SOUTHWEST BREEZES

By Romaine Saunders

Reckless driving doesn't always turn out to be reckless.

By the whereas and the resolved formula the young democrats are mixing figures to show that Hoover was a greater spender than Franklin D. Others accuse him of letting the citizen go hungry rather than spend federal money. Take your choice or reject both.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Widman, of Amelia, went to Grand Island and return Sunday, being accompanied home by Mrs. Widman's mother who will spend the summer at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Arnoldt were called to Lincoln one day last week by the serious illness of Mrs. Arnoldt's mother.

For some time past deer have been known to have a hangout in the southwest corner of the county. Now the Chambers Sun reports one having been seen with the cattle at the Ed Myers home, location of which was not stated.

Jack Widman, superintendent of the Sunday school at Amelia, attended the county convention of Sunday schools at O'Neill last week.

The prairie rose again perfumes the air with its enticing fragrance and adorns the landscape in white and pink tints. Where a few months ago lay winter's cheerless drifts a floral profusion now spreads beauty in color and delicacy of form. Clusters of huge bloom in gold and pink unfold waxy petals from beds of spiked cactus and multitudes of deep blue botanical beauties nodding on long stems join the riot of colors and mingle a faint fragrance with the more noticeable insense. And gorgeous summer has just begun.

The success of the over seas vets bonus money might encourage that numerous body which remained at home to march upon Washington with demands for reward on the grounds of helping "make the world safe for democracy" with knife and fork.

Rileys, Youngs and others in this vicinity have the sweet clover in stacks and are planning on an early start at the regular haying job.

The world-wide industrial collapse was no doubt due to a spike-tailed, cloven-hoofed and behorned republican in the white house. It has fallen to a saintly democrat to restore expanded trade and industrial life to other nations and peoples of the earth while home products have been destroyed, industry curtailed and a national debt piled up that mortgages the country for a half century to come.

Elliott Carpenter bought—not a ten-gallon hat—but a five-gallon cow of D. L. Withers on Monday.

H. L. James has a large acreage of splendid rye which will soon be ready for the harvester.

Hauling a house on wagons was a common occurrence at one time in Holt County's history. One went by our door just recently teetering forward and back on the flat bed of a truck, being conveyed to the southwest.

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the large barn on the Karl Keyes farm Tuesday night about 10 o'clock. The barn, a quantity of harness, one saddle horse, grain and other things were consumed. The work horses had been turned in the pasture and only the saddle pony remained in the barn. Several other buildings caught fire, but with hard work on the part of the fire fighters they were saved.

Mr. and Mrs. Keyes were at the home of a neighbor a couple of miles away when the fire was discovered. The hired man was awakened by the light of the fire and gave the alarm. There was some insurance.

The old saying is that there is plenty of room at the top, but just the same if we were Mussolini or Hitler we wouldn't lease the penthouse apartment for too long a period.

France is talking about giving us a "token" payment on the war debt. Probably it will be a nice little cork screw with a handle looking like a lemon.

Add Port of Missing Men: Babe Ruth, Gandhi, and General Johnson.

Judging by results, it wouldn't be difficult to get the Argentine farmers to vote for crop restrictions in the U. S. A.

It won't be very long, now, until it will be time to dust off that old slogan "As Maine goes, so goes the nation."

Swiss lead world in Yodeling...

Americans lead in Telephoning

There are yodelers in the United States and telephone calls in Switzerland—but the Swiss are famed for their yodeling and this country leads the world in using the telephone.

Americans use the telephone more than all the rest of the world. In this country, fast, clear, accurate and far-reaching service is provided at a price within reach of a larger percentage of the population than in any other nation.

This Company is better able to meet your needs for telephone service because it has back of it the national resources of the Bell System. One important benefit is that we obtain standardized equipment of high quality from the manufacturing company of the Bell System, the Western Electric Company ... equipment which fits in with equipment of other Bell companies and makes for faster and clearer service.

As the part of the Bell System which manufactures for all Bell companies, the Western Electric Company furnishes a high quality of equipment at the most reasonable charges.

The benefits obtained by purchasing from the Western Electric Company enable us to provide better service at lower charges than otherwise would be possible.
