SOUTHWEST BREEZES
By Romaine Saunders

John Bower had business at Stuart a day last week.

A coming 2-year-old Belgian stallion, of splendid proportions and ponderous weight for a colt, is a recent acquisition at the James ranch.

It is reported that coal has been disappearing from the district's supply at the school house a mile north. Only one in desperate need would think of such a source of supply.

"I will appoint judges who will not undertake to override the judgment of congress on legislative policy," are said to be the president's exact words. Why a supreme court?

Suppose Mr. Roosevelt gets his six additional judges. Suppose again the nine now composing the court feel like resenting executive interference and "stick together" in passing on acts of congress. Then what?

It is said there are 650 abandoned houses in five northeast Nebraska counties, due to the inability of tenants to finance crop operations. Last year there was a shortage of some 300 farms in Holt county. At present there are two vacant ranches down this way.

Hugh James is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. James. He is convalescing after nearly a month in a hospital because of injuries sustained in a railroad wreck in the vicinity of Council Bluffs while on his way from Minneapolis to Omaha.

After a prolonged Arctic visitation, the southwest welcomes the sun back on our side of the equator, which geographical imagination astronomers tell us it crosses March 21. We have never been down there to see, but there are a lot of things we have to take on the word of others.

INMAN NEWS

Lenten services are in progress at the M. E. church. Rev. E. B. Maxey, pastor of the church, is preaching. He also brings a message in song, accompanying himself on the guitar each night. On Wednesday evening, Rev. Carmody of Page, will preach. Thursday night the communion service will be held. Beginning Sunday, April 4, evangelistic meetings will be held with Rev. .....AMAZING ANNOUNCEMENT!
GAMBLE'S DARING NEW TIRE
POLICY SAVES YOU UP TO 40%!

EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY
Gambles now offer only one complete line of tires... our finest first line Crest. at less than nationally advertised list prices on 4th line tires

THE MOST REVOLUTIONARY PRICE POLICY CHANGE IN YEARS

Read that price policy again! You've never seen one like it before. It's the most sensational news that's hit the tire industry in 20 years! How is it possible? By concentrating on just one complete line of tires—the famous CREST—Gambles can now afford to slash even further the already low price of this first line tire . . . sell them for less than nationally advertised list prices on 4th line tires. Tremendous increases in sales make up the difference . . . save motorists thousands of dollars in the face of rapidly rising material and labor costs. Yet Crest is still the finest tire a modern factory can build . . . genuine first-line quality that ordinarily would cost you up to $7.00 more per tire. Now, for the first time, enjoy the true economy and safety of top grade tires at 4th-grade prices. Unlimited guarantee as to time or mileage.
