

Scene of Ohio Bus Tragedy

Plunging down an embankment at Mount Vernon, Ohio, this passenger bus landed upside down, killing three residents of Cleveland and injuring 29 other occupants. The photo was made as volunteer workers extricated the dead and injured. Thirty-six persons were aboard vehicle at the time of the accident.

Our Flying Cameramen

Hugh Broderick (left) and M. A. Baron, photographers for International Illustrated News and this newspaper, and the plane used on their 1,650 mile dash from New York to Labrador to obtain pictures of the arrival of the Italian air armada.

Silenced by Death

Police believe that the reason Mrs. Alice Diamond (above) was slain was that she had found a clue to the slayers of her husband, Jack "Legs" Diamond, who went the way of all racketeers. Mrs. Diamond was found shot to death in her Brooklyn, N. Y., home.

When Boardman Crashed in Bendix Race

Here's a close view of the wrecked plane after Russell Boardman, one of the crack entries in the Bendix race, which was won by Roscoe Turner, but Boardman is now in a local hospital with severe injuries.

She Got Her Man

Adelaide Jennings, head of a detective agency, who recently became the bride of Donald Woodward, Rochester, N. Y., millionaire sportsman. This is Woodward's third marital venture. His second wife obtained a Reno divorce only a few days ago.

Looking Up at a Dropper

Here is an unusual photo of a parachute jump. It was made at the National Air Races in Los Angeles. The cameraman was directly beneath the jumper when he secured the remarkable "shot."

Freed "Prince"

Having completed a 90-day prison term for perjury, "Prince Mike Romanoff," nee Harry Gerguson, is shown as he left the Federal House of Detention, New York, on probation. He will be obliged to report to Federal officials once a month during that time.

For Dinner Hour

The charming dinner hour frock worn here by Irene Hovey, M-G-M actress, shows a clever combination. A white crepe bias skirt is topped by a mousseline blouse in pale green. The square neck and double ruffles at the sleeves and waistline are quaint touches.

Meet the Champ!

Aaron Butash, of Scranton, Pa., wears his crown with a cocky smile, despite the fact that thrones are toppling every day. He's the new national marble champion, by virtue of his victory in the tournament held at Ocean City, N. J. Aggie experts from all over the country are expected.

The Nation's Perfect Back

This is no "back number" as you can see for yourself, even if we didn't inform you that Miss Judith Allen, movie actress, is the owner of the "perfect back." That interesting fact was determined in a contest sponsored by the California Health Show in Los Angeles. Dr. Lester Donovan is here showing the fair Judith an X-ray photo of her prize-winning spine.

Razed by Cuban Hurricane

Crushed to earth by the severe tropical hurricane, flattened huts in Pinar del Rio, Cuba, are shown after recent storm which left 12 deaths and many injuries in its wake. Hundreds of families were rendered homeless by the big wind which struck without warning.

New Challenger for Da Preem

Just when Primo Carnera, Italian heavyweight champion of the world, figured he had his title all safely packed away, along came this aggressive kangaroo and challenged Da Preem to a scrap. They are mixing it in the open air arena at Atlantic City, N. J.