

Over the County

SOUTHWEST BREEZES

By Romaine Saunders
Howard Berry made a trip to Amelia Monday with a team and wagon, breaking a track thru that filled from another downfall of snow that night.

Alfred James, of Atkinson, is helping at the ranch out here during these frost-bitten January days. His father is confined to the house much of the time.

To an old timer in Holt county, not to the Italians, belongs the distinction of the original black shirt. Our old friend Senator John Robertson was wearing them long before Mussolini was ever heard from.

Senator Burke, one of the few with the courage to oppose the bonus, denounces it as an outrage. He entertains the notion, lurking in the minds of millions, that those clamoring loudest for the bonus are least in need of it.

Some are extracting the promise of a fruitful season from the snow and cold. From observation and experience of some few seasons in Nebraska, July rather than January weather determines what the autumn ingathering shall be.

With the activities of an anti-Roosevelt democratic organization to contend with and a 400 thousand dollar deficit to wipe out with the Jackson Day banquet profits of 250 thousand, the democratic national committee has troubles of its own.

John Hazelbaker and son, Art, were "stalled" on their way home from Atkinson, within a few miles of home, previous to the heavy snow of Thursday. Borrowing a scoop and jack at the nearest human habitation they extricated the car so as to proceed homeward in the gathering darkness.

When a supreme court decision is made not to their liking, resentment is expressed at "a few old men telling us what to do." There are gray-tached men of nearly four score years—Glass, McAdoo, Borah, Norris and many others—making our laws in congress to which the same objection might apply but seems to be overlooked by the court critics.

The southwest's mail service has been demoralized. Ed Turner made his last trip Friday down the regular route. Since then he has been going the highway and getting mail or sending out letters in a sort of "catch-as-catch-can." If the Breezes arrive it will not be via regular route. Sentiment has been transferred from Whittier's beautiful "Snowbound" to Longfellow's "Oh, the long and dreary winter! Oh, the cold and cruel winter."

Thirteen citizens of Swan worked their winding ways thru the snow across meadows and pastures to the Kennedy school house to attend the annual township meeting. Clerk Victor Howth presided and within a few minutes all business was disposed of. Treasurer Howard Berry's report, approved by vote, showed a cash balance on hand of $257.52. Art Doolittle, road overseer in district 53 and Ray Warden in district 69 were re-elected. But one voter from the third road district was present so no vote could be taken for an overseer in that district. A levy of 3 mills for all purposes was voted.

EMMET ITEMS

Anna May Dill returned home Friday night from Tilden where she has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vogel. She was accompanied by Miss Helen Vogel who returned home Saturday night.

Helen Peterson, of Atkinson, spent the week-end at the John Bonnenberger home.

Charley and Melvin Luben, of Clearwater, Nebr., were visitors at the Nora Luben home Monday.

Miss Maxine McConnell is boarding at the Daro home while teaching school because of the condition of the roads.

Sam Banks is employed at the home of Jack Riley this week because of the illness of Mr. Riley.

Mrs. John Abart, of Basset, is visiting here with her mother, Mrs. Lawrence, who is quite ill.

Francis Schula visited in Omaha and Wisner last week with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Anna O'Donnell, Sr., has been quite ill but has improved some at this writing.

Donald Roth has been very ill this week but is somewhat better.

Guy Cole lost four steers last week, by downing in the lake.

INMAN NEWS

Mrs. R. M. Conard has been quite ill the past several days. Her daughter, Mrs. Emory Peterson, of O'Neill, has been here caring for her during her illness.

The local high school cagers added another victory to their list when they laid the team from St. Joseph's Hall low last Friday. The final chalk up was 31 to 15. The Inman second team also won their game, the score being 23-9.

Miss Emma Swanson, of O'Neill, has been here for several days assisting in the care of her aunt, Mrs. R. M. Conard.

Walter Fick, Inman light heavy-weight fighter, won his bout at Norfolk Wednesday night and will go to Omaha in the near future to engage in a similar contest. Walter is a graduate of the Inman high school.

Fire apparently caused by a defective flue, did considerable damage to the Latter Day Saint church Monday morning about 11 o'clock. The church has housed the primary department of the Inman school while the new school house is under construction and school was in progress when the fire was discovered spurring from the roof of the building. The teacher, Miss Doris Madison, quickly marshalled the children from the burning building, and the equipment was carried to safety. Quick work on the part of the fire fighters saved the building from being entirely burned. The greater portion of the roof was burned away and the interior was greatly damaged by smoke and water. There is insurance on the church. The damage is estimated at about $500.

Ford
ANNOUNCES $25-A-MONTH TIME PAYMENTS AND A NEW UCC 6% FINANCE PLAN

Any New Ford V-8 Car Can Now Be Purchased for $25 a Month with Usual Low Down-Payment

THIS $25-a-month time-payment plan enables you to buy a New Ford V-8 car through your Ford dealer on new low monthly terms.

After the usual low down-payment is made, $25 a month is all you have to pay for any type of new car, including insurance and financing.

Your cost for this extension of credit is only 1/2 of 1% a month on your original unpaid balance and insurance. This plan reduces financing charges for twelve months to 6%. For example, if you owe a balance of $400 for your car and insurance, you pay $24 for the year of credit; if the balance is $200 you pay $12. Your credit cost for one year is the original unpaid balance multiplied by 6%.

UCC plans provide you with insurance protection at regular conference rates. You have not only fire and theft insurance, but $50 deductible collision, and protection against other accidental physical damage to your car.

The Universal Credit Company has made these plans available through all Ford dealers in the United States.
