

DAILY JOURNAL$1.25 3 Months; $4 A Year

People taking 20¢ a week papers, by delivery pay $10.40 a year. They get their other mail thru the post-office. The Daily Lincoln Nebraska State Journal can give two to ten hours later news out on rural routes and in many towns because it is the only large daily between Omaha and Denver printing at night, in fact up until 5 p. m. The Journal prints editions right up until train time day and night. The Morning Journal comes in time for mail delivery the same day. Dailies printed on the Iowa line edit for Iowa readers. The Lincoln Journal sells for one to two dollars a year less than any other big state morning daily, and is priced as low as day late afternoon papers. With the Lincoln Journal you practically get the Sunday free, for other morning papers charge as much for daily only as The Journal does including Sunday. Don't give money to strange solicitors; order direct or thru our office. By mail in Nebraska and North Kansas, three months Daily $1.25, with Sunday $1.50; a year Daily $4.00, with Sunday $5.00.

Dr. Perrigo Dies At

A Norfolk Hospital

Dr. C. A. Perrigo, 53, of Norfolk, died in a hospital there the first of the week of pneumonia, after a short illness. Dr. Perrigo was an optician and was well known in this city and throughout northeast Nebraska and southern South Dakota. He had been making monthly trips to this city for the past twenty years, being associated with his father, J. M. Perrigo in the operation of an optical company at Norfolk. Dr. Perrigo had many friends in this city who will learn with regret of his sudden death. He is survived by his widow and daughter, his parents and two brothers.

Woodman Circle

Mrs. Florence Jensen, State Manager of the Woodman Circle, was the honor guest at a meeting of Grove 128 which was held at the home of Mrs. Julia Graves Thursday evening. There were nineteen members present.

The evening was spent in making plans for the district convention which is to be held in O'Neill June 12. After the business session a lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Graves, assisted by Beryl Winchell and Mae Holcomb.

ALPHA CLUB

Mrs. Art Auker and Mrs. Chas. Morton entertained the Alpha club members and their escorts at a 7:30 buffet dinner and a card party Saturday night, March 13. As the guests arrived they were informed that the hostesses were on a sit-down strike, striking for two boxes of candy which were hidden in the house. Each guest was given a menu of the dinner, but it was up to them to find the candy or find the food, dishes silverware, etc, which was also hidden. The candy was not found until the guests had found and served the dinner.

Tables were set for progressive pitch and the remainder of the evening was spent playing cards. The ladies winning prizes were Mrs. Aaron Boshart and Mrs. Hobert Auker. The men who won prizes were Albert McDonald and Aaron Boshart. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hobert Auker of Wayne. All reported a very enjoyable evening and declared Mrs. Auker and Mrs. Morton very good hostesses even though they went on a sit-down strike and the guests had to serve their own dinner.

A few fellows in our town have been conducting a sit-down strike for years. They are not asking to be unionized. They have just been striking against all labor in general.

The Associated Press say they had freezing temperature in Los Angeles a few weeks ago. How did that weather story get by the censor, anyhow?

Plenty of Critics

One member who has been here twenty-nine years says that he never gets up on the floor of this "greatest deliberative body in the world" without "fear and trembling." He says that no member can feel he knows more about a subject or question he wants to discuss because the House contains the largest number of the shrewdest critics in the world. With over 270 lawyers in the House it is easy to attract a critic who likes to argue a point. That's their business.

Canned Meat All Foreign

A member here has made a store-to-store canvass of this town. He claims he tried to buy a can of corned beef which was canned in the U. S. A., or contained American beef. He told members of the House that he had a can of American corned beef that he had in town. It's all marked "inspected and-canned in Argentine, Paraguay or Uruguay" or some South American country. Native cattle herders in some of these countries get about 25 cents a week and the beef can be bought down there for around 1 cent a pound, according to the statement of this member.

Make-Easter Service Reservations

Sunday in Washington churches as usual brings small crowds. In the big St. Albans cathedral which can accommodate thousands, only a very few people were at the morning services. However, a big church attendance is looked for Easter Sunday. A lot of the churches have most of their pews reserved and letters must now be sent to the head ushers by people who expect to get into church on that day. As usual, the regular attendance at church services here show a great predominance of women worshippers.

Biggest Controversy Since the League of Nations

The loudest dispute regarding the administration's program is over the proposal to reorganize the judiciary. People here for a long time say this dispute is the loudest since the controversy over the League of Nations. Hundreds of thousands of letters are coming to members on both sides of the House. While most of these are against the plan, the deluge of letters and communications backing the program will be starting to come to Washington within the next few weeks. The plan apparently is being tried in the Court of Public Opinion.

Washington Building Boom

One member today charged that the government is putting on new employees at the rate of 100 per day. Although that is not correct, there is a rapid growth in the government employee population here. The building boom due to the great demand for rooms and offices is growing fast. This town has spent fifty-six million dollars in new buildings the last twelve months. Permits for more than ten thousand family dwelling units were issued in this town in 1936. They expect the 1937 program to be much larger than that.

Try To Bring Frazier-Lemke Bill Out

The Frazier-Lemke farm refinancing petition went on the clerk's desk today as also did the petition to discharge the committee which has the farm cost of production bill in charge. Another petition regarding the refinancing of home loans was also filed with the clerk. Two hundred and eighteen signatures must be on these petitions before this legislation can come up on the floor of the people's representatives for action. The administration is not in favor of these bills and as a result a canvass among members has started asking them to sign the petitions. Some parts of the Lemke refinancing bill are in the new land tenant bill which is soon to come out of the agriculture committee.

Sugar Cause of Congressional Battles

Last week the soft coal miners who favored the proposed Guffey Coal Bill called on nearly every congressional office. This week an organization called the "Progressive Miners" are circulating the congressional offices with arguments "against" the Guffey Coal Bill.

The army of lobbyists is getting larger in Washington. Because of important sugar legislation coming up soon, the town is filled with sugar lobbyists. Members who have been here many years say that during their stay here more wars have been fought over supplies of sugar, or other sweetening agents than for any other cause. The sugar kings of Cuba, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, Philippines and other countries are here in full force. They are very powerful. They give great parties, teas, receptions and dinners. They meet behind closed doors and the people behind those doors are among the leaders in this and foreign nations.

America is a great customer for the sugar kings. The United States is short in our sugar supply. We produce less than one-quarter of our requirements of both cane and beet sugar. We import about 95 per cent of our sugar requirements. The foreign sugar kings don't like any member who suggests that no quota be placed on American grown beet or cane sugar. They don't even like any suggestion that the United States do something to increase domestic sugar acreage. The sugar law is about to be acted upon. The sugar kings act first before the proposed law reaches the hands of the people's representatives.

Hire Talent Away From Government

Foreign sugar and sugar bi-products compete with American produced corn and grain. Black strap molasses is rapidly replacing grain and corn in the manufacture of grain and industrial alcohol. In some islands the sugar production is controlled by only a handful of capitalists. American banks in Wall street are directly interested in the sugar production in Cuba. That explains why some members from the farm group are fighting to preserve the American market for the American producer. Ship owners want the job of hauling freight. They are a great help to foreign producers. They go out after the ship freight business. Ship owners, foreign sugar and foreign fats and oils are linked very closely together. They fight together to capture the great American market. They hire the finest legal talent available. That's why many former government employees have quit high priced government jobs to work for private industries. That's why the names of former officers in the army and navy—some who have retired and are getting retirement pay—can be seen on the payrolls of the great trusts who deal in sugar, molasses or oil.

BRIEFLY STATED

W. J. Froelich came out from Chicago last Friday and spent the week-end with his family here.

Mrs. Tom Enright left Sunday for Norfolk, Nebr., for a few days visit with her daughter, Eileen.

K. A. Wehl is driving a new gasoline tank wagon, which is one of the most modern on the market and classy in appearance.

John Harrington came out from Chicago last Sunday for a few hours visit with his family, before returning east to Washington.

Ralph Tomlinson is having the interior of his U. and I. Store treated to a new coat of paint, which adds greatly to its appearance.

F. J. Biglin returned from Omaha last Friday night. Mrs. Biglin and Joe, who is receiving medical treatment there, will remain another week.

William Krotter of Stuart, was looking after business in the city the first of the week.

Billy Dean Angster entertained half a dozen of his little friends at a birthday party at his home last Monday afternoon, it being his second birthday.

Mrs. James Oppen and daughter leave tomorrow for Creighton for a week or ten days visit at the home of Mr. Oppen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Oppen.

The following have recently donated books to the public library: Betty Mears, Mrs. Pete Morgan, Miss Jane Flannigan, Sid Bush, Mrs. F. J. Dishner and Mrs. Hugh Coyne.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Todsen and children drove to Grand Island Sunday morning and spent the day with relatives, returning home that evening. Pete says the road between here and the Island is now like a boulevard all the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Spindler left last Monday for Walla Walla, Wash., where they expect to make their future home, provided things look as good there as they have been led to believe. For the past few years Mr. Spindler has been farming near Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Krotovil and children came up from Osmond last Sunday morning and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kersenbrock. They left for home about 4 p. m., and were accompanied by Mayor and Mrs. Kersenbrock who spent the evening visiting there.

Joe Wadsworth of Opportunity and Miss Virginia Lambert of Ewing, were granted a marriage license last Saturday at the county court and were married that day at the Presbyterian manse, Rev. H. D. Johnson performing the ceremony. The single ring ceremony was used.

W. H. Barnhart, of the Barnhart Market, announces that he has secured the contract to furnish 4,000 bushels of seed potatoes to the Rosebud Indian Agency, delivery to be made between the first and 5th of April, 1937. The potatoes are to be Red River Valley Early Ohio's and Red Triumphs. It will take seven carloads of potatoes to fill this order.

Land Commissioner Leo Swanson of Lincoln, was in the city Wednesday night on his way home from an official visit to Boyd county. Mr. Swanson had several leases of educational lands for sale in that county and he said that he was very successful, many of the pieces of real estate bringing premiums. It was one of the most successful sales held in the state for several years. He returned to Lincoln this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Sauers entertained seven couples with a St. Patrick's party at their home last Wednesday evening. Bridge was the pastime of the evening and Pinochle Near-Champion John Kersenbrock carried off first honors with high score, while Mrs. Kersenbrock, not to be outdone by the Mayor carried off honors for high score, among the ladies. In addition tion to winning the high score the Mayor also carried off the traveling prize. A fair pinochle player has probably been ruined as now we expect to hear him discuss the finer points of "Bridge" every time we meet him.

Spring is just around the corner and is getting into the blood of the residents of this city. Attorney Emmet Harmon took a drive into the country last Sunday and viewed a nice herd of cattle. He at once wanted to get into the cattle business and as the first step toward ownership of a ranch he decided to buy a cow, and did so. The cow was to have been delivered to him Monday and at an extra early hour he was awakened from slumber by the man he had purchased the cow from, telling him his cow was outside. Emmet was shy a barn for the bovine but he had a garage, so the car was run out of its home and the cow installed therein. Now bossie reigns supreme and the family chariot is parked outside the home it once occupied.

NOTICE TO AUTOMOBILE AND TRUCK OWNERS!

You are requested to buy your licenses at once as the State officers are instructed to arrest any violators in this respect. Trucks must have proper lights and flares and proper licenses for their respective types of trucks. License plates must be displayed on both the front and rear. Any trucker doing commercial hauling on farm licenses will be subject to arrest and heavy fine.

Please comply with this at once to avoid arrest.
