In the latter city his father-in-law, Judge Dickinson was taken seriously ill and Mr. Weekes put in considerable time with him. He says that on account of his advanced age, past 80, that the condition of the Judge is serious.

He sustained a severe cut in the back of the head, which was sewed up by Dr. Brown and bruises on the side, back and shoulders. He was placed on the passenger train last night and taken to his home at Norfolk.

JOHN GEORGE OETTER
Chambers Sun: Family, friends and neighbors were equally shocked at the sudden passing of John Oetter, jr., early last Thursday morning.

Mr. Oetter was scarcely ill 24 hours and the cause of his illness is not known; however they suppose a gall stone lodged in a blood vessel bursting the vessel. He suffered terribly until very shortly before passing away, when he told his wife that he was easy now, and was gone.

John George Oetter was born October 21, 1883, at Bliss, Holt county on the farm where his entire life has been spent and from where he was called in death, early Thursday morning, October 8, 1934, at the age of 51 years and 18 days.

The deceased was baptized and confirmed on November 24, 1907, in the Conley Lutheran church of which he was a life long member. In June of 1909 he was married to Miss Sophia Sprandel, who passed away in May, 1910, in less than one year.

Seven years later on July 11, 1917 he took to wife Miss Elsie Jordan. Four children were born to this union: Benjamin, Laura, George and Kenneth, all at home.

Besides his widow and four children, he leaves to mourn his demise, his aged father, John Oetter, of Bliss; two brothers, Michael, of Bliss; Fred, of Neligh; two sisters, Mrs. Kasper Hoerle, of Bliss; Mrs. J. H. Simpson, of Norfolk and many other relatives and friends.

After prayer and scripture reading at the house, funeral services were conducted from the Conley Lutheran church, at 2 p. m., Monday afternoon, Rev. Robert Frick officiating. Music was furnished by the Chambers double quartette, Johnny Brown, Joe Serk, Ella Jutte, Thekla Dankert, J. W. and Lyle Walter, Marie Zuehle and Wanda Lenz, Mrs. J. W. Walter, organist. They sang two beautiful hymns, "In the Hour of Trial," and "Abide With Me." Pall bearers were, Al Liedke, Arnold Zuehike, Jake Harley, Pete Martensen, Henry Haake and Ernest Lenz.

An immense crowd was out to pay their respects, among whom those from a distance were, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oetter and family of Neligh; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Simpson; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simpson, of Norfolk; R. V. and Mrs. Schleefer and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Simpson, Battle Creek; Messrs Riemus and Riemus, A. H. Grosse, Cedar Bluffs; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schlect, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Schlect, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harley, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haake, Saunders county; Rev. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roth and Mrs. Adam Roth, all of Clearwater.

The Sun and community extend to the faithful companion, family and all bereaved, our heartfelt sympathy.

Adoption of the three constitutional amendments, the one-house legislature, Pari-mutuel betting at horse races, and repeal of state constitutional prohibition, was one of the major surprises of the election.

In connection with the Norris uni-cameral legislature system, it will be necessary for the next legislature to fix the number of members of the uni-cameral diet (not fewer than 30 nor more than 50), and divide the state into as many new legislative districts as there are chosen members, on a population basis as nearly as practicable. State Representative W. H. Diers, democratic member re-elected from York county, has proposed a bill to be offered in the legislature whereby the present senate with 33 members be retained for the one-house plan. He would leave the senate districts as they now stand, and his suggestion would not make it necessary to change the electrical voting system installed at considerable expense at the last session.

Altho repeal of constitutional prohibition carried by more than a 100,000 majority, the state will remain dry by statutory enactment until the next legislature convenes and passes measures to legalize and regulate liquor traffic. One of two systems will be adopted in all probability—sale by private dealers paying special taxes for the privilege, or with the state as the vendor, conducting the business thru its own warehouses and selling depots and retaining the profits to apply on the general costs of government.
