S. S. Bremen while the huge liner was still 600 miles at sea out of New York. The plane carried a load of mail from the ship to the shore to expedite delivery. The operation was carried out with the precision of clockwork.

Try It on Your Clothesline

Bicycling on the road isn't thrilling enough for these fair devotees of the wheel, so they invented this stunt to liven things up. Billie Yuill is pictured riding her bike along a life line at Venice, Cal., carrying Isabelle Becker suspended from a rope swing. The secret of the stunt is that the tires have been removed from the bike. But don't try it too high up.

Brains and Brawn

Cadet Kenneth E. Fields, of Elkhart, Ind., who is honor man of the graduating class at West Point, is one of the outstanding athletes of the Military Academy. He starred at football for the past two years.

Preferred in Paris

Chosen as the "most beautiful blonde in Paris," Mlle. Jacqueline Doret, 18-year-old stenographer, is shown as she arrived in New York on the trip she won as a prize. She will go to Hollywood for a screen test with a major studio with a view to a film contract.

You Said a Mouthful

If that apple doesn't get lost in a tooth cavity, Caliph, 3½-ton baby piggo at the Central Park Zoo, New York, will make quick work of it. Caliph is shown on his first day in the outdoor tank. He made quite a splash when he took the plunge.

Just Had to Tell of "Secret" Marriage

Although she went to Europe in order that she might be married without fanfare or publicity, pretty Constance Cummings, whom you must have seen on the screen, just couldn't keep a secret, so she cabled a Hollywood friend to tell of her happiness. Benn W. Levy, screen writer, is the happy bridegroom.

Wins High Post

Judge Louis Fitzhenry, of Bloomington, Ill., who has been nominated by President Roosevelt for Judge of the Seventh Federal Circuit Court of Appeals, which sits in Chicago. The post is second only to that of a Justice in the United States Supreme Court.

Shuffle Off to Buffalo

The title of the popular song might fit this picture, but if you want to see the originals you'll have to shuffle off to Chicago. Buffalo, Jr., shown with his loving mother, is the first World's Fair baby.

In New Navy Post

Rear Admiral William D. Leahy, who has been named by President Roosevelt as chief of the Navy Bureau of Navigation. He is 53 years old and was formerly chief of the Bureau of Ordnance. Admiral Leahy has been commander of the Destroyer Scouting Force since 1931.

A Fair Mermaid

It would be interesting to know what the wild waves are saying as they survey this beauty in the latest model "kerchief" bathing suit. She is Georgian Young, who finds this style ideal for tanning between dips at the ornamental beach in the World's Fair, Chicago.

By the Sea

Attired in a beach pajama ensemble of turkey red, Janet Snowden, of New York and Newport, R. I., sister of Princess Rospigliosi, is pictured at the exclusive Atlantic Beach Club on Long Island. The society rendezvous by the sea is fast becoming a favorite with former devotees of Newport.

To Wed Banker

Miss Frances Sewzuk, 20-year-old Frankford, Pa., waitress, who recently announced she is to marry Robert F. Welsh, 59-year-old banker, who is a prominent society sportsman. Miss Sewzuk works in her parents' sandwich shop a few doors from Welsh's banking firm.

Where Oil Blast Killed Seven

Made at the height of the conflagration, this picture shows the absorption plant of the Richfield Oil Company at Long Beach, Cal., being devoured by flames. Seven persons were killed and 19 injured in the blast that preceded the fire. Damage is placed at $350,000.