District Court Filings

Josephine Versaw has filed suit in the district court asking for an absolute divorce from Leroy Versaw and the custody of their two children, 13 and 11 years of age. In her petition she alleges that they were married at Petersburg, Nebr., on Sept. 20, 1921. She alleges that he has been guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment and non support. That, also he is 37 years of age and capable of earning $125 per month and of sufficient ability to provide suitable maintenance he has failed to do so. Since January, 1929, he has failed to contribute a sufficient amount to support her and the children and since last June he has refused to contribute anything to their support. She asks for a decree of divorce and suitable support for herself and children and such other relief as the court may deem proper.

The Federal Land Bank of Omaha has filed a foreclosure action against Andrew F. Jacobson, et al., to foreclose a mortgage for $5,000 given on Jan. 7, 1922, on the following described real estate: west half of section 25; southwest quarter of southeast quarter, east half of the southeast quarter of section 23; south half of southwest quarter of section 24, all in township 27, north of range 14, west of the 6th P. M., containing 520 acres more or less according to government survey. The petition alleges that on or about June 4, 1926, the defendant conveyed said real estate to Frank M. Hall who assumed and agreed to pay the mortgage. Conditions of the mortgage were broken in that interest of $140.24, due on April 1, 1934, was not paid and none has been paid since that date. They allege there is now due the sum of $5,057.51 and they ask for judgment for that amount and if same is not paid within a reasonable time that the land be sold.

Maude F. Webb has filed suit in the district court asking for a decree of divorce from Albert F. Webb. She alleges that they were married at Valentine, Nebr., on December 25, 1910. In 1925 while living at Valentine he became angry and refused to live with her. She moved to Atkinson and engaged in the mercantile business. He refused to live in Atkinson and he has at all times refused to live with or have anything to do with her. She alleges that he has not contributed to her support for over nine years. She asks for a decree and divorce and such other relief as may be just and equitable.

No Political Assessments

An old established custom on the part of both parties in Kansas was an assessment of five per cent on office-holders for campaign purposes. One of the first acts of Landon as governor of the state was the outlawing of any assessment on any office-holder.

Protect Freedom at Polls: Landon

Dictatorship Leads to War, He Warns; Lauds GOP Platform.

PORTLAND, ME. — The Presidential election will be a choice between free enterprise under which the humblest citizen has a chance, and a system of invasion of private rights characterized by a million signs: "By Order of the American Government, Keep Off!" declared Gov. Alf M. Landon, in a speech before a vast throng here.

He defined the issues of the campaign: "Do we want the Government prying into every little detail of our business lives? "Do we want the Government forbidding us to plant what we want in our own fields? "Or: "Do we want to be free to plan for our future? "Do we want free government in America?"

Coming of European System.
 Under the American system of free enterprise, Gov. Landon said, people have been free to plan for themselves and their children, knowing that their goal was limited only by their own ability, subject to no handicap of birth or class distinction. But, he pointed out: "Then came the N.R.A.! With the enactment of this measure in 1933, our government, without mandate of the people, adopted a new and completely different philosophy. When I say 'new,' I mean new only in the sense that it was new to this country. It was a philosophy well known under the autocratic governments of Europe.

"This philosophy decreed that prices should be regulated," said Gov. Landon, "not by demand and supply, but by government edict; that wages and hours of employees should be fixed, not by free and fair negotiations under rules assuring equality, but by officials in Washington; that the sort of competition which must be fostered, as the life-blood of free enterprise, should in future be prohibited by law. . . .

"What the N.R.A. really undertook to do in this country was to terminate our system of free competition, and to substitute for it a system of government-created and government-protected monopolies. . . .

"The N.R.A. was the beginning in America of the movement which, throughout the world, has been sweeping aside private enterprise in favor of government control—a movement which has been substituting arbitrary personal authority for constitutional self-government. . . .

"But—you may say—the N.R.A. is dead. "True enough. The National Industrial Recovery Act is dead, thanks to the courage and integrity of the Supreme Court. "But the spirit of the N.R.A. lives on. It lives on in recently enacted laws. It lives on in the efforts of the Administration to get around the decisions of the Supreme Court. It lives on in this Administration's 1936 platform. It lives on in the recent public utterances of the President and his spokesmen.

May Lead to War.

"But above all, it lives on in the spirit of the President who has confessed no error—who has let it be clearly known that he considered it would be a catastrophe if the American farmer should 'once more become a lord on his own farm' . . .

"It was no accident that Congress delegated its functions to the President. . . .

"Power of this magnitude is dangerous from the economic as well as from the political point of view. No man's judgment is sufficiently infallible to justify giving him control—either in private business or in government—over the standard of living, the savings, and the destiny of his fellow citizens. When the decision of one man affects an entire country, a wrong decision means national disaster. "The Republican Party opposes unlimited executive power for another reason. This reason is that the world-wide trend away from democracy means but one thing—that one thing is WAR. Any weakening of democracy here, means the final rout of democracy everywhere. . . .

"The temper of the American public is no longer complacent. It has definitely set its face against monopoly and unfair trade practices. The pledge in our platform is not mere words. It does not mean to me fruitless inquiries that impede recovery and delay re-employment. To me it means not only the steady relentless enforcement of existing laws, but the strengthening of those laws. And it means the enactment of such additional legislation as is necessary to put an end to monopoly, unfair trade practices and all special privilege. Only if we follow this course can we escape the system of government regulated monopolies sponsored by this Administration.

"If you do not believe this, you had better not vote for me. For I am pledged by the Republican platform to save our system of free enterprise."

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Taxpayers of Holt county are requested to meet in the Wagon Shop pavilion at Page, Nebr., on Monday, Sept. 21, 1936, when business of importance to the taxpayers of the county will be discussed.

The members of the County Board of Supervisors are respectfully invited to attend this meeting.

JOHN CHILAR,
 Member of Committee.

The Shelterbelt was going to solve all the problems of the people in this section of the universe; no more droughts and crops in abundance. After spending several million of the people's hard earned dollars they have given up the idea, as not feasible. We distinctly remember that The Frontier stated a couple of years ago when the proposition was first proposed, that if they put down a well and erected a windmill at each tree it might be a success, otherwise it was doomed to failure. We have lived in the county since the spring of 1877 and have seen many nice groves wither under the blasting sun of several dry years.

BRIEFLY STATED

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Noble will leave Sunday for a business trip to Michell and Plankinton, S. D., where Mr. Noble will put in a week looking after business interests and Mrs. Noble will visit friends.

The Pierce Gesundeit band furnished music for the free day celebration at O'Neill Tuesday. The boys say a great crowd attended the event and that the Irish are royal entertainers.—Pierce Leader.

Harry Conklin, of Columbus, arrived here the first of the week and took over the management of the federal re-employment office, succeeding Len Youngworth, who had charge of the office for the past two years.

Judge Dickson and Reporter McElhanev drove to Springview Monday morning where they will hold the fall term of district court. There are several cases on the docket for trial and the session may last a week.

The High School band went down to Chambers last Friday morning and furnished music for the South Fork fair that day. It is said that the youngsters made a decided hit with the crowd in the southern metropolis of Holt county.

John Hunter, of Malta, Mont., who had been visiting his nephew, Frank Hunter, of Star, and other old time friends in the eastern part of the county, left Tuesday for Iowa, where he will visit for a few days before returning to his Montana home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hood, pioneer settlers of the northern part of the county on the Niobrara river, are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter at their home Tuesday morning. This is the twelfth child born to Mr. and Mrs. Hood, all living except one.

Mrs. Bettie Buchanan, of Randolph, spent the past week with Mrs. N. A. Thomas and Mrs. Newt Thomas near Meek. She was well pleased with this part of Holt county, and says the corn looks much better than it does in the vicinity of Randolph.

Ed M. Gallagher, Ira Moss, H. J. Hammond and Francis Montgomery returned Friday evening from northern Minnesota, where they had several days fishing. The boys did not have as good luck as on previous trips, but they had a good time and got several good messes.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Todsén drove to Ainsworth Sunday where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Remington, the Penney store manager at that place. Mr. Remington underwent an operation for acute appendicitis a week ago and is getting along nicely. Mr. and Mrs. Todsén returned home Sunday evening. Pete says they had a very heavy rain at Ainsworth Sunday afternoon and that the rain extended east as far as Stuart.

Rodney H. Tomlinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tomlinson of this city and Miss Mary Richter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richter, of Dorsey, drove to Butte, Nebr., on Sept. 2 and were united in marriage there by County Judge Adamson. The wedding was not known for several days but since the news leaked out the young people have been receiving the congratulations of their many friends in this city and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Cambre and son, Louis, and daughters, the Misses Mary Margaret and Betty Ruth, left last Sunday morning for Indianola, Iowa, where Louis entered Simpson College, a Methodist institution, which has enrolled 800 students, for the coming year. Louis will take a course in liberal arts, speech and voice. Indianola is located 17 miles south of the capitol of Iowa. The rest of the family returned home Tuesday night.

R. R. Morrison will leave in the morning with his daughter, Miss Dorothy, for Winona, Minn., where the latter will enter St. Theresa college for her second year. They will be accompanied on the trip by Mrs. F. J. Dishner and Pat Kilmurray, of Atkinson, and will go from Winona to Rochester, Minn., where Mr. Morrison will have the physicians there make an examination of his arm. Mrs. Dishner and Mr. Kilmurray will go thru the Mayo clinic.

Mrs. George Simmons, of Missouri, one of the most gifted of the women spellbinders on the republican side of the battle of ballots, will speak in Atkinson on Friday evening, September 18. Mrs. Simmons, living on a Missouri farm, made a decided hit at the grass roots convention at Springfield, Ill., last year and since the campaign opened has been in great demand as a speaker at republican meetings. Hear her, as she has a real message for the taxpayers of the county.

John Robert Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gallagher of this city will leave Saturday morning for St. Louis, Mo., where he will enter Washington University and take up the study of law. John Robert had been an employee of the O'Neill National bank for the past three years, retiring from his position there the first of this week. His place in the bank has been taken by Bennett Grady, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Grady of this city, who, for the past couple of years, has been employed in Creighton, Nebraska.

Hon. J. H. Kemp, of Fullerton, was in the city Monday on his way to Burke, S. D., on legal business and made a short call at this office, renewing old acquaintance. Mr. Kemp and the writer served together in the Nebraska legislature in 1911 and 1913 and he later was a candidate for the republican nomination for governor. A few years ago he was the republican candidate for United States senator, but lost out to Richard Hunter in the general election. He said that things were very bright for republican success in his county at the coming election.

G. W. Traver, one of the old time residents and republican wheel horses of Francis township, was an O'Neill visitor Tuesday and favored this office with a pleasant call. George says that things have not been as bad in his particular section of the county this year, although far from normal. He had a fairly
