ARMISTICE DAY IS CELEBRATED BY A CROWD AT O'NEILL

O'Neill High School Gridders Beat Greeley 14-0 In Main Show On Afternoon Program.

A fair sized crowd was in the city last Monday to help the American Legion boys celebrate Armistice day and the celebration was a success in every particular.

The celebration started at 10:30 with a parade of the school children of the O'Neill Public school and St. Mary's Academy, led by the Osmond High School band of thirty pieces. They formed in front of the Public school and marched east to Sixth street, then west on Douglas street to Third Street, then back to Fourth street and back to the schools. The school children made a very pretty sight and their numbers surprising to more than one of the onlookers. There is no race suicide in this city.

That afternoon at 1:45 the band gave a concert on the street, at the intersection of Fourth and Douglas streets, which was listened to by a very large crowd. The little town of Osmond has reason to be proud of their band and we guess they are, as several of the residents of that city came along to take in the celebration. The band presented a very neat and attractive appearance in their white duck trousers and blue capes, and each individual member seemed to be the master of the particular instrument that he or she played.

The main attraction of the afternoon, was the football game between the O'Neill High school and the team from Sacred Heart Academy, Coach Stolte's boys romping over the Greeley aggregation in a manner far worse than indicated by the score of 14 to 0.

The green-jerseyed lads from Greeley were tall and lanky, and couldn't seem to muster the punch to make a dent in the O'Neill line. They were able to make only three first downs, two coming in the last chapter with forward passes.

O'Neill High was able to make first downs regularly, being aided by the center and a tackle from Greeley who were constantly off-side. O'Neill drew few penalties. O'Neill's first touchdown came early in the second quarter following a long march down the field, in which Medlin accounted for a lot of yardage. He ran right thru the Greeley bunch for yard after yard, but he was going by so fast they couldn't get a hold. The try for point failed, making the score 6 to 0.

During the same period Madison crossed the goal on an end run, but the referee said he went out of bounds and two more tries were necessary to make the needed foot. The try for point, attempted with a pass, failed, and the score was 12 to 0 at the end of the half.

In the third quarter Green pushed over right tackle for a touchdown, but O'Neill was off-side and the play was called back, Greeley taking the ball on downs.

In the final quarter, O'Neill scored two more when Greeley's punt from their own goal line was blocked, but they recovered behind the goal line for a safety.

O'Neill threatened to score again after several line plunges by Green brought the ball to Greeley's three yard line, but they were unable to push it over and Greeley took the ball on downs. The game ended with the ball in Greeley's possession in the middle of the field.

Government Will Buy More Holt County Cattle

Word has been received that there will be another government cattle sale at Atkinson Thursday, November 22. Anyone wishing to dispose of cattle at this sale should list them with their committeeman immediately. A definite quota is allowed which we will not be allowed to exceed.

Corn Loan Notes To Be Called At An Early Date

Recent information in regard to corn loans indicates all old notes will be called at an early date. Any one having sealed corn who desires to hold it until spring should either pay off this note before it is called or secure the new 55 cent loan.

The procedure to obtain the latter is practically the same as last year only now provision is made for the new note to be sent directly to the Commodity Credit Corporation where it will automatically take up the old note. All old note numbers must accompany the new one.

The 55 cent loan is made in order to enable farmers to hold corn until spring without forcing the farmer to pay interest and shrinkage out of his own pocket. All credit, after interest and other costs are paid, will be sent directly to the farmer upon completion of his papers.

Indications are that there will be a big demand for seed corn in the spring and all corn that is suitable for seed should be saved. Good seed corn will undoubtedly sell above one dollar per bushel.

George Harrington Goes To Washington To Take Over His New Position

George Harrington left last Friday night for Washington, D. C., where he enters upon his duties as one of the attorneys for the Federal Communications Commission, to which position he had been appointed several weeks ago. George has many friends in this, his native city, who hope that he will gain both fame and wealth in the capital city. Raymond McNamara, of Hartington, takes over George's practice here. Mr. McNamara is a graduate of Creighton University and has been practicing at Hartington. He was a candidate in the democratic primaries for attorney general and made a splendid showing, losing the nomination to W. H. Wright who was elected last Tuesday.

They were wed October 30 by County Judge Stinson, with Mr. and Mrs. Andersen, of Bloomfield, as witnesses, after being issued a license the same day. Issued a wedding license November 1, were Casper J. Huennekens and Margaret S. Keuhler, both of Crofton.—Creighton News.

NEW CONTRACTS ON CORN-HOG PROGRAM WILL BE SIMPLIFIED

Program Will Deal With Corn And Hogs Only; Committee Set-up Will Be Same As 1934.

According to the first draft of the 1935 program, it will deal with corn and hogs only and be much more simple than the 1934 contract. Contract signers will elect their community committeemen and directors of their corn-hog association as they have in 1934. An allotment committee will again have charge of the program in each county. The 1932-33 base established in 1934 contract, with some possibility for readjustment in a few cases, will be used next year.

Returning to Lincoln last week, W. H. Brokaw, state corn-hog administrator, said the proposed corn-hog contract for 1935 had been tentatively drawn up by the committee of farmers and administrative officials and submitted to the legal advisors of the Comptroller of the Currency for their careful scrutiny. The Comptroller pays the committee of farmers and administrative officials and submitted to the legal advisors of the Comptroller of the Currency for their careful scrutiny. The Comptroller pays the benefit payments and is therefore interested in the legal aspects of the contract.

Just when the proposals for next year would be offered to farmers of the middlewest for their acceptance or rejection Brokaw was unable to say. Officials in the corn-hog section are anxious to get started on the program so farmers can see the contract before they start many plans for 1935 corn and hog production. The 1934 contract closes on December 1st.

Fred Wallace, of Gibbon, who represented Nebraska producers on the national committee preparing the contract, made a real hit with Washington corn-hog officials, Brokaw declared. With the help of Mr. Hodgson, farmer representative of Kansas, Wallace was able to clearly state the particular problems of the corn and hog producer in the states on the western border of the corn belt.

Plan Work Here On Rural Rehabilitation

The FERA County Committee, J. A. Mann, Chairman, George A. Miles, Secretary, D. A. Criss, John Sullivan, Dr. W. H. Briggs, and Mrs. Doretha Montgomery, Relief Director, met with J. M. Anderson, District Representative on Rural Rehabilitation, at the Golden Hotel Tuesday evening.

The Committee was called together for the purpose of explaining the Rural Rehabilitation set-up as it now is. A concentrated drive will be made between now and next spring to remove rural families and families with agricultural background from the relief rolls thru the medium of rural rehabilitation.

In deciding on a definite program for the county which involves considerable work, it was necessary to enlarge this committee by the addition of two persons well acquainted with the rural population and with rural problems, giving their time to develop a program of rehabilitation for Holt county.

Families who are eligible for rehabilitation must be on the relief roll and must be a farmer with agricultural background. It is the duty of this committee to select and classify those families eligible for rehabilitation, survey the opportunities for rehabilitation within the county, and determine the amount of expenditure necessary to rehabilitate each case.

The methods used in each case will depend upon the ability and probability of the client being able to repay the corporation for any advances made. Some cases will be assisted in the leasing of land and obtaining the necessary equipment for handling same. Some other cases can best be helped by securing for them a tenant house, including garden and pasture space which can be obtained on a rental basis. These cases can be provided with a cow, chickens and garden seed, whereby they will be able to produce the major part of their living requirements.

Applications for rural rehabilitation can be had at the office of the county relief director, Mrs. Doretha Montgomery, O'Neill, Nebr.

Injured When Car Forced Into Ditch

Last Saturday afternoon while Mr. and Mrs. P. J. O'Donnell were coming from Randolph to this city their car was crowded over to the side of the road, when a few miles from Osmond, and went into the ditch, turning over. Mrs. O'Donnell was cut on the face and chin and two teeth were knocked out, and she suffered severely from shock. P. J. was injured in the chest, where he collided with the steering gear, but not seriously. They were taken back to Randolph after the accident. The car was not severely damaged. Their many O'Neill friends rejoice with them that they were fortunate in escaping without serious injury.

NAME TEMPORARY OFFICERS FOR SLAE PAVILLION GROUP AT MEETING HELD TUESDAY

It now seems that the proposed sales pavillion is definitely assured for O'Neill.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held last Tuesday night and the committee which had been active in promoting the pavillion, reports that they have secured nearly enough subscriptions to raise the amount necessary to build the pavillion.

Temporary officers were selected at this meeting as follows: Paul Schwisow, president; Ed. F. Quinn, secretary-treasurer; Dr. L. A. Carter, P. F. Morgan and H. E. Coyne, members of the board of directors, and J. D. Cronin, attorney for the proposed corporation.

Articles of incorporation and constitution and by laws are now being drawn up. A meeting to complete the organization and elect permanent officers will be held in the near future.

The Frontier has been of the opinion for a number of years that a sales pavillion would be of inestimable benefit to the people of, not only this city, but the adjoining territory and we are glad to see that the chances for it are now very bright. The promoters are of the opinion that it will be completed and ready for business by March 1, 1935.

Another Seed Survey Will Be Conducted

Information from the State Seed Stocks Committee received at County Agent Reece's office indicates it will be necessary to conduct a new seed survey in the near future. The information asked for will have no connection with any of the adjustment programs. Survey cards will be sent to all farmers in Holt county. In order that the results of this survey will benefit all farmers it will be necessary to fill the cards out promptly and carefully.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gatz entertained the Gatz family at a family reunion at their home last Sunday. A tempting dinner was served to celebrate the event and all members of their family were present, except Mr. and Mrs. John Vincent, Mrs. Vincent being ill and unable to be present. Needless to say they all had a good time.

Jack Arbuthnot, Clarence Stanard, Alva Winchell and Louis Zastrow drove down to Lincoln last Saturday morning to take in the Nebraska-Pittsburg hall game, returning home Sunday afternoon.

MAIL VOTE MAKES NO CHANGE IN THE ELECTION RESULTS

Mike Enright Elected City Assessor And H. W. Tomlinson Wins For Justice Of Peace.

It was the intention of The Frontier staff to print the official tabulation of the votes of Holt county, at the last election, this week, but the canvassing board has not as yet completed their labors, so it was impossible to get it, but it will be published next week.

The official canvass of the mail vote was completed Saturday. For county attorney Julius D. Cronin received a majority of eight in the mail votes. The canvass of the vote on that office was completed and totaled this morning. The official canvass gives Harmon 3657 and Cronin 3760, or a majority of 103.

For supervisor in the First district Joe Stein received 15 mail votes, Troshynski 3 and Vequist 2. This gives Stein a majority in the district of 22 votes.

For state representative Charles Gonderinger received 51 mail votes and L. G. Gillespie 42, leaving Gillespie a majority in the county of 106.

The vote this fall was the heaviest ever cast in the county 7750 voters going to the polls and casting their ballots. At the presidential election two years ago there was cast 7285 votes, so for an off year, the voters of the county went to the polls in good-sized numbers, although far from 100 per cent.

In O'Neill and Grattan township there were some interesting contests. For justice of the peace Thomas Griffin, democrat, defeated Fred Lorenz, republican, by one vote. The totals were, Griffin 639, Lorenz 638.

For city assessor Mike Enright defeated Pete Curtis with a vote of 442 to 407.

In the race for justice of the peace for the city H. W. Tomlinson, republican, defeated J. L. Quig, democrat, with a vote of 363 for Quig to 601 for Tomlinson.

Funeral Services Held For Pioneer Cattle Man

On Friday last, at 10:30 A. M. at the ranch home four miles southwest of Amelia, the funeral of Will Riley was held. We say Will Riley instead of employing his full Christian name because all in the neighborhood of the Riley ranch knew him by that name—a name that stood for absolute integrity, sterling manhood and a long and useful and upright life.

A short and simple service was held at the house before taking the remains to Albion for interment. Rev. Mr. Lindsey, of Amelia, offered prayer and a choir composed of Mrs. Sageser, Mrs. Swingle, Mr. Wedmar and Mr. White, with Mrs. Ed. White at the piano, rendered "Nearer My God to Thee." Mr. Lindsey made a brief but appropriate address with the pastoral Psalm as a background. The choir sang "Abide With Me," and the service closed with a short prayer by the minister.

The casket, banked with beautiful floral tributes, had been placed in a corner of the spacious parlor. All were privileged to view the remains. Neighbors, friends and citizens generally of this large community of southern Holt had come from far and near to show their respect to the memory of the dead. Mrs. Lawson, a sister of Mrs. Riley, Mrs. Greenwood, of Albion, and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bond, of Long Prairie were those from out of the county in attendance at the funeral.

The following close neighbors of deceased acted as pall-bearer: William Carpenter, Fred Watson, E. White, R. Saunders, Elmer Coolidge and H. Ferrier from Chambers. Herse and Son, morticians of Albion, were in charge and at a few minutes past 11, start was made for that city, arriving there at 1:30. Many friends of the city and community attended a service that was held at 3 o'clock.

Will was the last of three brothers who fifty years ago, at a time when there was little else but half-wild and scrubby cattle in this section of Nebraska, launched the purebred cattle business in this and mand all over the country ai-cm Boone counties. Until some ten or twelve years ago he looked after the Boone county interests with his home at Albion. Thru the years their Shorthorns have been in demand all over the country, and the firm attained a wide acquaintance.

At the time of his death Mr. Riley was 73. For the past year he had been nearly helpless and his devoted wife gave him almost constant care. Mrs. Riley, with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Baker, will continue the business, Mr. Baker having been in active charge for some time past.

BIDS BEING ASKED ON LAND SITE FOR FEDERAL BUILDING

Asking For A Location With 85 Feet Of Frontage, And 145 Deep On Street Or Alley.

The government is asking for bids on or donations of land that would make a suitable site for a federal building for this city. The bids are to be presented to Postmaster Sullivan and they are to be opened at 9 a. m. on November 26, in the postoffice in this city.

They are asking for 85 foot frontage by 145 feet in depth, where the ground is on a corner or alley. In case the land is in the center of the block they will want 110 feet and 145 feet in depth.

If the business men of the city want to see the building stay within the business section they will have to get busy and present a suitable location at a very moderate price, or the building is liable to be a couple of blocks or more from the business center of town.

Receive Wheat Payments

Holt county wheat cooperators have received $2,241.54 as the second installment for 1933 and the first installment of the 1934 payment. Wheat growers getting these checks are probably half thru with their benefit payments for a cooperative program which is practically completed.

All contract signers who comply with their contracts thru the harvest of 1935 will get the second installment of 1934 payment, and then probably get a 1935 benefit payment after that time. It is very likely that contract signers will get three years payments in six installments for two years reduction in their wheat acreage.

The uncertainty of the 1935 payment is due only to the possibility that the open market price for wheat might rise to parity levels and stay there thruout the coming year. At the present time wheat is several cents below parity price. Should the open market price of wheat reach parity, the goal of the wheat program will have been accomplished and the farmers will get a higher price for all their wheat. If wheat prices remain below parity, the benefit payments on 54 per cent of the crop will tend to bring the total receipts for wheat sold up toward parity levels. It may seem strange but the lower the 1935 benefit payment the better off the wheat growers will be who have wheat to sell at the higher market price.

Nebraska winter wheat growers who have followed their contracts in seeding their wheat this fall have completed their part of the agreement they signed in the wheat contract. A check of compliance next spring and the signing of a statement of compliance will complete the two year contract.

L. C. McKIM, FORMER SUPERVISOR, DEAD OF A HEART ATTACK

Succumb To Attack In Yard Of His Farm Northeast Of Here Monday Afternoon.

Libson C. McKim dropped dead in his farm yard northeast of this city about 5 o'clock last Monday evening, from a heart attack. The funeral was held at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday afternoon in the Presbyterian church, Rev. H. D. Johnson officiating, and burial in the cemetery at Clearwater, Nebr., the old family home.

L. C. McKim was born at Fall River, Wis., on February 12, 1869, and was 65 years and 9 months old at the time of his death. The family came west when he was a young man and on January 15, 1896, he was united in marriage to Miss Lizzie Anderson at Neligh, Nebr. To this union seven children were born, five sons and two daughters. The children are: Verl, of Chadron; Lyle C., of Opportunity; George, of Albuquerque, N. M.; Anna Belle Shoemaker, O'Neill; Clinton, O'Neill; Mrs. Opal Englehart, of Chambers, and Orville, of Opportunity, all of whom were present at the funeral, except George, and who, with the wife are left to mourn the death of a kind, indulgent and loving husband and father.

The family moved to this county in the spring of 1905 and have been residents of this county ever since, living northeast of Opportunity.

Mr. McKim was a good citizen and always took an active part in the civic affairs of his precinct and the county at large, and served three terms as a member of the Board of Supervisors from district No. 2, losing the nomination two years ago to John Carson.

He was familiarly called "Posey," and had a host of friends over the county. He had always enjoyed good health, but the past few months had not been feeling well, and on Monday complained a little, but it was not thought to be anything serious. His passing was sudden and a severe shock to his family and numerous friends.

Order was a member of the Masonic order of this city and the funeral services at the grave at Clearwater will be in charge of the Masons.

Voters Establish Farm Bureaus In 2 Counties

County farm bureaus were established in Phelps and Red Willow counties and continued in Valley county, by voters at the recent election. Voters turned down the proposal to re-establish the farm bureau in Webster county and also in Gage county.

Phelps and Red Willow counties voted about 300 and 250 in favor of the use of county funds for farm bureau support. Valley county favored the question by 36 votes. Webster county lost by a vote of three to two, and Gage county lost by 200 votes.

Under the state law, a county farm bureau is a group of farm people with elected officers who wish to cooperate with the agricultural college extension service and United States department of agriculture on an educational program including 4-H clubs, women's project clubs, and farm projects of interest and benefit to farm people. When the majority of voters in the county favor it, a limited amount of county funds can be used locally to support the educational program. When the farm bureau is established in a county, state and federal funds are available to help finance the program.

During the past two years, agricultural agents connected with farm bureaus and the extension service have been extremely busy with agricultural adjustment meetings and contracts, drouth relief, cattle buying, and many other emergency activities. Offices of the agents have become about the busiest places in the counties.

The Misses Barbara Kinsler and Mary Ingz Schaal, of Omaha, came up last Monday evening and are the guests of Miss Mildred Agnes for the week.

Rebekah Kensington is entertaining at cards and lunch Friday evening, November 16. All Rebekahs and Odd Fellows are invited.
