

Over the County

EMMET ITEMS

Mrs. Catherine Shorthill, of Pittsburg, Pa., started from Emmet Sunday for her home at Pittsburg after a two months visit here with relatives.

Milt Lawrence rebuilt a chicken house last week that a small twister had torn to pieces last summer on the William Luben Jr., farm.

Miss Beatrice Welsh visited Miss Nellie Gaughenbaugh over Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Fernholz, who is employed in O'Neill, visited her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fernholz, over the week-end.

There was a dancing party at the William Stortz place south of Emmet last Friday night.

Mrs. Rhodes, who lives north of O'Neill, was visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Guy Cole, last Wednesday.

A pound social was given at Mrs. John Conards for Rev. and Mrs. Priestly last Wednesday. A large crowd attended.

Miss Beatrice Welsh visited at the Atkinson high school Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Alfs, of Atkinson, visited at Gus Dahms Sunday.

A number of government men are working on the road south of Emmet again this week.

Miss Evelyn Tomjack went home last Friday to spend the week-end with her folks in Ewing.

Miss Margaret Gaughenbaugh and Miss Mary O'Donnell visited Sunday with Angeline Galligan.

Louis Luben was a caller on his folks in Emmet Sunday.

Frank Pruss did repair work on his buildings in Emmet last week.

The Shorthill store building is being reshingled this week.

A number of neighbors and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Horn last Tuesday evening and from there went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Puckett where a surprise party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Puckett and son, Clyde, of Idaho. A large number of old friends and neighbors were present and an enjoyable time was had talking over old times. Mr. and Mrs. Puckett were former residents of Holt county, moving to Idaho six years ago. They expect to return in a few days.

John Robert Barnes, of O'Neill visited over the week-end at the home of William Luben Jr.

Agnes and Treslin Vogel and Hays and Darlene Sesler visited Dorothy and Esther Luben Sunday.

Miss Anna Rose O'Donnell was absent from school Wednesday because of sickness.

Mrs. Jettie Shorthill is moving into the Frank Kintigh residence.

MEEK AND VICINITY

A. L. Borg, when near Sioux City Tuesday with a truck load of hogs and cattle, had a bad accident. A lady in a model A Ford was driving on the wrong side of the road against the sun and the car and truck collided, nearly demolishing both. Axel was not injured but lost several head of hogs besides having to dispose of his truck to a wrecking company. The lady was taken to a hospital but was not seriously injured.

Will Langon had a truck load of cattle trucked to Sioux City on Thursday.

Several of the ladies of the vicinity cleaned the church Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Young and children, Harold, Lester, Richard Stanley, Dorothy and Mary, of Opportunity, were Sunday dinner guests at the Ralph Young home.

The Ladies' Aid met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Dan Hansen, a large crowd attending. The ladies did some quilting. Mrs. Hansen, assisted by her daughters, Mabel and Mildred, served a delicious lunch.

Charlie Hoyer has been doing some plowing with his tractor for William Hull.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Young and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walters and baby, drove to Herbert Rouse's at Inman on Wednesday.

Mrs. Ralph Young and Miss Maude Rouse called on Mrs. Will Langon on Tuesday.

The Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening, led by Axel Borg, was a very interesting and instructive meeting. Beside the scripture reading a request program was planned which was also very good. There were songs by the male quartette and also by a double quartette. There were readings given by several and Mrs. A. L. Borg sang a solo, accompanied by a violin and guitar. Mr. and Mrs. Merriady Hubby sang a duet as did Mrs. A. L. Borg and Elmer Devall.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffith and Cecil called at the Gus Johnson home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and two small daughters, were guests at the Harry Fox home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rouse and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindberg and daughters, Ruth and Evelyn, called there in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Young were visitors at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Young, of Opportunity, on Friday. Miss Maude Rouse went with them to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Guy Young.

Dan Hansen had the misfortune to lose his best work horse Monday night. The horse took sick Monday afternoon and a veterinarian was called but owing to difficulty in getting him on the phone it was too late when he arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Puckett and daughters, Roxie and Betty, called at the Ralph Young home last Monday evening.

Raymond Johnson was an overnight guest of Cecil Griffith on Saturday.

The Dan Hansen family were guests at the Will Wells home at Red Bud on Sunday.

Harry Fox trucked hogs to O'Neill for Roy Spindler Tuesday.

Arthur Rouse drove to his brother Herbert's home at Inman Tuesday.

There will be a treasure hunt at the Ralph Young home on Friday evening, sponsored by the young peoples society.

INMAN NEWS

J. H. Butler, of Neligh, was here Sunday visiting at the A. N. Butler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Hopkins and children and Mr. and Mrs. Good, of Ewing, were Sunday dinner guests at the Ted Hopkins home.

Mrs. Stuart Hartigan and Mrs. E. L. Watson drove to Albion Saturday to visit relatives and to shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Christiansen, of Ewing, spent Sunday here with their daughter, Mrs. Delbert Sholes, and family.

The R. N. A. Lodge met at the T. D. Hutton home last Wednesday afternoon. A large group of members was present and a delicious lunch was served. Mrs. Melvin Smith and Miss Elsie Krueger assisted Mrs. Hutton as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Britell who have been here about a month visiting among relatives, returned to their home at Neligh Thursday.

Miss Willemeta Park, of Page, was visiting friends here Sunday.

Miss Elsa Lou Ohmart, of Emmet, visited at the Howard Bradley home here several days last week.

The first dinner of the season will be served by the Ladies' Aid at their parlors Thursday noon. Each fall the Aid has a series of dinners and this is the first one this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Anspach spent Sunday with their son, Hardin, and family at Page.

Friends here were shocked a grieved Monday to hear of the death of H. M. Uttley, of O'Neill. Mr. Uttley was an early resident of this locality, having lived on a farm four miles west of town. He had many friends here.

Mrs. Karl Keyes who has been ill for two weeks is some what improved at this time. Mrs. Keyes suffered a ruptured vein about two weeks ago.

Mrs. Walt Jacox left Saturday for a visit with relatives in Iowa. She will also visit her husband who is an inmate of the state hospital at Norfolk.

A birthday party was given in honor of Miss Murle Keyes at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Keyes Saturday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Keyes.

E. A. Stevens, who has been assisting in the care of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Stevens, who are ill at their home in Page, came home Monday. He reports that his parents are getting along fairly well.

PLEASANT DALE

Mr. and Mrs. William Ernst and daughter, Evelyn, visited at the Carl Lorenz home Sunday evening.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid of Emmet will have a food sale at the McGinnis store Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Alfred Bradley and baby daughter are spending this week visiting Mrs. Bradley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Ohmart.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rosler and Mrs. Mary Rosler called at Guy Beckwith's Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lorenz and son, Glen, visited at the Hoehe home on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Joe Pongraz and little son spent Monday at the Ed. Heeb home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kloppenberg and children visited at Joe Winkler's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Coleman and family, of Phoenix, and Fred Beckwith were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beckwith Sunday.

Miss Marie Rosler is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clarence Wayman this week.

The Heeb boys called on Guy Beckwith Sunday afternoon.

Max Wagon trucked a load of cattle to the sale in Atkinson Tuesday morning for Joe Pongraz.

Mrs. Henry Vquest was in the Stuart hospital several days last week. She came home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wayman and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beckwith and family spent Saturday evening at the William Schmohr home.

Mrs. Gus Seger and son, Darwin, attended the football game in Stuart Friday afternoon.

The first freeze of the season was Saturday night. One-fourth of an inch of ice was found in a trough early Sunday morning by one of the weather men of this vicinity.

Miss Viola Rosler is employed at the Otto Lorenz home this week.

OVER THE STATE

At Schuyler last Saturday the Wells-Abbott-Nieman mills, one of the largest milling plants in the state, burned with a loss estimated at between $400,000 and $500,000, with very little insurance.

The Nebraska Huskers were victorious in their first football game of the season, played at Lincoln last Saturday, when they trimmed the University of Texas 26 to 0.

George Hodge, Nebraska Federal re-employment director, declares that Nebraska will be one of the first, if not the first state in the union to recover from the depression. He made this statement the latter part of last week in Lincoln upon his return from attending a meeting of the re-employment directors of several state held at Indianapolis. He said: "This state stands a better chance than most eastern ones of getting its recovery program under way immediately. We have no labor unrest or complicated strikes in this region to hamper our efforts."

The Omaha Bar Association, at a meeting held last Friday went on record for the appointment of J. C. Pruor, Burlington, Iowa, attorney to succeed the late Judge W. S. Kenyon on the bench of the Eighth circuit court of appeals.

Former Governor Weaver, of Falls City, was elected president of the Native Sons and Daughters of Nebraska at a business session of the tenth annual meeting of the organization held at Lincoln last Friday. Mrs. Marie Weekes, of Norfolk, was elected first vice president.

Burglars cracked open two safes at Nebraska City one night last week and ransacked another office. One of the safes blown open was a block from the police station and the manager of the business establishment said that the loss would be considerable, but would make no estimate.

The town board of Cook, Nebr., will soon advertise for bids for the grading and graveling of twenty blocks of the city streets.

Lois Anderson, 10, was instantly killed at Pierce last Saturday afternoon when she was thrown from a bucking Shetland pony into the path of an automobile whose wheels crushed her skull. An inquest held soon afterward called the accident unavoidable. The automobile went into a ditch and broke off a lamp post in an attempt to avoid hitting another little girl who was also riding a pony.

The Creighton University football team and the Haskell Indians played to a scoreless tie, at their game in Omaha last Saturday night. Both teams made threat after threat to score, but when the goal line was in sight they were held for downs.

The World War veterans of the 355th regiment, 89th division, held their annual convention at Albion Monday. They selected Norfolk as their place of meeting for 1934. Fred Hansen, of Norfolk, was elected president of the organization for the ensuing year.

Mel Harder, star pitcher of the Cleveland Indians, lost a 5 to 0 decision in an eleven inning baseball game at Omaha last Sunday afternoon. He was hurling for the sand lot club from which he jumped to the majors, the Carter Lake Club. Snooker Drefs, southpaw of the St. Joseph club of the Western League, was on the mound for the winning team, the Hunts, of Omaha. Harder allowed six hits, four of them in the last inning, while Drefs allowed but one.

The city council of Sidney has placed the municipal employees on a five day week and raised pay where necessary under the blanket code.

Mrs. Mattie A. Bradley, 59, of Falls City, died at her home there last Sunday of sleeping sickness. She had been ill for more than two weeks. The death was the first in that section of the state from this disease.

Roy Wheeler, 12, and Darrel Owen, 11, were killed near Arnold, Nebr., last Sunday when the walls of a cave they were digging, collapsed, burying them alive. It is believed the boys had been digging out a den of coyotes at the time of the accident. The accident was not discovered for several hours after the walls of the cave had collapsed. Neighbor children made the discovery and called help. Both boys had been dead several hours when their bodies were taken from the pit.

Mrs. Elsie Gilbert, 48, strangled herself to death with binder twine tied to a bed post at the home of her brother-in-law near Winside. Mrs. Gilbert came to this country eight years ago. Her husband, a German soldier, was killed in the war.

Governor Murray, of Oklahoma, granted a requisition the first of the week for the return of Joe Harris, alleged bank robber, from Muskogee, Okla., to York, Nebr., to face trial for the robbery of the First National Bank of York a few weeks ago.

Professor Einstein now says that he was mistaken about pacifism and some other political questions. Which makes us wonder whether he could possibly be in error about the old fifth dimension.

H. M. UTTLEY DEAN OF HOLT COUNTY LAWYERS PASSES AWAY MONDAY (Continued from page 1.)

for years been a member. Burial in Prospect Hill cemetery. The funeral was largely attended many of the old time residents of the county attending the last rites for the departed pioneer.

WHEAT PRODUCTION AND ACREAGE STATEMENTS OF MEMBERS OF THE WHEAT PRODUCTION CONTROL ASSOCIATION OF BOYD-HOLT DISTRICT, STATE OF NEBRASKA

The following is a statement of the production and planted acreages of wheat farmers who have submitted applications for farm allotments. This publication is made in compliance with the regulations of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Any person may make a confidential report to the community or county allotment committee if he finds any statement here which he believes to be inaccurate. This report must be made before October 18.

(Signed) A. U. DIX, Chairman, County Allotment Committee.
JAMES D. BECK
EARL DAVIS

EWING COMMUNITY
Community Committee: N. C. Christiansen, Joe Mlnarik and H. M. Imsick

Name of Applicant	Section	Total Acres on Farm	1930 Wheat		1931 Wheat		1932 Wheat		3-Yr. Average (1930-32)		1933 Wheat Acres Sown
			Acres Sown	Bushels Grown	Acres Sown	Bushels Grown	Acres Sown	Bushels Grown	Acres Sown	Bushels Grown
J. L. Blair	13	200	20	135	20	152	20	132	20	139	20
Clem Bollen	13	80	None	None	8	92	15	100	8	57	22
N. C. Christiansen	21	240	None	None	18	None	20	76	13	25	20
Paul Funk	22	160	10	150	15	200	15	None	13	116	15
George Holloway	3	160	20	300	20	340	20	150	20	263	None
H. M. Imsick	13 & 4	480	25	50	50	290	63	400	46	247	63
Frank Mlnarik	22, 26 & 27	880	35	510	46	743	36	692	39	648	29
Joe Mlnarik	34 & 27	320	25	600	20	400	20	440	22	480	40
Frank Schmisser	35	160	40	320	40	560	30	660	37	513	24
John J. Funk	15	200	15	70	15	95	15	103	15	89	15

STUART COMMUNITY
Community Committee: James D. Beck, Mahlon Shearer, Lyle Radcliffe

Name of Applicant	Section	Total Acres on Farm	1930 Wheat		1931 Wheat		1932 Wheat		3-Yr. Average (1930-32)		1933 Wheat Acres Sown
			Acres Sown	Bushels Grown	Acres Sown	Bushels Grown	Acres Sown	Bushels Grown	Acres Sown	Bushels Grown
Alfon's Batenhorst	11 & 14	260	120	2880	120	3310	38	396	93	2195	38
James D. Beck	1 & 12	960	20	360	20	400	20	360	20	373	20
L. R. Cobb	8 & 35	640	205	3700	225	4200	108	2320	179	3407	145
E. J. Collins	1	800	None	None	None	None	50	300	17	100	50
Floyd Fuller	22	320	None	None	None	315	15	300	12	205	None
James Havranek	28	320	None	None	None	None	600	20	200	40
C. F. Jonas	10 & 35	245	None	None	16	224	10	100	9	108	None
Joe Kaup, Sr.	8	320	50	650	70	1050	45	900	55	867	60
Toney Lockman	5	160	160	4320	160	3360	160	2400	160	3360	160
Aaron Lofquest	3	320	None	None	20	None	20	143	13	48	20
Chas. M. Mulford	33	360	None	None	15	108	17	200	11	103	18
E. C. Ninas	18	160	25	325	60	600	50	1048	45	658	60
Alphonse Olberding	32	560	None	None	None	None	80	270	27	90	80
Lyle Radcliffe	22 & 27	320	12	104	40	806	85	2180	46	1030	70
Peter Ramold	27	320	16	416	16	416	16	368	16	400	16
Clyde Roberts	4 & 33	320	10	200	None	None	None	None	3	66	None
John Shald	10 & 11	320	50	None	40	760	50	1325	30	695	30
Mahlon Shearer	7	160	10	130	20	400	20	400	17	310	20

O'NEILL COMMUNITY
Community Committee: Jos. Schollmeyer, Harry Fox and Asa B. Hubbard

Name of Applicant	Section	Total Acres on Farm	1930 Wheat		1931 Wheat		1932 Wheat		3-Yr. Average (1930-32)		1933 Wheat Acres Sown
			Acres Sown	Bushels Grown	Acres Sown	Bushels Grown	Acres Sown	Bushels Grown	Acres Sown	Bushels Grown
David Bellar	29	320	None	None	20	None	20	50	13	17	10
Frank Burival	14	320	220	1600	220	2727	140	330	193	1552	140
G. A. Conard	36	680	20	None	20	160	20	483	20	214	20
Harry Fox	5 & 31	320	30	596	35	644	35	565	33	575	100
Preston Jones	34	420	30	360	30	360	30	450	30	390	25
Wm. G. Kraft	28	160	10	80	12	75	10	52	11	69	8
R. H. Lienhart	24	480	None	None	5	75	15	100	7	58	10
Guy Noble	5 & 8	320	None	None	10	180	15	300	8	160	20
John G. Oetter	21	640	10	150	15	375	5	100	10	208	16
E. J. Revell	32	1000	122	1607	219	1940	292	5226	211	2924	214
I. R. Ridgeway	7 & 14	320	15	None	15	90	20	204	17	98	30
Jos. Schollmeyer	5	720	20	100	25	None	30	None	25		