YOUNG MARRIED WOMAN IS DEAD FROM CLAMPSIA

Mrs. Myrtle Grieser Dies At O'Neill Hospital Tuesday, After An Illness Of Two Days.

Mrs. Myrtle Grieser died at the O'Neill hospital last Tuesday afternoon after an illness of but a few hours of Clamperia, at the age of 17 years. The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. at the Mennonite church, north of town, and burial in the Mennonite cemetery. Rev. Pete Oswald, Mennonite minister from Beemer, officiated.

Myrtle Beller was born on the old family farm north of this city and lived there until 1927 when the family moved to Beemer, Nebr. On March 24, 1934, she was united in marriage to Daniel Grieser, at Burke, S. D. They came back to Holt county last August and moved onto a farm four miles north of this city, where they resided at the time of her illness.

Mrs. Grieser was taken sick last Sunday night, with convulsions. Dr. Carter was called and she was brought in to the hospital Monday morning. Later in the afternoon convulsions were still born and the mother lived until the next afternoon when she passed away. She never regained consciousness after going into convulsions at her home, prior to her removal to the hospital.

Besides her husband, deceased leaves two brothers and one sister, and her aged grandmother, Mrs. Jake Erb, to mourn her death. Her brothers are, Manne Bellar, O'Neill; Manford, Beatrice, and her sister, Mrs. Ruby Nelson, of Lyons, Nebr.

A delegation of about 30 friends of the family, from Beemer, came up Thursday to attend the funeral.

Griswold Closes Active Campaign

Dwight Griswold, republican candidate for governor, has closed one of the most active campaigns ever staged by any candidate for this office. During the primary campaign and later in the fall campaign he visited nearly five hundred towns, making addresses and meeting the voters.

Coming as he does from the western part of the state, he has had an opportunity to bring to the people the viewpoint of the west. And since Nebraska is primarily an agricultural state, he has stated that he feels particularly competent to look after the varied interests of the state.

Mr. Griswold is editor of the Gordon Journal, a past president of the Nebraska Press Association, and served four terms in the state legislature. He is also a past department commander of the American Legion.

In closing his campaign, he has expressed the wish that every voter in the state would vote on November 6, for our government will be only what we want when all voters take part.

Meech-O'Donnell

Word comes to O'Neill relatives that Stuart Meech and Miss Maxine O'Donnell were married at Chicago last Saturday morning, and they will make their future home in that city.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Donnell of this city and is a native of O'Neill. For the past five years she has held a responsible position in the city by the lakes. Miss Maxine is a charming young lady and has a host of friends in this city and vicinity.

The groom is a Professor in the University of Chicago and is said to be one of the prominent educators of that institution, and is very highly spoken of by those who know him. He visited here about a year ago and those who met him while in the city found him to be a very agreeable young man.

The many friends of the bride wish for her and the man of her choice many years of wedded happiness and bliss.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

The first state teachers' examinations of the year will be held on Saturday, November 17, at Stuart, Atkinson, Ewing and O'Neill. Students taking this examination should buy their numbers before this time.

County Superintendent.

Foreman Olson of the Roberts Construction company, arrived in the city last Tuesday and workmen started on the new job of paving in this city this morning. The job is to be completed on or before the 15 of December.

ROOSEVELT SPENDING

Add together all wages paid in 1929, the greatest wage-paying year in history, by the 24 great industries of the United States—the steel, iron, foundry, machine, electrical, lumber paper, cotton goods, men's clothing, women's clothing, furniture, motor vehicle, boots, shoes, knit goods, meat packing, silk, rayon, tires, tubes, planing mill, printing, publishing, clay products, bread, bakery products, and petroleum refining industries—and the total will be $6,833,529,366. This includes only industries whose annual pay roll was in excess of $100,000,000.

During the fiscal year that ended June 30, 1934, the United States paid out a total of $7,105,050,084. That's spending.

Says Will Not Make Campaign Promises

"Some people tell me I might gain many votes by making a lot of nice sounding political promises," said Karl Stefan, candidate for congress, recently in addressing a group of friends, "but I feel that it is wrong to mislead people that way. For years I have listened to the promises of politicians but most of these were quickly forgotten by the candidate after he was elected. Years ago, my parents taught me that I must not make careless promises and I have always tried to live up to those teachings. So, in this campaign, I am only making the plain statements that I will study the needs of this district, talk with the people often, and then work conscientiously for those things which will help to bring us out of our present difficulties. I am not a very good politician, but if I am honored by election to congress, my sincere purpose will be to go on serving you the very best I can, just as I have tried to do in the past when we gathered around the mythical noonday table."

George Mellor was taken ill last Tuesday and on Wednesday morning he was taken to the hospital at Lynch for rest and observation. Word received from Lynch this morning was to the effect that he had put in a very good night and was resting easy. George's many friends in this city hope that he will soon regain his old time strength and vigor.

The Busy Hour Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Miller. All members were present this month and Irene Herzhiser joined as a member. The afternoon was spent in guessing riddles and quilting for Mrs. Miller. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Miller. The next meeting will be held November 22, at the home of Mrs. Maggie Gray.

Red Bird Ball Team

The Red Bird Ball Team had their final meeting for the 1934 season last week. During the past season Roy Karr was very liberal with the boys and did as much for the team as the average town. The team had a very successful season and there was a nice purse to be divided among the members.

On behalf of the ball club I wish to thank our many friends for attending the games and boosting for our boys. Personally I think the team was worthy of the support given them. During the season we played 30 games, winning 24 and losing 6, a very nice percentage. E. W. Richter, Manager.

BRIEFLY STATED

Miss Mary E. Carney and Mrs. G. C. Shaw were called to Collyer, Kansas, last week on receipt of a message announcing the death of their uncle at that place.

Judge and Mrs. R. R. Dickson went down to Omaha last Sunday morning to take in the Ak-Sar-Ben and the horse show, and to visit for a few days with relatives and friends. Judge Dickson returned home Wednesday evening, while Mrs. Dickson remained for a longer visit.

Oren Gibson, formerly of the south country, but later of Ainsworth, the first of the week purchased the Coffee shop in the bank building from Carson Maxwell. The cafe is closed temporarily while some needed alterations are being made, but Mr. Gibson expects to have it open for business within a few days.

The A. and R. service station are installing new Wayne electric pumps, one being installed this morning and the others are to be put in this afternoon. With these new pumps all the boys have to do is let the gasoline run into the tanks, while the pump registers the amount and figures the cost to the customer.

The new drug store had a splendid day last Saturday, their opening day. Mr. Beckman, the manager of the local store and the junior member of the firm of Andresen & Beckman, says that the opening day's business far exceeded their expectations and he is now more than ever convinced that O'Neill is one of the best towns in this section of the state.

George Mellor was taken ill last Tuesday and on Wednesday morning he was taken to the hospital at Lynch for rest and observation. Word received from Lynch this morning was to the effect that he had put in a very good night and was resting easy. George's many friends in this city hope that he will soon regain his old time strength and vigor.

The Busy Hour Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Miller. All members were present this month and Irene Herzhiser joined as a member. The afternoon was spent in guessing riddles and quilting for Mrs. Miller. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Miller. The next meeting will be held November 22, at the home of Mrs. Maggie Gray.

W. C. O'Sullivan, of Denver, Col., was in the city last Friday and Saturday visiting his brother, J. B. while on his way to Gregory, S. D., for a visit with his mother. Will was born and raised in this city where he resided until the world war and was one of the first that went from here and enlisted for service. After the war he made his home for several years in Spencer, then went east. For the past two years he has resided in Denver, where he has a prosperous and successful business.

H. W. Tomlinson, republican congressional chairman for this county, was in Norfolk last Tuesday attending a meeting of the congressional chairman from every county in the district. Henry says that all the members of the committee were very optimistic as to the result of the coming election in the Third district. They all spoke of the immense popularity of the republican candidate, Karl Stefan. They were unanimous in the belief that Karl would be the next congressman from this district.

Bertha Hooker has filed suit in the district court asking for a divorce from Sol Hooker and the custody of their son, Sol Hooker, Jr., aged 8. She alleges in her petition that they were married on October 27, 1920, in O'Neill and that they have been residents of Nebraska ever since. She is now a resident of Holt county, while the defendant resides in Knox. She alleges that he has been untrue to his marriage vows and that he is now living with another woman at their home in Knox county. She alleges that they have not cohabited as man and wife since August 13, 1934.

Buying Of Purebred Cattle Will Start Soon

Numerous inquiries have been made at the County Agent's office regarding the Purebred Cattle buying program. We are now informing that buying will start in Nebraska in a short time. The tentative plan is to buy in the panhandle first and work east. Since they will buy only a limited number those having purebred cattle to sell should get in touch with E. E. Stinson or W. R. Bolen. Address all communications to them in care of John Pohland, U. S. Indian Service, P. O. Box 3103, Central Station, Kansas City, Mo.

Anyone having opportunity to sell to other buyers are urged to do so, since it is doubtful if any large number will be purchased in Holt county.

Gertrude Mae Bedford

Gertrude Mae Bedford was born at Blackbird, Nebraska, October 2, 1889. Blackbird was her home during the early part of her life. She attended the O'Neill high school for a part of her training and finished the normal course at the Kearney State Normal. The early education gave her a good foundation for her later life work, which was in the field of dietetics. Her professional training was taken at the Dietetical School in the Battle Creek Sanitarium. She completed her post graduate work with the Mayos in Rochester, Minnesota. She served as dietitian in the New York hospitals until poor health forced her to give up this important work. Early in life Miss Bedford united with the Presbyterian church and has been a devoted and faithful member of this church.

Miss Bedford died October 27, 1934, at Pierre, South Dakota. The funeral service was held in the O'Neill Presbyterian church with the pastor, Rev. H. D. Johnson officiating. The interment was at the Pleasant Valley cemetery. Her father, mother and sister preceded her in death. She leaves four sisters to mourn her loss, Mrs. R. P. Campbell, of Wall S. D., Mrs. A. A. Kaczor, of Blackbird, Nebr., Mrs. Edward Larson, of Mead, Nebr., and Mrs. Claude Berry, of Kadoka, S. D.

The twenty minute programs are to be confined to "Art in America" from 1865 to 1934. Topics to be given relate to Architecture painting, the Modern Home and Photography.

Ernest Richter, one of the energetic and hustling farmers of the Dorsey county, was a pleasant caller at this office last Wednesday and extended his subscription to this household necessity. Ernie is an extensive farmer but he still takes a little time to devote to sports and the past year he was the manager of the Redbird baseball team, a team that made a splendid record during the season. He figures that during the coming season they will have even a better team than they had the past year, unless organized ball takes some of their star players, and if they do they will develop some more.

Dr. C. H. Lubker went down to Sioux City last Sunday morning and attended the state convention of the Iowa Chiropractors Association, held in that city last Monday. The doctor said they had a very large convention and that it was very interesting to the members of the profession.

Next Monday night the Tiger Club will entertain the local high school football team with a dinner. They are going to try and install some pep into the boys to get them primed for the balance of their schedule.

One of the outstanding attractions will be the Chadron Band of 30 pieces. This was formerly the High School band and was organized and instructed by Professor T. M. Durham, now music director of the O'Neill High School. This band is one of the noted musical attractions in the western part of the state and it contains members who give several specialties. Two Indian boys, brothers, are noted buck and wing dancers, and they will perform for the benefit of the audience.
