

Meet the Sea-Goin' Cowdrey Brothers

Uncle Sam's navy is one swell place to be! If you doubt it, ask the five husky Cowdrey brothers, from Illinois, all sailors aboard the flagship Pennsylvania. They spend spare time cramming for advanced ratings tests, and awaiting the day when a sixth brother attains seventeen, so that he can make out his enlistment papers. Photograph shows (left to right), Charles, Paul, Harry, Burnem, and Manley Cowdrey.

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—James Roosevelt, eldest son of the President, who has taken over a secretarial job in the White House. 2—French battleship of the Atlantic fleet now patrolling Spanish waters as a result of the Spanish civil war. 3—Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers (standing) as he discussed strategy with other officials of the union in the automobile strike.

Five Years Old, and Still Mixed Up!

HEADS BOARD OF TRADE

Kenneth S. Templeton recently elected as president of the Chicago Board of Trade. Templeton, a member of the exchange since 1911, is a partner of the cash grain firm of J. S. Templeton's Sons.

New Secret Service Chief Takes Office

ELECTED RABBI CHIEF

Dr. Isaac Herzog, chief rabbi of Dublin, Ireland, who was elected chief rabbi of Palestine by a council of 70 elders to succeed the late Rabbi Kook. He is a man of great culture in lay as well as spiritual matters. He has degrees from three universities and specialized in classical languages and mathematics. The office of chief rabbi of Palestine is a sort of ministry of religion.

WISDOM ROOSTS

This wise owl has a lugubrious air about him and no wonder. The bird is deeply attached to Charles Korret, of New York city, who found him in Bronx park and made a pet of him. But Charles, unable to care for the bird, took it to the Bronx zoo, where he is pictured just before he said good-bye to his feathered pal. The owl likes his perch, which provides a means of gauging his size, which is 4 inches tall; weight, 8 ounces. The owl is one of the smallest of its kind on record.

Scientist Invents a "Flu" Killer

Inventor William Frank Wells, of the Harvard Medical school, Boston, is shown with his "floodlight" germ killing apparatus. According to Wells combination mercury and neon tubes with quartz glass tubing, and ultra violet rays given off, filter the atmosphere about the lamp, killing off all flu, and other germs. The apparatus—very successful in experiments—has already been installed in several New York hospitals.

Nature Is Scene Painter in Winter Playground

This unusual camera study shows the great crags of Yosemite National park and the little people who have their fun on them. To the right is the famous Half Dome in the distance. New ski trails have been completed in the park and the season is now in full swing.

AUTO EXECUTIVE

From riveter, boiler maker and shop worker to executive vice president of General Motors corporation is a brief career picture of William S. Knudsen, General Motors' principal representative in the recent automotive labor situation. Knudsen is widely known in the motor car world.

"Rusty" Takes Kinks Out of His Crew

Uninvited "Guest" Crashes Into Living Room

An uninvited and wholly unexpected "guest" arrived in the home of Horace W. Miller, near York, Pa., when the pictured car, driven by M. Carvell Rothrock, broke through the house wall to enter the Miller home. Police allege that Rothrock was driving too fast around a curve, and they reported also that both Rothrock and a companion who was riding with him were unhurt. The Miller house, however, was considerably damaged.

OF INTEREST TO THE HOUSEWIFE

Salted peanuts, freshened by heating in oven, are very good served with chocolate sauce on vanilla ice cream. The young people like this combination especially well.

Wash metal door hinges occasionally with warm soapsuds, wipe dry and rub with oil to prevent their rusting.

The corduroy clothes so popular with young people will launder easily, if washed in mild soap and plenty of warm water. Rinse well, shake and hang up to dry.

When baking candied sweet potatoes turn them frequently to permit even browning.

Solutions of soda potash or ammonia will remove grease from unvarnished wood.

For white sauce, melt two and a half tablespoonfuls of butter in saucepan. Add five and a half tablespoons flour mixed with one-third teaspoon salt and few grains pepper. Add one cup scalded milk, stirring constantly. Bring to boiling point and beat until smooth and glossy.

To wash white silk collars or ties, instead of removing from dresses, put a clean towel round the dress and then dip the collars into a bowl of soapy water, rinse and place on a hanger with towel still round them. Leave to dry and iron while damp. A great deal of time is saved.

Quickest Way to Ease a COLD

The modern way to ease a cold is this: Two Bayer Aspirin tablets the moment you feel a cold coming on. Repeat, if necessary, in two hours. If you also have a sore throat as a result of the cold, dissolve 3 Bayer tablets in 1/2 glass of water and gargle with this twice. The Bayer Aspirin you take internally will act to combat fever, aches, pains which usually accompany a cold. The gargle will provide almost instant relief from soreness and rawness of your throat. Your doctor, we feel sure, will approve this modern way. Ask your druggist for genuine Bayer Aspirin by its full name — not by the name "aspirin" alone.

Gas, Gas All the Time, Can't Eat or Sleep

"The gas on my stomach was so bad I could not eat or sleep. Even my heart seemed to hurt. A friend suggested Adierika. The first dose I took brought me relief. Now I eat as I wish, sleep fine and never feel better." —Mrs. Jas. Filler.

Adierika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels while ordinary laxatives act on the lower bowel only. Adierika gives your system a thorough cleansing, bringing out old, poisonous matter that you would not believe was in your system and that has been causing gas pains, sour stomach, nervousness and headaches for months.

Dr. H. L. Shoub, New York, reports: "In addition to intestinal cleansing, Adierika greatly reduces bacteria and colon bacilli." Give your bowels a REAL cleansing with Adierika and see how good you feel. Just one spoonful relieves GAS and constipation. At all Leading Druggists.
