Mrs. Gilbert M. Cleveland Dead At Basin, Wyoming

Mrs. Gilbert M. Cleveland, wife of G. M. Cleveland former county judge of this county, and editor of the Holt County Banner, one of the early newspapers in O'Neill, died at the home of her mother, Mrs. D. L. Darr, at Basin, Wyo., last Wednesday, April 29. The following account is from the Basin Republican-Rustler of April 30: "This community was called upon Wednesday to mourn the death of Mrs. Gilbert M. Cleveland, who passed away early that morning at the home of her mother, Mrs. D. L. Darr. Deceased came here from Hot Springs, S. D., in 1927, and endeared herself to all with whom she became acquainted. Although she had been ailing for some little time, few felt that she was in a serious condition and her death came as a great surprise to many. Funeral services were held this morning from the Atwood & Atwood chapel, conducted by Rev. Nelson Wurgler. The remains will be shipped to Hot Springs, where she will be buried in the family lot beside her husband.

"Jessie L. Hayden was born July 21, 1868, at Monroe, Wis. In 1883 she was united in marriage to Judge Gilbert M. Cleveland at O'Neill, Nebr., where they made their home until June, 1891, at which time they moved to Hot Springs, S. D., with their three children. Judge Cleveland died in December, 1910, after which Mrs. Cleveland continued to make her home in Hot Springs until the fall of 1927. Since that time she has made her home in this city with her mother, Mrs. D. L. Darr.

"For some time Mrs. Cleveland has been in poor health and succumbed to a heart ailment at her mother's home early in the morning of April 29, 1936, at the age of 68 years. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. D. L. Darr, and her sister, Mrs. M. B. Rhodes, both of Basin; her daughter, Mrs. James F. Cook, of Rapid City, S. D., and son, Major Frank A. Cleveland, of Hot Springs, S. D., all of whom were with her at the time of her death. She is also survived by another son, Luther E. Cleveland, of Albuquerque, N. M.; one niece, Mrs. William Petrusch of Powell, and two grandchildren, William Petrusch, Jr., of Powell, and Allen Cleveland, of Madera, Calif.

"The entire community will join The Republican-Rustler in extending condolences to the bereaved relatives.

4-H Week Meeting At Lincoln Announced

The twenty-first annual 4-H club week will be held at the University of Nebraska college of agriculture June 1 to 6, it was announced this week by L. I. Frisbie, state club leader. Approximately 400 are expected to attend.

Interest in the 1936 event is greater than ever before with more registrations now on hand than for the corresponding time in years. Included in the group attending will be 150 individuals who have received prize trips. Among these are Margery Rees of Holt county.

Another big week is planned for the 4-H club members and local leaders attending. Monday, the opening day, is set aside for local leaders not privileged to stay the full week. After educational and inspirational services, tours, picnics, banquets, the week's activities will wind up with the annual jaunt to Omaha on Friday. The fee for the week including meals, lodging, tours and the trip to Omaha is eight dollars.

Junior Woodman Circle

The Junior Woodman Circle met last Wednesday afternoon in the K. C. Hall for the purpose of installing the following officers: Guardian, Doris Scofield; Past Guardian, Lanone Miles; Advisor, Donna Jean Marcellus; Chaplain, Davene Loy; Clerk, Howard Graves; Attendant, Genevieve Graves; Assistant Attendant, Robert Miles; Outer Sentinel, Billy O'Connell; Inner Sentinel, Keith Vincent; Musician, Margaret Jean Yantzi; Captain, Elizabeth Graves.

Mrs. George Miles was the installing officer and Mrs. Florence Jensen installing attendant. The group chose up sides for a campaign for new members, with Donna Jean Marcellus and Davene Loy as captains of the two sides. After the meeting the group went to the Bakery for lunch.

The first of the week Dr. and Mrs. Brown purchased the residence they have occupied for several years from Mrs. Dubois, who arrived in the city the latter part of the week to dispose of her property here. She still owns the building occupied by Howard Bauman and we understand a deal is on for its sale.

The work of installing the refrigeration plant in the meat department of the Grady Brothers grocery was completed Tuesday and they expect to have a full line of meats the coming week. The refrigeration plant is one of the latest makes and it will prove a valuable addition to this popular store.

The work on the basement of the new home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Froelich is rapidly approaching the finish and it will not be long until work on the building proper is commenced. The house will be 32x40 feet, two stories and basement and when completed will be one of the nicest residences in the city.

The old city drinking fountain on the First National bank corner has been in bad shape for some time and the first of the week it was replaced with a new fountain.

O'NEILL COUNTRY CLUB HAS A GOAL OF 100 MEMBERS

Opening Dance of the Season Will Be Held Monday Evening, May the 18th.

A drive for members of the O'Neill Country Club will begin within a few days. It is the aim of the club membership committee to show a total of at least 100 members for 1936. The dues for 1936 will be fifteen dollars for a married man and his family, ten dollars for junior members, ten dollars for stockholders and ten dollars for lady members.

A special rate of five dollars will be made for out of town members and it is expected that many golfers from Atkinson will take advantage of this membership for the reason that golf has been discontinued in that city.

The opening dance of the season will be held Monday, May 18. Warren Ritchie and his music has been engaged to play for this party and the dance committee, P. C. Donohoe and Dick Jordan, report that they have signed Mr. Ritchie and his band to play for the annual tournament in June. It is said that this is the best orchestra to play in this part of the state.

Golfers who are showing unexpected form for so early in the season and who are certain to be contenders in the coming tournament are Francis Soukup, Jim Hart, Bob McCaw, Pat Myhre, Bob Moore, Dr. Sherbahn, Bill Wehl and Charles Yarnell. The course is in splendid condition and record breaking scores are expected to be turned in during the next two weeks. R. M. Sauer is chairman of the membership committee and will be very glad to interview prospective members.

CONGRESS—AS SEEN BY A NEBRASKAN

By Karl Stefan

Many letters are reaching Washington from Nebraska indicating dry weather, and members are again starting to crowd around the big weather map which is located in the house lobby, and on which daily weather reports from every part of the United States are shown.

A letter from north Nebraska indicates that there is some moisture in the subsoil and rain is badly needed, and references to that are beginning to be made on the floor of the house.

The new vocational education bill in which so many Nebraska people seem to be interested is held up because it does not conform to the budget requirements. Several senators who are interested in the bill, and the author of the house bill, have visited the Administration offices and talked the matter over with the Chief Executive. Those who are interested in vocational training will be interested to learn that the appropriation for the new bill may have to be cut down considerably before it gets an OK.

Originally the bill called for $12,000,000. The house committee on education cut it to $6,000,000, and a minority of the committee recommended it cut down to $3,000,000. However on a compromise the bill passed the committee at $6,000,000, which is quite an increase in the amount of the same bill of a year ago.

Those who are steering the bill say that they can do nothing further until they get the right kind of encouragement from the administration.

The use of federal vocational education funds to subsidize sweat shops has been made more difficult, if not impossible, by restrictions placed on this appropriation bill by the house committee. By unanimous vote, the committee decreed that none of the money should be used for low wage employment—a practice that has been quite extensive.

Diversion of federal vocational education funds in several southern states, particularly in Mississippi, has caused the United States Bureau of Education to raise its regulations.

The Government Worker's Council of Washington today sent a letter and a statement to every member concerning the effects of dismissing married persons from the government service, due to the provisions of the economy act of 1932. A section of this act provides that either the husband or wife, or one of them if they are employed by the government, must give up his job.

This act was intended to give a job to some other unemployed person. The Government Workers' Council tells members of Congress that one of the more important aspects of this law is the effect which it has had, and is continuing to have, upon marriage. They claim a survey shows that in some cases, marriage would not have taken place if such a law could have been foreseen. They claim that divorce is contemplated by others, and that in some cases divorces have already been secured because of the operation of that law.

Many members of congress feel that if a husband has a good job working for the government, and his wife also has a good job working for the government, one of them ought to give up his job so that some unemployed man can get a job to support a family. They feel that the jobs should be distributed so as to relieve unemployment.

The labor leaders of today announced that there are twelve million unemployed in the country, and that the big question is "How can you put them to work?"

It is doubtful if any new bills other than the ordinary "must" bills will pass or have an opportunity of passage during this session of congress. All attention is being given to the tax bill and the new emergency relief bill, which will follow the tax bill.

Vice President Garner and Speaker Byrnes had a conference yesterday afternoon, and those who watched the two leaders talking things over, guessed that they were talking about early adjournment. All of this however is guess work, but members hope to get through before June 10.

The Frazier-Lemke reinsurance bill got another set-back today when those working on the bill learned that two more members took their names off the discharge petition. Last week only one more name was needed. Today three more names are needed to get the required 218 names. One member who took his name off has promised progressive members to put it back again.

Many letters are being received from farmers who owe money on their farms, stating that they are getting very little help from the Farm Credit Administration. Some of them who have had their farms appraised for a loan, and find the amount the government will loan them is not enough to take care of the mortgage, have asked for reappraisals. They write that the new appraisal results in appraising the farm for less than the first appraisal.

Many farm group members here are complaining to the administration about this. They feel that a demand for reappraisal of the land brings retaliation against the farmer. This matter has been brought to the attention of the house.

One hundred sailors—enlisted men—who have been going to the naval school at Norfolk, Virginia, have completed their work, and are going home on a thirty day furlough. These young men want a chance to enter the naval academy in order to become commissioned officers in the navy. They had no chance for direct appointment and many of them enlisted and studied hard and won the chance for the free naval school. They will be notified in about three weeks about their grades. If they pass they will be notified to enter the naval academy about next June.

Those members endeavoring to protect American producers against the foreign oils and fats thru an excise tax have turned their attention to the senate, where they hope to put an amendment on the new tax bill, for the purpose of continuing an excise tax on Philippine coconut oil.

Holt County Young Republicans Meet At Atkinson Saturday

May it please all red blooded Young Americans in the County of Holt:

To all you young men and women who are tired of a government by bureaucracy, who wish to stamp out communism and such forms of radicalism which tend to take away the freedom of the American people—between the ages of 21 and 36—who love clean politics and good government are invited to join the Young Republican Club of Holt county. The next meeting will be held at Atkinson next Saturday, May 9, at 8 p. m. in the town hall. At that time our state chairman, Mr. Edwin Myers, Jr., will be with us.

There have been two meetings held and some temporary officers elected to carry on until a permanent organization can be set up. This Young Republican Club will not tolerate any jealousy on the part of its members and each town and locality will have members elected by the Club to serve on the various committees. No partiality will be shown to any one town or community. Our sole purpose is to assist in every way in the election of the Republican national and state tickets at the coming election, as we believe that their election is necessary for the welfare of this country that we all love. Everyone come and bring a friend.

E. J. COLLINS,
County President.

J. J. Schweitzer, of Milford, was in the city last Saturday visiting relatives and his many old time friends in this section. He came up after Mrs. Schweitzer, who had been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Allen in this city for several weeks. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

The basement for the new home of Mrs. Rately on Benton street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, has been completed and work on the structure will commence next week. The building will be 30x42 with a full basement, one story and will be of the Spanish type, stucco on the outside.

NEWS OF PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Gallagher; Sunday night Mrs. D. H. Cronin had a supper for these visitors; Monday evening Mrs. S. J. Weekes had a dinner at the Golden, followed by bridge at her home; Tuesday Mrs. Ed Campbell entertained at dinner at the Golden for the Martez Club and these popular visitors were honor guests. E. C. Rector, of Orchard, one of the large cattlemen of this section of the state and at one time an extensive holder of Holt county real estate, died in an Omaha hospital last week from the result of injuries received in an auto accident about ten days previously. The funeral was held at Orchard last Friday and was very largely attended. Among those attending from here were, Mrs. A. C. Cowperthwaite, Judge and Mrs. C. J. Malone, Pete Duffy and Judge J. J. Harrington.

William Krotter was down from Stuart Wednesday. Mr. Krotter informed us that he had secured the contract for supplying the sand and gravel for the new court house and that it would be obtained from a pit they are to open on the Frank Pribil, Jr., farm south of O'Neill. He said that he had several other contracts in view that he would supply from this pit and that it promised to be a busy place all summer.

S. J. Weekes went down to Omaha Sunday night to attend to his duties there as a member of the board of directors of a building and loan association and also as a member of the loan committee of the Regional Agricultural Credit Corporation. While away he will also attend the republican state convention which will be held in Omaha Thursday, as one of the delegates from this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dietsch, who formerly resided northeast of this city but who left here for Cedar county in 1911, have returned to Holt county and are again living on their farm northeast of here. Mr. and Mrs. Dietsch were pleasant callers at this office this morning and had their name enrolled on The Frontier's subscription list for the coming year so they could keep posted on the affairs of the county.

The Woman's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Jeanne Scott Monday evening with a good attendance. The subject was Latin America. Mrs. Eby, Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Johnson were on the program. The meeting was very interesting and it is much pleasure to see our society growing. Mrs. Scott served a delicious lunch at the close of the meeting.

F. J. Biglin drove down to Sioux City this afternoon after Mrs. Biglin and Joseph, who have been at Rochester, Minn., for the past two weeks. Joseph was discharged from the hospital there Tuesday and Mrs. Biglin and son went to Sioux City that night and have been visiting relatives there for a couple of days.

Mrs. Art Auker and Miss Hazel McDonald were hostesses at a pre-nuptial shower given in honor of Miss Mary Grutsch Saturday, May 2. A desert luncheon was served after which a very pleasing program was given and the gifts were presented.

Dr. W. H. Mullen, of Omaha, was in the city the later part of the week visiting old-time friends in this section.

RECEPTION HELD AT ACADEMY FOR MOST REV. JAMES H. RYAN

Class of Two Hundred Seventy-five Confirmed Monday Morning At St. Patrick's.

On Sunday evening, May 3rd, Most Reverend James Hugh Ryan, D. D., accompanied by Rev. Nicholas H. Wegner, arrived at St. Patrick's Rectory, and, later in the evening, was tendered a reception of welcome by the pupils of St. Mary's Academy and the people of the parish.

The program consisted of a "welcome song" in three voices, rendered "a capella" by the entire school, followed by an address by Francis Soukup, a senior, on behalf of St. Mary's faculty and the pupils, in which he stressed the fact that St. Mary's had rejoiced exceedingly on hearing of the appointment of our new Bishop, and assured him of unwavering loyalty and devotion with faithful fulfillment of his teachings as our Shepherd and our Guide.

The orchestra rendered several splendid selections, after which a line-up of tiny tots came in on tiptoe with a finger on each pair of lips, ranging themselves in front of His Excellency and looking very wise. All together exclaimed "Boo." Then they announced they had a secret. One carried a Golden Rose, veiled, until they had convinced him of how much they loved him. The gift was presented with a beautiful bouquet of tea roses, and they explained to His Excellency that the gift is only for one who deserves the highest honors and rewards. It was easily seen that the lambkins of his flock have a safe, warm shelter in the loving Shepherd's heart.

Gonoud's "Praise Ye the Father" was sung by the High School group after which Judge J. J. Harrington warmly welcomed the new Bishop on behalf of his parish and the entire community. The Most Reverend Bishop answered briefly but heartily, calling forth round after round of applause by saying he knew of O'Neill while still in Washington, and that as a boy, he had learned that an Irish patriot had founded a settlement in Nebraska named O'Neill.

On the following morning, the Bishop confirmed two hundred seventy-five, the largest class in the history of the parish. At least thirty of them were converts.

It is needless to say that our beloved Bishop won all hearts in O'Neill, and he will ever find true and faithful children in this part of Holt county.

School Notes

The final eighth grade examination will be held on Wednesday, May 13. This examination will be held in the following places: St. Boniface and Stuart public schools, Atkinson, Emmet, Amelia, Chambers, O'Neill, Meek, Ewing, Page and Deloit.

Due to the fact that most of the eighth graders are through, and due to the shortage of time yet remaining we have been forced to limit the number of places for the final examinations.

CLARENCE J. McCLURG,
County Superintendent.
