

King's Jubilee Draws Crowds to Windsor Castle

CELEBRATION of King George's silver jubilee attracts thousands to Windsor castle, most historic of the royal residences. A striking new aerial photograph of the castle and town is given herewith.

BEDTIME STORY
By THORNTON W. BURGESS

DANNY SHAKES MORE THAN EVER

DANNY MEADOW MOUSE was trapped. He was trapped, but not caught, which sounds rather mixed and isn't at all. You see he was trapped because Billy Mink was waiting for him just outside the only doorway to that hollow log in which he was hiding. But he wasn't caught, because that doorway was too small for Billy Mink to get through and Billy couldn't reach him despite all his efforts.

"You'll Have to Come Out Some Time and I'm Going to Stay Right Here and Wait for You," Declared Billy Mink.

"You'll have to come out some time and I'm going to stay right here and wait for you," declared Billy Mink. "You may just as well come out now as to keep me waiting, because you are going to be caught anyway and I am going to catch you."

Danny didn't say a word. He held his tongue, which was the wisest thing he could do. It usually is wise to hold one's tongue. But I suspect that it was fear more than wisdom which caused Danny to hold his tongue. You see, poor Danny was shaking all over with fear. He knew that for the time being he was safe, but he also felt sure that if Billy Mink kept his word and watched just outside that doorway he would either starve to death inside that hollow log or furnish Billy Mink a good meal.

Danny couldn't decide which end would be the worst and the more he thought it over the more he shivered and shook. Either end was dreadful. The fact is Danny Meadow Mouse was so badly frightened that he wasn't using his usually lively wits at all. It never once entered his head that if Billy Mink waited long enough for him to starve, Billy would himself be likely to starve, and that is something Billy would be the very last person in the Great World to do. Billy is altogether too active to be patient.

But Danny was too frightened to think of this and so he crouched shivering and shaking, as miserable a little Meadow Mouse as ever lived. "I ought to have remembered Billy Mink's wonderful nose and that if he once found my trail he would follow me straight here," thought Danny. "I ought to have waded in the water after crossing the Laughing Brook, and so broken my trail. I ought to have found a hiding place with more than one entrance. I ought—but what's the use of thinking the things I ought to have done and didn't do? There isn't any. There isn't any at all."

That was quite true. When it is too late there seldom is any use in thinking of what should or should not have been done. But because there seemed to him nothing else to think about, Danny Meadow Mouse continued to think about his mistakes and to shake with fear. And outside Billy Mink grinned and licked his lips and tried to think of some way to make Danny Meadow Mouse come out of that hollow log.

MOTHER'S COOK BOOK

KITCHEN SHORT CUTS

THERE are so many culinary operations needlessly repeated day after day in numberless homes, making gravies, mixing pastry for pies, cheese sticks and tarts, all at different times, when one process would make all three.

One of the daily tasks in most homes of the dinner hour is the making of gravies. The French word roux covers the base or thickening of gravies. There is white roux and brown which is simply white flour browned.

For the white roux melt one-half cup of shortening in a heavy frying pan, add three-fourths of a cup of flour and cook slowly, stirring constantly until it is thoroughly blended and well cooked. Remove from the fire and store in a cool place until needed. For thickening soups, white sauce, creamed chicken or vegetables, use one to two tablespoons of the roux to each cup of liquid, according to the thickness desired.

To make brown roux, use the same proportions of fat and flour, but stir and cook until thick, smooth and brown, using care not to scorch. This, too, may be stored and used as thickening for meat gravies, mushroom sauce, stews and highly seasoned dishes.

A hurriedly made sauce or gravy is apt to be served undercooked. By preparing the roux beforehand and keeping a surplus on hand, time is saved.

A french dressing much liked and one which will keep two weeks in the ice chest is prepared as follows: Chop one small southern onion, two tablespoons each of red and green pepper, one tablespoon each of celery and parsley, a teaspoon of sugar and salt and cayenne to taste, with the vinegar and oil in proportion of one to three or four. Add two tablespoons of the piquant french dressing to the mayonnaise when serving. Hard-cooked eggs may be added, but should not be put into the dressing until ready to use.

Necking in the Zoo

Spring days brought out some real "necking" in the Berlin zoo when Mr. and Mrs. Giraffe gave a demonstration of their affection.

Canadian Naturalization Law
The Canadian naturalization law, so far as it applies to Americans, is not much different from ours. A person of American birth may petition for Canadian citizenship on proof of five years' legal residence in the Dominion. No previous declaration of intention—or "first papers"—is necessary.

QUESTION BOX
by ED WYNN, The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:
I am a woman thirty-four years of age and weigh 196 pounds. I want to reduce, so I went to a doctor who told me to take 20 rolls after breakfast. I started in today, but after I ate 12 rolls I felt uncomfortable. Can you suggest some other recipe?
Yours sincerely,
LMA SITE.

Answer: Try twenty turn-overs.

Dear Mr. Wynn:
I don't know what to do, so am asking you to help me. I hate to see my husband intoxicated. I sit up for him every night, and he always comes home drunk. Gee, how I hate to see him when he comes home! What can I do?

Sincerely,
POLLY ANNAH.

Answer: Don't sit up for him any more.

Dear Mr. Wynn:
There is a very rich man in our town who goes horseback riding every day, but he only wears one spur and wears that always on the right which is on his right foot. Can you tell me why he only wears one spur and that one always on the right foot?
Yours truly,
E. QUINE.

Answer: He probably is an efficiency expert and figures if he can get the right side of the horse to start the left side will start, too.

In Black and White

Black and white fallie taffeta is made into a charming young frock by Vionnet. The belt and the cape, which ties Ascot, with a high standing collar, are emerald green velvet.

Dear Mr. Wynn:
My grandfather is an old sea captain and he tells me all sorts of tales about the ocean, but whenever he mentions the ocean he calls it the "angry ocean." Why does he call it the angry ocean?
Yours truly,
ANN GLOE SAXON.

Answer: He thinks the ocean is angry because it has been crossed so often.

LOVE'S LAMPS

By ANNE CAMPBELL

MY LOVE that burned with just a single flame,
A chaste white taper lit for you alone,
In twenty years has spread itself to claim
A dozen conflagrations for its own.
It warms itself upon our children's lips,
And sends up signal fires our friends may see.
They come to us with glowing finger-tips,
Warned 'neath the roof that shelters you and me.

Sometimes I think of those dear selfish days
When you were all my world, my own blue sky;
But now our children bless me with your gaze;
A dozen lovely lamps are flaring high.
But like the constant star above the hill,
My love for you is burning brightly still.

Ohio State Nearly Square
With a land surface of 40,740 square miles, the state of Ohio is nearly square; the longest east-and-west line that can be drawn within its limits is 210 miles, while the longest north-and-south line is 225 miles—only a difference of 15 miles.

Do You Know—

That the umbrella was described in the early dictionaries as "a portable penthouse to carry in a person's hand to screen them from violent rain or heat." In the Middle ages it was considered a mark of rank and honor much used in ceremonial processions. First used in the United States in Baltimore in 1772.

They Hitch Hiked 1,350 Miles

HERE are Willie Donnelly, sixty-nine years old, and his wife, sixty-seven, who hitch hiked their way from St. Louis, Mo., to Lynn, Mass., a distance of 1,350 miles. They were journeying to their old home town, York, Maine, where Willie had the promise of a painter's job.

BRISBANE THIS WEEK

Pass the Patman Bill
They Love King George
Parachutes?
Puzzle for Solomon

The senate votes, 55 to 33, to pay the veterans their bonus in cash.

That vote, not being a two-thirds vote, would not overrule the Presidential veto, which is expected.

The Patman bill, wisely approved, gives the veterans their money to spend in their way for things they want. Under that bill veterans are to be paid with new money. That money as soon as received would all vanish, in purchases in every corner of the United States.

New United States money is exactly as good as new bonds, since paper dollars and paper bonds get all their value from the name of the government printed on them. There are no longer any gold payments promised or implied. If government money is not good, government bonds are not good.

President Roosevelt, congratulating King George, says: "It is gratifying to contemplate the wise and steadfast influence which your majesty has exerted for a quarter of a century." That was about all that the President, with the best of intentions, could say, for the British ruler's popularity is based on sticking to his job, which is, letting his people alone, while they attend to their business in their own way.

The king seems to think that those who have built the greatness of the British empire to its present height may be trusted to continue building it.

Some "best minds" here feel that any success or progress in the United States has been more or less of an accident, under bad management, and needs to start again on a new plan.

Time will tell whether a government policy of "let them alone" or "teal them how" is better.

Five killed, eight injured, in an airplane crash. The dead include Senator Cutting of New Mexico, who will be deeply regretted by his state and by the senate.

Flying in fog, fuel gave out. The last radio message was: "Fuel's getting low. We can't find a break in the fog. It looks like a forced landing."

Both pilots were killed; they did their best.

An occasional disaster will not discourage flying, but this particular accident raises again the question, should not airplane builders concentrate on parachute protection for passengers?

King Solomon never solved any such problem as this: A New York manufacturer wished to advertise "invisible panties," in usual words—small trousers worn by modern women. NRA rules say that if the article advertised is not invisible, the advertising is "false and misleading and violates the code." If those panties are invisible, NRA cannot pass on them, and their manufacturer must not attempt to display them on models, for evident reasons dealing with morality.

Eight million young women in Germany are unmarried. The government invites 333,000 of them to marry "healthy, virile, hereditary farmers."

To lead the unmarried German girl to the "virile, hereditary farmer" may be easier than making her marry him.

A labor law compels women under twenty-five years of age to serve one year on farms before they can take other jobs.

Once you begin to tell human beings how they must live, life becomes complicated.

Pope Pius, addressing 130 German pilgrims, spoke plainly about Germany's present Hitler government:

"They wish in the name of so-called positive Christianity to dechristianize Germany, and they wish to conduct the country back to barbaric paganism, and nothing is left undone to disturb Christian and Catholic life."

The pope's words referred to the unpleasant welcome home of 2,000 young German pilgrims that went to Rome to receive the papal blessing.

Harry L. Hopkins, federal emergency relief administrator, uses language as plain as that of Mussolini or Stalin. He finds that we have in America a class of "oppressors," rich men, and promises that that small, oppressive, business minority "who extol poverty and profits in the same breath" shall be made outcasts in the "new order" that is coming.
