THE NEBRASKA SCENE
 Nebraska will receive thirteen United States bombers for an aerial squadron of the Nebraska national guard, provided hanger space and landing fields can be furnished according to the provisions of a bill introduced by Legislator Brady of Atkinson, at the request of Adjutant General H. J. Paul. The bill asks for an appropriation of $10,000 for that purpose. The landing field chosen must be approved by a U. S. army official.

State Superintendent Taylor is leading the fight to secure the passage of the state certification law. All the educational organizations in the state are behind the measure. The bill provides local control of state certification combined with centralized authority in the state superintendent's office.

For the first time in ten years every first semester graduate from the engineering department of the University of Nebraska had accepted a position before the close of the semester, according to an announcement recently made by Professor Jiles W. Haney, chairman of the engineering department.

The little boy next door whose mother worked on him effectively with a hair brush yesterday morning says he doesn't think much of these sit-down strikes.

BRIEFLY STATED

Attorney J. D. Cronin went down to Lincoln Tuesday afternoon where on Wednesday he argued a case before the supreme court.

Max W. Graver of Ewing, and Miss Hilda Gunter of Clearwater, were granted a marriage license in county court on February 15.

County Judge Wayne A. Davies of Butte, was in the city last Monday attending the annual meeting of the Fifteenth Judicial Bar association.

Lawrence Chapman came up from Omaha this morning to look after some business matters here, and to visit a few hours with O'Neill friends.

According to word from D. T. Murfin of Page, the Young Democrats of Holt county will have a meeting in the K. C. Hall in this city on next Monday evening, Feb. 22, at 8 p. m.

Miss Della Harnish returned to the home of her parents here Friday, from Rochester Minn., where she has been the past five weeks convalescing from an operation at the Mayo clinic.

Lorenz Wolf, who lives in the southeast corner of the county, was in O'Neill Wednesday taking care of a few business matters. He reports that the highway south and east of here is in very poor shape.

Quite a large number of farmers were in town last Saturday, some of whom had not been in the city, on account of blocked roads, since before Christmas. O'Neill business men report a splendid business Saturday.

Mrs. M. R. Sullivan moved Monday from the McNichols property on west Douglas street to the former home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stout on north 5th street. Mrs. Sullivan contemplates buying the residence into which she has just moved.

Mrs. Margaret Allen received word the first of the week that her sister, Mrs. Catherine Smith, who is now making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Evans at Grand Island, fell the latter part of the week and broke her arm just above the elbow. This is a serious accident for a woman of her age, 82, and her many friends here hope that she will speedily recover from her injuries.

George Barta of Rebird, was a caller at this office this morning and ordered The Frontier sent to his address for the coming year. Mr. Barta has been a resident of that section of the county for 18 years and, notwithstanding droughts he has been prosperous. He says the mail man has not been by his place since Jan. 12, when the residents shoveled out the road, which filled up again the next day. Traffic in that section has been tough, he says, and there has not been much of it.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Eby returned last week from a two months visit with relatives and sightseeing in southern California. Mr. Eby says they had an unusually hard winter in California this year and that much of the fruit crop in that section was ruined by the hard frosts. They visited many points of interest in southern California including the ranch of the late Will Rogers, which is now occupied by his family. He says that it is a beautiful place and one of the greatest attractions in that section for tourists.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Biglin and son Joseph, and Miss Genevieve Biglin drove to Sioux City last Sunday afternoon where Miss Genevieve and Joseph took the night

They left Sioux City at noon and got home about 8 p. m.

WATCH SPEED LIMIT IN GARAGE

Thunder on the left! . . . or some such noise from around your neighbor's garage. Look . . . it's half-hidden in black-and-blue smoke. Glory be! His engine's started already, this nippy morning. But for fear his luck won't hold, he lets 'er race like mad, standing still.

Be neighborly. In your own diplomatic way, try to tell him "Don't."

It's cruel to his engine, it wastes gasoline, and it's old-fashioned. YOU know a gasoline that's modern. Special Winter Blend Conoco Bronze gentles your engine into quick steady motion, saving a lot of repeats on the starter and choke. Spares your gasoline, your battery, and the life of your oil.
